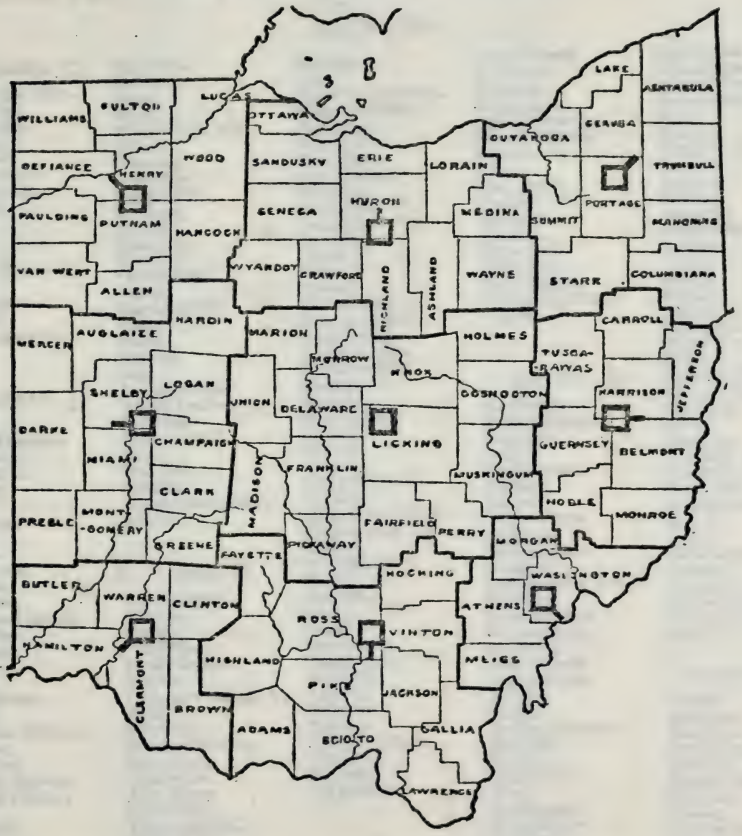
DIAGRAM OF THE STATE OF OHIO,

ILLUSTRATING A METHOD OF DESIGNATING THE RELATIVE POSITIONS OF THE COUNTIES IN THAT AND OTHER STATES, BY SYMBOLS, AS USED IN THE FOLLOWING LIST OF POST OFFICES.

DEVISED (AND COPYRIGHTED) BY JOSEPH M. TONER, M. D., OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

Adopted by the Postmaster General, September 1, 1875.



This method consists in regarding the Counties of each State (or Territory) in their relation to an imaginary division of the area of the State into a central, northern, eastern, southern, western, northwestern, northeastern, southeastern, and southwestern section — each of these nine sections (each containing several counties) being, as near as may be, of equal area, and designated by the simple series of symbols shown above.

In States nearly square or rectangular the supposed division is readily made, —in others, as for instance Florida, Maryland, New Jersey, etc., some of the nine sections do not appear, but in all cases the most practically approximate division has been adopted.

THE REGISTRY SYSTEM.

All correspondence with the Department concerning registration matters, except as herein indicated, should be addressed to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, whose office has general control and superintendence over the registry system.

Cases of lost or missing registered matter should be reported promptly to the Chief Post Office Inspector.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO REGISTRATION, ETC.—All valuable matter to be sent by mail should be registered. It will thus receive protection which it is not always possible to give it if sent in the ordinary mails.

Every postmaster is obliged to register mail matter that is properly prepared and offered at the post office for registration.

All classes of mailable matter, including drop or local letters, may be registered; but not matter addressed to fictitious names, initials, or box numbers simply, or matter bearing vague and indefinite addresses.

First-class post offices and their stations must be kept open for the transaction of registry business until 6 P.M.; all other post offices must attend to registration business during ordinary business hours.

The cost of registering mail matter is eight cents for registry fee, in addition to postage, both of which must invariably be fully prepaid by stamps affixed to the matter.

Beyond what is necessary to guard against the admission of unmailable matter, postmasters are not permitted to make inquiries concerning the contents of letters or parcels sealed and prepaid at letter rates of postage; they should examine parcels of third and fourth-class matter that are to be registered, in order to see that the matter is mailable, and that no other kind of matter is therein concealed.

Before receiving matter for registration, postmasters are required to see that the article presented bears the name and address of the sender, that it is fully, legibly, and correctly addressed, and has affixed ordinary postage stamps sufficient to fully prepay both registry fee and postage, and that it is securely enclosed in a sealed envelope, if first-class matter, or if third or fourth-class, that it is endorsed with the name of its class and so wrapped as to safely bear transportation, as well as to admit of easy inspection. All these requirements must be complied with by the sender or person presenting the matter.

Postmasters should caution persons mailing letters to domestic destinations to add the name of the county to the address, and with letters to foreign destinations to make the address as full as possible.

Letters for Canada should bear the names of the county and province, and those for Mexico the name of the Mexican State, where the office of delivery is located.

entitled to and should require a receipt for it, upon its acceptance by the postmaster; and he is also entitled to a receipt properly signed by the person to whom delivery is made, the latter to be returned to him by the delivering postmaster when delivery is effected.

If a return receipt for registered matter addressed to a foreign country be desired by the sender, a demand for the same must be written across the face of the envelope of the registered article. Postmasters should so inform all persons who send registered matter to foreign countries.

Every person who registers mail matter, and fails to get back promptly a return receipt, should call the attention of the mailing postmaster to the case. If within a reasonable time no satisfactory explanation of the non-return of the receipt is given, the case should be reported to the Chief Post Office Inspector. The Post Office Department is not responsible for losses in the mails, even in the case of registered matter; but all losses are carefully investigated with a view to recovering the lost article where possible, or its value, when the loss is due to culpable negligence on the part of postal officials.

Articles of correspondence addressed under initials, or which bear an address written in pencil, or any matter that is unmailable in the domestic mails, cannot be sent by registered mail to foreign countries, and will not be received for registration. Nor can any article excluded from the ordinary Postal Union mails be admitted in the registered mails for foreign countries.

Registered matter while in the post office is required to be kept in the most secure manner, and no one but the postmaster or his sworn assistants is permitted to have access to it.

DELIVERY.—Registered matter must not be delivered to any one but the person to whom it is addressed, without a written order from the addressee, duly verified; and no exception can be made to this rule because of relationship of any nature between the addressee and the person claiming the matter. Written orders authorizing the delivery of registered matter to another than the addressee may be for a specific letter or parcel, or they may cover all registered matter addressed to the person giving the order, except that the delivery of which to the addressee in person has been demanded by the sender by an indorsement upon the matter itself. Upon the delivery of registered matter the addressee must receipt for it both on the postmaster's delivery book and upon the sender's return receipt. If delivery is made upon a written order, the person to whom the matter is delivered must not only sign his own name but the addressee's also to the receipts.

RECALL OF REGISTERED MATTER.—A registered letter after dispatch, and before delivery, may be recalled by the sender where the particular circumstances of the case render it proper, if there be no objection upon the part of the addressee. If objection be offered by the addressee, the application and all the facts in the case should be referred to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, and delivery withheld until his decision is made known. The application should be made through the mailing postmaster at the office of address, either by letter or telegram, as the exigencies of the case may require, at the expense, however, of the sender; and the application when sent to the Third Assistant Postmaster General should state clearly and concisely all the facts and the reason assigned for the recall. If proper, the authority for such recall will then be given.

Registered matter may be forwarded from one post office to another at the written request of the addressee, and such requests must be promptly complied with. Additional postage is chargeable for forwarding third or fourth-class matter, but not for matter prepaid at letter rates. No additional registry fee is chargeable in either case. After a registered letter or parcel has been returned to the mailing office, however, either in compliance with a request indorsed upon it, or because of non-delivery within thirty days, it cannot be re-dispatched without being registered anew and additional prepayment of both postage and fee.

UNDELIVERED MATTER.—Undelivered registered matter that has remained in a post office for thirty days, or for such time as the sender has designated in a return request on the matter, is required to be returned for restoration to the sender.

Deficiencies in postage on registered matter must be collected from the addressee by the delivering office, but deficiencies in registry fee must be reported to the Third Assistant Postmaster General for collection from the mailing postmaster.

RECEIPTS.—Where practicable, all receipts for registered matter must be prepared and signed with pen and ink. Where pen and ink cannot be had, indelible pencils should be used.

Full instructions concerning registry business will be found in the Postal Laws and Regulations, edition of 1893, and they should be carefully read by all postmasters and their assistants and clerks.

LIST OF UNITED STATES EXCHANGE OFFICES DISPATCHING REGISTERED MAIL.

The Postal Regulations direct that registered letters addressed to foreign destinations must be inclosed in registered package envelopes addressed to, and with registry bills made out for, the proper United States exchange post office. A list of such exchange post offices is given on pages 820 to 825 of this POSTAL GUIDE, which, taken in connection with the table of international registered pouch exchange offices on page 825, contains full information as to the dispatch of foreign registered mail. In the list of foreign countries, the requirements are the same for the entire country; but in the table of international pouch exchanges and the Mexican and Cuban exchange tables separate schemes are given for each State, and certain exceptions are stated, which should be carefully noted.

Where registered mail is specially addressed by the sender to be sent by way of some other exchange office, or by steamer leaving some other port, it must be forwarded as indorsed; but otherwise conformity with the following tables is expected. Registered matter for foreign destinations not included in the schemes for international registered exchanges, and originating at exchange post offices other than those hereafter named, which are points of debarkation, may be dispatched direct from such offices, unless specially addressed to go otherwise, or unless there is some good reason, such as would facilitate its dispatch, or increase its safety in transmission, for sending it otherwise.

GENERAL EXCHANGE OFFICES FOR FOREIGN REGISTERED MAILS.

REGISTERED MATTER ADDRESSED TO	SHOULD BE BILLED TO
Newfoundland, and the French islands of Saint Pierre and Miquelon. Also, when expeditious, mails for Great Britain, Ireland and other European countries	Boston, Mass.
All trans-Atlantic destinations, including Great Britain and all European countries, and British India, Straits Settlements, Siam and the Dutch Settlements in the East Indies, and points in the Colony of Western Australia, (Capital City, Perth.)	New York, N. Y.
Central and South America, the West Indies (except Cuba, for which see table of international pouch exchanges), and islands off the Atlantic coast	New York, N. Y.
Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Guatemala, the Republic of Honduras, the Bay Islands, and British Honduras (when more expedient than to dispatch to New York as above)	New Orleans, La.
All trans-Pacific destinations, including the Hawaiian Islands, New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia, (except points in Western Australia), New Caledonia, Japan, the Chinese ports, and the East Indies (except British India, Straits Settlements, Siam, and the Dutch Settlements)	San Francisco, Cal.

EXCHANGE OFFICES FOR MEXICAN REGISTERED MAILS.

Postmasters, when receipting to senders for matter registered to Mexican destinations, will request them to add to the address the name of the Mexican State in which the post office of address is situated.

All postmasters, when dispatching registered matter for Mexican destinations, should make registry bills and address their registered package envelopes to that United States exchange office which will give to such registered matter the greatest expedition.

The following scheme for registered matter dispatched to Mexico shows the Mexican States and the excepted post offices in such States, with the proper United States exchange

POSTMASTERS WILL READ THE NOTES AT THE END OF THE SCHEMES.

NOTE:—Postmasters dispatching registered matter to foreign countries should consult the monthly "Schedule of steamers sailing for foreign ports," which is issued from the office of the Sup't of Foreign Mails.

* Registered matter for Progresso in Yucatan, City of Frontera in Sonora, Tampico in Tamaulipas, States of Campeche, Chiapas, Tabasco, Vera Cruz and Yucatan, also be sent via New York, N. Y., for dispatch by sea.

† Matter for Manzanilo in Colima, States of Colima, Guerrero, Jalisco, Michoacan, Sinaloa, Cities of Mazatlan and Guayamas in Sonora, and City of La Paz in a California, and West Coast of Mexico, can also be sent via San Francisco, Cal., for dispatch by sea.

‡ Matter for Acapulco in Guerrero, and for Mexican ports south of Acapulco, can also be sent via San Francisco, Cal., for dispatch by sea.

Postmasters must comply with instructions on letters specially addressed to go by sea, and should consult steamer hedules published by the Superintendent of Foreign Mails for full information.

Postmasters at border exchange offices will make up local registered mail for Mexico, so as to give the greatest dispatch from e standpoint of their respective offices.

REGISTRY EXCHANGES WITH CANADA AND CUBA.

Postmasters receiving registered matter for the Canadian provinces or for Cuba, will ascertain from addresses and comparison with table headings, to which foreign exchange district the registered matter should be sent. They will then address registered package envelopes and bill such registered matter to that U. S. exchange post office in the approximate column set opposite the State in which the postmaster's own office is located. (SEE EXCEPTIONS AT FOOT OF TABLE.)

When receipting to senders for registered matter to Canadian destinations, postmasters will request them to add to the address on each registered piece the name of the Canadian County and Province in which the post office of address is situated.

Postmasters will carefully examine the notes at the foot of this table.

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT.

INSTRUCTIONS RELATIVE TO CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE DEPARTMENT.

In addressing communications to the Department care must be exercised that they bear the address of the officer in charge of the bureau to which the business relates. Never address to a clerk in charge of a division. Avoid writing upon more than one subject in the same letter. (See P. L. and R. § 458.)

Observe the following examples:—

Relative to Salaries and Allowances of Postmasters, or change of location of a Presidential post office, address First Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Salaries and Allowances.

Relative to letters sent to the Dead Letter Office, address First Assistant Postmaster-General, Dead Letter Office.

Relative to Money-Order Business and to the Establishment of Money-Order Offices, address First Assistant Postmaster-General, Money-Order System.

An order for blanks for use in postal business should be addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Supplies. Add to the address the words, "Order for Blanks." (See P. L. and R. § 424.)

In ordering blanks Presidential offices should use form No. 1505; fourth-class post offices should use form No. 1567. (See P. L. and R. § 428.) In supplying special blanks and books and marking or rating stamps, which must be manufactured after the orders are received, from five to six weeks' time is required to fill the orders.

Relative to the Free-Delivery Service, address First Assistant Postmaster-General, Free-Delivery Service.

Relative to construction of postal regulations, rulings, general information, miscellaneous correspondence not strictly pertaining to other bureaus of the Department, and complaints against postmasters, address First Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Correspondence.

Relative to a mail route, address Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

Relative to complaints against mail contractors or their agents for failures or other irregularities in the transportation of the mails, whether made by postmasters or others, address Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Inspection.

Relative to postage on foreign letters and other questions in regard to foreign mails, address Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Foreign Mails Service.

Relative to classification of mail matter, and rates of postage, address Third Assistant Postmaster-General; also as to the Special Delivery System.

In ordering "postage stamps," etc., address Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Postage Stamps.

Relative to warrants for pay of mail contractors and others, or to deposit of postal funds, address Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Finance.

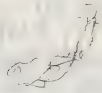
Relative to registered letters or registration business, address Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Registration.

Relative to entry or admission of second-class matter to the pound rate, address Third Assistant Postmaster-General. (See P. L. and R. § 284.)

Relative to appointment of a postmaster, or the establishment of a post office, or change of site of a fourth class post office, or a postmaster's bond, address Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General.

Relative to the loss, rifling, robbery, burning, wreckage or destruction of mail, or damage, wrong delivery, non-delivery, or improper treatment by postal employés of any article of mail matter, registered, ordinary or parcel post, including complaints relating to mail matter passing between the United States and foreign countries, and foreign mail in transit across the territory of the United States, address Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations.

Relative to distribution and dispatch of mails, appointments to the Railway Mail Service, and to the admission of matter to the mails which may be liable to injure the mails or the persons of postal employés unless properly secured, address General Superintendent, Railway Mail Service. Applicants for appointments as railway postal clerks are required to pass a civil service examination, and all applications should be addressed to the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.



Relative to claims for credit for stamps, etc., or postal or money-order funds lost by fire, burglary, etc., address Assistant Attorney-General for the Post Office Department.

Upon questions of construction of the postal laws, address Assistant Attorney-General for the Post Office Department.

The readjustment of salaries of postmasters, and allowances for rent, fuel and light, clerk hire, and miscellaneous expenditures are considered in the Division of Salaries and Allowances. To this office is attached the Division of Free Delivery having in charge the preparation of cases for the inauguration of the system in cities, the appointment of letter-carriers and the regulation of allowances for incidental expenses, as well as the general supervision of the free-delivery system throughout the United States. The Division of Post Office Supplies furnishes the necessary books and blanks for postal business (except mail requisitions and money-order books and blanks), marking and rating stamps, canceling ink and ink-pads, letter balances and scales, wrapping paper and twine, to offices of which the gross receipts are one hundred dollars and upwards. Stationery and printed facing slips are furnished to first and second-class post offices only; plain facing slips are supplied to third and fourth-class offices. (See P. L. and R. §§ 424, 508.)

OFFICE OF THE SECOND ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Chief Clerk, GEORGE F. STONE, New York.
Superintendent Railway Adjustments, JAMES H. CREW, Ohio.
Division of Inspection—Chief, JOHN A. CHAPMAN, Illinois.
Division of Mail Equipment—Chief, R. D. S. TYLER, Michigan.
Foreign Mails—Superintendent, N. M. BROOKS, Virginia.
" " Chief Clerk, ROBERT L. MADDOX, Kentucky.

3. To this office is assigned the business of arranging the mail service of the United States and placing the same under contract, embracing all correspondence and proceedings respecting the frequency of trips, mode of conveyance, and times of departures and arrivals on all the routes; the course of the mails between the different sections of the country, the points of mail distribution, and the regulations for the government of the domestic mail service of the United States. It prepares the advertisements for mail proposals, receives the bids, and has charge of the general and miscellaneous mail lettings and the adjustment and execution of the contracts. All applications for mail service or change of mail arrangements and for all messengers should be sent to this office. All claims should be submitted to it for transportation service. From this office all postmasters at the end of the routes receive the statement of mail arrangements prescribed for the respective routes. It reports weekly to the Auditor all contracts executed and all orders affecting the accounts for mail transportation; prepares the statistical exhibits of the mail service and the reports to Congress of the mail lettings, giving a statement of each bid; also, of the contracts made, the new service originated, the curtailments ordered, and the additional allowances granted within the year. The rates of pay for the transportation of the mails on railroad routes, according to the amount and character of the service, are adjusted by this office. It also directs the weighing of the mails on the same, and authorizes new service on railroad routes. The procuring and furnishing of mail locks and keys, mail catchers and mail bags is also in charge of this office. To it belongs the Division of Inspection, to which is assigned the duty of receiving and inspecting the monthly registers of arrivals and departures, reporting the performance of mail service; also special reports of failures or delinquencies on the part of mail contractors or their agents, and of noting such failures or delinquencies, and preparing cases of fines or deductions by reason thereof; of preparing the correspondence growing out of reports of failures or delinquencies in the transportation of the mails; of reporting to the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department, at the close of each quarter, by certificate of inspection, the fact of performance or non-performance of contract mail service, noting therein such fines or deductions as may have been ordered; of authorizing the payment of all employés of the railway mail service; also the payment of such acting employés as may be employed by this office through the Superintendent of Railway Mail Service in cases of emergency, and of authorizing the Auditor to credit postmasters with sums paid by them for such temporary service; and such other duties as may be necessary to secure a faithful performance of the mail service.

O. L. TEACHOUT, Superintendent, Fort Worth, Texas.
Z. MOSES, Assistant Superintendent, attached to the office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Registration.

4. When the general public or officers or employés of the Post Office Department have cause to complain of irregularities in the receipt or dispatch of mails, they should address the division superintendent of railway mail service in charge of the division in which they reside, as shown by the assignment given above. It will materially assist the officers of the Department in making a thorough investigation, if all envelopes covering delayed letters are inclosed at the time complaint is made.

In all matters pertaining to the distribution and dispatch of mails for points beyond the delivery of an office, postmasters will be governed entirely by orders from or through the office of the General Superintendent of Railway Mail Service, or of the Superintendent of Railway Mail Service for the division in which their offices may be situated.

No change in distribution or dispatch must be given without first obtaining such an order, except in cases of emergency, and in all such cases an immediate report, giving the reasons for such change, must be given to the Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service for the division in which the office may be situated.

To this office has also been assigned the Foreign Mail Service having charge of all foreign postal arrangements and correspondence connected with the Foreign Mail Service and the supervision of the Ocean Mail-Steamship Service—including the dispatch of mails for foreign countries. The instruction of postmasters in all matters pertaining to the treatment of articles of mail-matter sent to or received from foreign countries devolves upon this office, under the direction of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, as well as the decision of all questions arising under the provisions of the Postal Conventions with foreign countries.

OFFICE OF THE THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Postage Stamp Division.—Chief, T. Q. MUNCE, Louisiana.
Registered Letter Division.—Principal Clerk, W. H. WOOD, New York.
Division of Files, Mail, etc.—Principal Clerk, E. S. HALL, Vermont.
Postage Stamp Agent.—WESLEY R. DAVIS, New York, N. Y.
Stamped Envelope Agent.—CHARLES H. FIELD, Hartford, Conn.

5. This office is charged with the duty of issuing drafts and warrants in payment of balances reported by the Auditor to be due to mail contractors or other persons; the superintendence of the collection of revenue at post offices; the receipt, examination, and record of certificates of postal deposits; and the accounts between the Department and Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers of the United States and specially designated depositories of postal funds. This office is also charged with the duty of preparing instructions for the guidance of postmasters respecting registered matter, and with the general control and management of the registry system of the United States. To it is attached the Division of Postage Stamps, Stamped Envelopes, and Postal Cards, having charge of the issuing of postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, and postal cards, and the supplying of postmasters with envelopes for their official use, and registered package envelopes. The agencies having the supervision of the manufacture of postage stamps, stamped envelopes, and postal cards are also under the direction of this office. This office is also charged with the consideration of questions relating to the classification of mail matter and the rates of postage, the entry of second-class publications and correspondence relating thereto. The Special Delivery System also comes under this office.

OFFICE OF THE FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General—ROBERT A. MAXWELL, New York.
Chief Clerk—HARRY G. OSGOOD, New York.
Division of Appointments—Chief, GEORGE G. FENTON, OHIO.
Division of Bonds and Commissions—Chief, N. A. C. SMITH, Wisconsin.
Division of P. O. Inspectors and Mail Depredations—
Chief P. O. Inspector—M. D. WHEELER, New York.
Chief Clerk—JAMES MAYNARD, Tennessee.

6. To this office is assigned the duty of preparing all cases for the establishment, discontinuance, and change of name or site of post offices, and the appointment of all postmasters and the correspondence incident thereto; of receiving and recording appointments, of receiving, entering and filing bonds and oaths of postmasters and issuing their commissions; the office of Chief Post Office Inspector, which office is charged with the supervision of the Division of Post Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations, the government and assignment to duty of all the inspectors employed in the postal service, and the supervision of the business of that force; with the preparation and issue of cases for investigation, and with all matters relating to depredations upon the mails or losses therein, including complaints relating to mail matter passing between the United States and foreign countries and across the territory of the United States from one foreign country to another, and the correspondence, foreign and domestic, connected with the same; with the keeping of the records and preparing statistics of the inspective force; with the examination for allowance of the accounts of inspectors (not including Assistant Superintendents Railway Mail Service holding commissions as post office inspectors), and the keeping of the Department accounts of expenditures in this service; with the safe custody of money and property collected or received by inspectors, and the preparation of cases for submission to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General for orders for the restoration thereof to the proper parties or owners; and the performance of such other duties as may, from time to time, be required of him by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General.

All cases of mail depredations or violations of postal laws by private expresses, or by the forging or illegal use of postage stamps; of the rifling, robbery or burning of mails, or post offices, or postal cars, or any extraordinary loss or destruction of mail matter, as well as any accidents to the mails, requiring the immediate attention of inspectors in charge of divisions, must be promptly reported to the Chief Post Office Inspector, and also to the Inspector in charge of the proper division, as follows:—In cases occurring in the State of New York, to the Post Office Inspector in charge at New York City; in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, to Inspector in charge at Philadelphia, Pa.; in Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, to Inspector in charge at Boston, Mass.; in Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina, to Inspector in charge at Washington, D. C.; in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, to Inspector in charge at Cincinnati, Ohio; in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, to Inspector in charge at Chicago, Ill.; in Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Nebraska and Indian Territory, including Oklahoma, to Inspector in charge at St. Louis, Mo.; in Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, to Inspector in charge at Chattanooga, Tenn.; in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona, to Inspector in charge at Denver, Colorado; in California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Alaska, to Inspector in charge at San Francisco, Cal.; in Idaho, Montana, North and South Dakota, to Inspector in charge at Helena, Mont.; in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, to Inspector in charge at New Orleans, La. The Inspectors in charge at the above mentioned places should be notified at the time the report is made to them that the matter has been reported to the Chief Inspector.

OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT ATTORNEY-GENERAL FOR THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Assistant Attorney-General—JOHN L. THOMAS, Missouri.
Law Clerk—RALPH W. HAYNES, Illinois.

7. To this office are referred, when deemed advisable by the Postmaster-General or the heads of the several offices of the Department, questions concerning the construction of the laws which may arise in the administration of the business of the Department. It is also charged with the consideration of recommendations made by the Sixth Auditor for the compromise of fines, penalties, etc., under section 409 of the Revised Statutes, and the claims of postmasters for reimbursement on account of loss of money-order funds and postage stamps by fire, burglary, or other unavoidable casualty.

Applications for pardon, and all correspondence relating to suits, prosecutions, etc., from the Department of Justice are referred to this office; and appeals to the Postmaster-General from the decisions of the Assistant Postmasters General are usually referred to the Assistant Attorney-General for examination and opinion upon the legal questions involved.

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR OF THE TREASURY FOR THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Auditor.—JOHN B. BRAWLEY, Pennsylvania.
Deputy Auditor.—WILLIAM G. CRAWFORD, Louisiana.
Chief Clerk.—BOONE CHAMBERS, District of Columbia.
Disbursing Clerk.—T. D. KELEHER, New York.
Examining Division.—Chief, JOHN W. BENNETT, North Dakota.
Collecting Division.—Chief, M. F. EGGERMAN, Ohio.
Book-keeping Division.—Chief, DAVID H. FENTON, Indiana.
Pay Division.—Chief, JOHN S. DENTON, Tennessee.
Review Division.—Chief, EDWARD M. DICKINSON, Arkansas.
Inspecting Division.—Chief, D. W. GALL, West Virginia.
Checking Division.—Chief, ROBERT R. MAYES, Mississippi.
Recording Division.—Chief, W. E. DOUGHERTY, Pennsylvania.
Foreign Division.—Chief, D. N. BURBANK, New York.
Assorting Division.—Chief, WILLIAM N. BRAGAW, Alabama.

8. This is a bureau of the Treasury Department to which is assigned the duty of auditing the accounts of the Post Office Department, including those of postmasters, mail contractors, and its other agents or employés.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC ON POSTAL SUBJECTS.

1. How to Direct and Mail Letters.—Mail matter should be addressed legibly and completely, giving the name of the post office, and, if to a city having a free delivery, the street and number, and the post office box of the person addressed should be added, if he have one. It is well to give the county also, and to spell the name of the State in full. To secure return to the sender in case of misdirection or insufficient payment of postage, his name should be written or printed upon the upper left-hand corner of all mail-matter. The matter will then be returned to the sender, if not called for at its destination, without going to the Dead Letter Office, and, if a letter, it will be returned free.

2. Dispatch is hastened by mailing early, especially when large numbers of letters, newspapers, or circulars are mailed at once.

3. When numbers of letters or circulars are mailed together, addressed to the same destination, it is well to tie them in bundles with the addresses facing the same side. On letters for places in foreign countries, especially Canada and England, in which many post offices have the same name as offices in the United States, the name of the country as well as post office should be given in full. Letters addressed, for instance, merely to "London," without adding "England," are frequently sent to London, Canada, and vice versa, thereby causing delay, and often serious loss. Letters addressed to Burlington, N. S. (Nova Scotia) often go to Burlington, New York, on account of the resemblance between S and Y when carelessly written.

4. Avoid Thin Envelopes.—Thin envelopes, or those made of weak or poor, unsubstantial paper, should not be used, especially for large packages. Being often handled, and in the mail-bags subjected to pressure and friction, such envelopes are frequently torn open or burst, without fault of those who handle them. It is best to use Stamped Envelopes wherever it is convenient and practical to do so.

5. Register Valuable Matter.—All valuable matter should be registered. Registry fee is eight cents, which, with full postage, must be prepaid, and name and address of sender must be given on the outside of envelope or wrapper. Money should be sent by a money-order or registered letter; otherwise it is liable to loss. (See page 884.)

6. The Convenience of Letter Boxes.—Patrons in cities where letter carriers are employed are advised to provide letter boxes at places of business or private residences, thereby saving much delay in the delivery of mail-matter.

7. The Use of Mailing Boxes.—When dropping a packet in a mailing box, or into the receptacle at the post office, care should be taken that the packet falls into the box, and does not stick in the passage. Mail-matter deposited in any receptacle erected by the Department, such as street mailing-boxes for the reception of mail-matter to be collected by letter-carriers, or boxes in railroad depots for the reception of matter to be collected by employés of the railway mail service, cannot be reclaimed except as provided for by Rulings 192 and 194 of this GUIDE. On such receptacles erected in railroad depots a notice should be affixed that they are not intended for reception of matter for city delivery.

8. Affix Stamps Firmly.—Postage stamps should be placed on the upper right-hand corner of the address-side of all the mail-matter, care being taken that they are securely affixed.

9. What Postage May be Paid With.—Postmasters are not required to accept as payment for postage stamps, etc., any currency which may be so mutilated as to be uncurrent or as to render its genuineness doubtful. Nor are they required to receive more than twenty-five cents in copper or nickel coins, nor to affix stamps to letters, nor to make change, except as a matter of courtesy. They must not give credit for postage.

10. General Suggestions.—A subscriber to a newspaper or periodical who changes his residence and post office should at once notify the publisher, and have the publication sent to his new address.

11. Publishers and news-agents mailing second-class matter in quantities, will facilitate its distribution, and often hasten its dispatch, by separating such matter by States and Territories and the larger cities.

12. Hotel matter, that is, matter addressed for delivery at hotels, should be returned to the post office as soon as it is evident that it will not be claimed.

13. Proprietors of hotels, officers of clubs and boards of trade or exchanges, should not hold unclaimed letters longer than ten days, except at the request of the person addressed, and should re-direct them for forwarding, if the present address is known; otherwise they should be returned to the post office.

14. All inquiries, whether from postmasters or the public, relative to lost or missing mail-matter of every description, both foreign or domestic, ordinary and registered, should be addressed to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., to whom all losses or irregularities should be reported as soon as possible after the loss. An early report is necessary, as the chance of recovery is thereby increased.

15. All inquiries relative to mail-matter known to have been sent to the Dead Letter Office, should be addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General, Dead Letter Office; and in such cases the letter of inquiry must state to whom and what post office the article was addressed, and give the name and full address of the writer or sender, the date and place of mailing, and a brief description of the contents. If it is known when the missing matter was sent to the Dead Letter Office, the date and the reason for sending should be given. If registered, the number should also be furnished.

17. Packages of mutilated currency addressed to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption may be registered free of charge for registry, but the postage thereon must be prepaid at letter rates. (See P. L. & R., §§ 1039, 1040.)

18. It is desirable that the management of the newly completed lines of railroad consult the Post Office Department in regard to the names of stations; if the names of stations in all cases correspond with those of the post offices in whose delivery they are, much confusion and annoyance will be saved the Department and the public.

19. Considerable inconvenience to the employés of the Department and delay to mail matter result from the failure of the public to properly address mail matter intended for delivery at offices in North and South Dakota; large quantities of such matter being simply addressed "Dakota." Postmasters should avail themselves of every opportunity of impressing upon the patrons of their offices, the necessity for properly addressing mail for these two States.

20. Letters addressed to persons temporarily sojourning in a city where the Free Delivery System is in operation should be marked "Transient" or "General Delivery," if not addressed to a street and number or some other designated place of delivery.

21. The issue of money-orders on credit is prohibited, under the severest penalties, and no moneys will be received by a postmaster in payment for money-orders issued except that which is legal tender by the laws of the United States, nor can orders be paid in any other currency than that herein described. Checks, drafts, or promissory notes are not to be received under any circumstances for the issue of money-orders.

22. Postal employés are not permitted to change the address upon misdirected letters and other mail-matter, except as provided for by Ruling 164, page 872 of this GUIDE. Matter not addressed to any post office cannot be forwarded in the mails, but must be returned to the sender, if known, for better direction, or else sent to the Dead Letter Office. It is easier for the public to address their mail matter to a post office than it is for the Department to ascertain where matter not addressed to a post office should be sent. Postmasters have been instructed to inform senders of the proper post office address of matter returned to them because not addressed to a post office, or, if the proper address is not known, to advise them to apply at the nearest Division Superintendent of Railway Mail Service for the desired information.

23. All mail matter arriving at destination upon which postage is collected in money from the recipient, upon delivery, must have affixed thereto a brown postage-due stamp or stamps equal to the sum collected. (P. L. & R., § 513.) Persons from whom such postage is required may and are requested to demand that such postage-due stamps be affixed by the postmaster or his representative when payment is made.

24. Proprietors of hotels should omit the return-request from envelopes supplied gratuitously to their guests; and guests using such envelopes should be careful to designate what disposition should be made of letters sent by them in case they cannot be delivered.

25. It will be well for proprietors of hotels to have envelopes marked "Guests' envelopes," or "Envelope for the use of guests,"—using, of course a different envelope for their own business.

26. Applications for the Establishment of Post Offices should be addressed to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, accompanied by a statement of the necessity therefor. Instructions will then be given and blanks furnished to enable the petitioners to furnish the Department the necessary information.

27. In selecting names for post offices it is desired that the name of the town or village in which the office is to be located, should be adopted, if such name is in no way similar to that of any established office in the State, or in any other State, the abbreviation of which is similar. Short names should be preferred. The prefix of "East," "Centre," "Mount," "New," "North," "South," or "West," to the name of a post office is objectionable; as also is the addition of "Boro," "Burgh," "Centre," "City," "Corners," "Creek," "Cross Roads," "Depot," "Hill," "Hotel," "Hollow," "Junction," "Mill," "Mound," "Mount," "Peak," "Plains," "Point," "Port," "Prairie," "Rock," "River," "Run," "Ridge," "Store," "Station," "Springs," "Town," "Vale," "Valley," "Village," or "Ville," as such prefixes or appendixes are the cause of much confusion and delay in the transmission of the mails.

28. Procuring Copies of Department Files.—Copies of papers on the files of the Department will not be furnished on the application of individuals, except in cases where a suit is commenced and pending involving the substance of the paper or document itself, and then only on the certificate of counsel showing that such papers or documents are material as evidence in the trial or preparation for trial of the cause, and stating wherein such materiality consists, with such other proof of materiality as may be required by the Postmaster-General. But in no case will copies be furnished of the official bonds of officers connected with the service; except upon suits relating to said bonds or the execution thereof, or criminal prosecutions thereunder.

RULINGS AND INFORMATION UPON POSTAL SUBJECTS.

Classification of Mail Matter.

29. Classification of Domestic Mail Matter.—Domestic mail matter,—that is, mail matter sent in the mails from some post office within the United States to some other post office within the same,—is divided into four classes, as follows:

First-class.—Written matter, namely, letters, postal cards, and all matter wholly or partly in writing, whether sealed or unsealed (except manuscript copy accompanying proof-sheets or corrected proof-sheets of the same). All matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection is also of the first-class. (P. L. & R., §§ 270 & 328.)

Second-class.—Periodical publications, namely, all newspapers and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year, which bear a date of issue, and are numbered consecutively, are issued from a known office of publication, are formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather or other substantial binding. To be entitled to entry in this class, such publications must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, art, or some special industry, and must have a legitimate list of subscribers, and must not be designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation or circulation at nominal rates. (P. L. & R., §§ 268, 276, 277.)

Third-class.—Books, circulars, pamphlets and other matter wholly in print (not included in second-class matter), proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying the same. (P. L. & R., § 311.)

"Printed matter" is defined by statute to be "the reproduction upon paper, by any process except that of handwriting, of any words, letters, characters, figures, or images, or of any combination thereof, not having the character of an actual and personal correspondence." (P. L. & R., § 315.)

A "circular" is defined by statute to be "a printed letter, which, according to internal evidence, is being sent in identical terms to several persons," and does not lose its character as such by writing therein the date, name of the addressee or of the sender, or the correction of mere typographical errors. (P. L. & R. § 312.)

Fourth-class. Merchandise, namely all matter not embraced in the first, second or third-class which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy, deface or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag, or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service, and not above the weight provided by law. (See the following paragraph.)

30. Limit of Weight of Mail Matter.—No package weighing more than four pounds shall be received for conveyance by mail, except single books weighing in excess of that amount, and except books and documents published or circulated by order of Congress, or official matter emanating from any of the Departments of the Government or from the Smithsonian Institution. (P. L. & R. §§ 320, 326.)

As to limit of weight of packages containing liquids, see Ruling 111 page 864. (Par. 4.)

Rates of Postage.

For Lists of Articles of the First, Third and Fourth-classes, see page 944 of this Guide.

32. On First-class Matter.—The rate of postage on matter of the first class is as follows:

1. On letters and other written matter, except that specially authorized to pass at third-class rates (See Ruling 103, page 863), and on sealed matter or matter otherwise closed against inspection, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

2. On postal cards one cent each, the price for which they are sold.

3. On "drop letters" two cents per ounce or fraction thereof when mailed at letter-carrier post offices, and one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof at offices where free delivery by carrier is not established.

33. On Second-class Matter.—1 The rate of postage on second-class matter when sent sent from a news-agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news-agents, is one cent per pound or fraction thereof. (P. L. &. R. § 299.)

34. The rate of postage on newspapers and periodical publications of the second-class when sent by other than the publisher or news-agent, is one cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof. (P. L. & R. § 302.)

35. The rate of postage on newspapers (excepting weeklies) and on periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, when the same are deposited in a letter-carrier office by publishers or news-agents for delivery by its carriers, is uniform at one cent each; on periodicals weighing more than two ounces, two cents each.

36. Newspapers and periodicals when deposited by the publisher or news-agent in a letter-carrier office for general or box delivery, are subject to postage at the rate of one cent per pound; when deposited by other than publishers or news-agents, for general or box delivery, the rate is one cent for four ounces or fractional part thereof.

37. Weekly newspapers when deposited by the publisher or news-agent in a letter-carrier office, for delivery by carriers, or otherwise, are subject only to the rate of one cent a pound or fraction thereof.

As to the right of newspapers, etc., to pass free in the county, see Ruling 79, page 861.

38. All second-class publications, when sent by the publisher or a news-agent by mail, to a letter-carrier office located either in the county of publication or elsewhere, are subject to postage at the rate of one cent a pound, which entitles them to delivery by the carriers.

40. On Fourth-class Matter.—The rate of postage on fourth-class matter is one cent an ounce or fraction thereof sent to a single address. (P. L. & R. § 325.)

41. By the act approved July 24, 1888, the postage on seeds, cuttings, roots, scions and plants is at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof. Dried plants, fruits and cut flowers are subject to the rate of one cent per ounce.

Prepayment of Postage.

42. When and how Postage should be Paid.—The rule of the statutes is prepayment of postage on matter not free in all cases. The exceptions to the rule are noted in Ruling 44.

43. On First-class Matter.—The postage is to be prepaid by stamps affixed. But first-class matter will be dispatched if one full rate—two cents—in stamps be affixed, and the residue of the postage will be collected of the addressee before delivery.

44. As an exception to the rule of prepayment, letters of soldiers, sailors and marines in the service of the United States may be transmitted unpaid, when marked "Soldier's letter," "Sailor's letter," or "Marine's letter," as the case may be, and signed thereunder with his name and official designation by a field or staff officer, post or department commander, to whose command the soldier belongs, or by a surgeon or chaplain at a hospital where he may be; and in the navy and marine service, by the officer in command of the vessel, or surgeon on board, or officer commanding a naval hospital or detachment on shore; and the postage at single rates only will be collected on delivery. (P. L. & R §§ 269, 272.)

45. On Second-class Matter.—When sent by publishers or news-agents at the pound rate, the postage is prepaid in money, and newspaper and periodical stamps are affixed to the stub of each receipt given; ordinary stamps cannot be used for this purpose.

48. On Third-class Matter.—The postage must be fully prepaid by stamps affixed. (P. L. & R. § 311.)

Postage Due.

50. Postage Due, when to be Collected.—When mail matter of the first-class is prepaid one full rate—two cents—it shall be forwarded to its destination charged with the unpaid rate, to be collected on delivery. (P. L. & R. § 513.)

51. No article of mail matter, except free matter, on which prepayment in full has not been made shall be delivered until the deficient postage has been paid.

52. Double Postage, when to be Collected.—If any mail matter on which by law the postage is required to be prepaid at the mailing office, shall, by inadvertence, reach its destination without any prepayment, double the prepaid rates shall be charged and collected on delivery. (P. L. & R. § 269.)

53. The postage due and to be collected on short-paid or unpaid matter inadvertently dispatched is indicated by postage-due stamps, which the postmaster at the office of destination is required to affix and cancel before delivery.

54. Postmasters cannot lawfully accept postage stamps in payment of postage remaining due on letters. The amount due must invariably be paid in cash.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

Entry of Second-class Publications.

For a Definition and Instructions Regarding Second-class Matter, see Sections 276 to 310, and 374–375, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.

55. Application for Admission to the Pound Rate. — The attention of publishers is invited to the following regulations respecting the admission of second-class publications to the pound rate:—When a new publication is offered for mailing at pound rates at any post office, the postmaster will proceed as follows:

1. Require the publisher, or one of the publishers, to make and present to him, with two copies of the publication, sworn answers in writing to the following interrogatories:

1st. Magazine or newspaper? 2d. How often published? 3d. Where is the paper printed? 4th. Who are the proprietors of the paper or magazine? 5th. Are they in any way interested, pecuniarily, in any business or trade represented by the publication, either in the reading matter or in the advertisements; if so, what is the interest? 6th. Who are the editors of the publication, and how is their compensation determined? 7th. Have the editors any pecuniary interest in any business or trade represented by the publication, either in the reading matter or in the advertisements; if so, what is the interest? 8th. Is your publication regarded by the trade which it purports to represent as a general organ of the trade, or is it considered as representing the business interest of a special house in that trade, whose price-current or advertisements appear therein? 9th. As a result of the publication of your paper or magazine, is the interest of any business house in the trade especially advanced, notwithstanding your design of making the publication a journal representing the trade? 10th. Can any house in good standing advertise in your publication at the regular published rates? 11th. Have any of the business houses which advertise in your publication any interest (either by past connection or special contract) therein respecting advertisements or subscriptions; and if so, what is that interest? 12th. What is the greatest number of copies furnished to any person or firm who advertise in your publication? 13th. On what terms are these papers furnished? 14th. What number of papers do you print of each issue? 15th. About what number of bona fide subscribers (that is subscribers who pay their own money for the publication and receive it regularly) have you to the next issue of your paper? 16th. What is the subscription price of your publication per annum? 17th. How many pounds weight will cover the papers furnished to regular subscribers? 18th. What average number of sample copies with each issue do you desire to send through the mail at pound rates? 19th. How are the names of the persons to whom you wish to send sample copies obtained by you?

2. If satisfied by the affidavit, the publication itself, and further proofs offered, that the publication is admissible, he will issue a temporary permit, on a form to be furnished by the Department, admitting the publication at the pound rate pending the determination of the Department as to its admissibility.

3. If upon such evidence the admissibility appears to be doubtful, he shall require a deposit at third-class rates on the issue offered for mailing, and issue a permit admitting the publication conditionally, pending determination; the excess of the deposit over the pound rate to be refunded if the Department shall decide that the publisher is entitled to the pound rate.

4. If satisfied of non-admissibility, he will refuse to admit except at third-class rates, advising the publisher to appeal to the Department.

5. In all cases he will forward to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General, in the same envelope, the application, affidavit, and other proofs presented by the publisher, with a copy of the publication, and a statement of any facts or reasons known to him for or against the admission sought, retaining one copy of the publication to be kept in his office for such comparison with future issues as may be necessary. (P. L. & R. § 282.)

56. Regularity of Issue.—The regular periods of issue must be within the statute, and should be shown by the publication itself; but no regularly admitted publication shall be excluded by reason of the omission to state such period in a particular issue. Unbound back numbers may be mailed at the pound rate, so long as the publication continues to be published as second-class matter. Bound back numbers should be treated as books and prepaid as third-class matter. (P. L. & R. § 278.)

57. Entry of Second-Class Publications.—The Third Assistant Postmaster-General finally decides upon the admissibility of publications to the pound rate in all cases. He will without delay examine all applications, and upon being satisfied that a publication is entitled to admission at such rates will authorize the postmaster at the proper office to issue a certificate of entry therefor. The postmaster will thereupon issue such certificate on form furnished by the Department, and the publisher is then privileged to print upon each copy of the publication so entered the words, "ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT ———, AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER." The printing of such words, or their equivalent, without due entry having first been made, is unlawful. (See P. L. & R. §§ 284, 297.)

58. Whenever it is made to appear by satisfactory evidence that a publication has been admitted to the pound rates upon false evidence, or that after admission it has so changed its character as to be no longer entitled thereto, the entry thereof will be revoked, and the postmaster at the proper office notified of the revocation. (P. L. & R., § 284.)

59. Department Record of Second-class Publications.—The Third Assistant Postmaster-General will cause a record to be kept of second-class publications admitted to the pound rates, giving the date of entry and date when entry was revoked. (P. L. & R., § 285.)

60. Regulations for Admission of Foreign Publications.—Agents of foreign publications may obtain admission thereof to the mails at the pound rate, at the office at which they desire to mail them within the United States, by making application to the postmaster and submitting therewith two copies of the newspaper or periodical and satisfactory evidence of such admissibility; and he will, if satisfied that the publication is entitled thereto, grant a temporary permit, and report the case with the evidence to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General. All such publications must possess the same statutory characteristics as are required in the case of domestic publications (See § 277, P. L. & R.) in order to entitle them to admission at the pound rate, and are to be allowed all the privileges and be subject to all the restrictions provided by the regulations applying to second-class matter. The evidence must show that the publication violates no copyright granted by the United States. Upon approval, the Department will authorize the postmaster to give a certificate of entry, as prescribed in § 284.

SUPPLEMENTS AND EXTRA EDITIONS.

61. Publishers of matter of the second-class may, without subjecting it to extra postage, fold within their regular issues a supplement; but in all cases the added matter must be germane to the publication which it supplements; that is to say, matter supplied in order to complete that to which it is added or supplemented, but omitted from the regular issue for want of space, time, or greater convenience, which supplement must in every case be issued with the publication.

62. Rules for Determining the Character of Supplements.—In determining whether supplements, though folded for mailing with regular issues, are within the statutory definition, the following rules may be employed when applicable, namely:

1. A publication entirely distinct from and independent of the regular issue, but complete in itself, especially if it be not germane to the regular issue, nor connected therewith, cannot be adopted as a supplement.

2. Circulars, hand-bills, show-bills, posters, and other special advertisements cannot be adopted as supplements.

3. Matter printed elsewhere than at the office of publication, to be used as supplements to various newspapers for the purpose of securing circulation to advertisements of private business, cannot be used as supplements.

4. Supplements printed at or elsewhere than at the office of publication, must be printed with the purpose of being used as supplements for such publications, and not for another distinct and separate use.

5. Publications of statutes, ordinances, proceedings of public or deliberate assemblies, boards or conventions, advertisements of tax rates or other notices or advertisements required by law to be published, whether gratuitously or for compensation, are proper supplemental matter.

6. Supplements must, as the law requires, be folded with the regular issues they purport to supplement. If mailed otherwise, postage must be prepaid at the third-class rate.

7. Supplements must in all cases bear the full name of the publication with which they are folded, preceded by the words "Supplement to———;" and also the date corresponding to the regular issue.

8. Maps, diagrams or illustrations, which are referred to in the publication, or form a necessary part thereof, are admissible, as a part of the publication itself, without the words "Supplement to———."

9. Supplements must not be combined with orders for subscriptions, or bills or receipts for subscriptions; this being expressly prohibited by law. (§ 308, P. L. & R., Act of 20th January, 1888).

63. Extra editions, manifestly issued for the purpose of communicating additional news or imparting information germane to the publication, and not for advertising purposes, are admissible at the pound rate.

Sample Copies.

64. Right of Publishers to Send.—Sample copies which may be sent by publishers from the office of publication at the pound rate, are defined to be copies sent to persons not subscribers for the purpose of inducing them to subscribe or advertise or become agents therefor.

65. Sample copies must be exactly like the regular edition sent to subscribers. When made up as a special edition different from the regular edition of the same date for subscribers, or containing advertisements in addition to those in the regular edition, they are not sample copies, but third-class matter.

66. Sample copies should be plainly marked as such, either on the wrapper or exposed face of the package.

67. Several sample copies may be inclosed in one single wrapper, to one address, or may be sent in one wrapper addressed to the post office, and each paper therein properly folded, addressed to some patron of the office, and marked or printed "sample copy" on the wrapper or on the exposed face of each of the papers separately addressed.

68. An extra number of the issue cannot be sent as sample copies upon the order of, or to fulfill a contract by the publisher with an advertiser or advertising agency, and extra numbers mailed pursuant to such order or contract must be prepaid at the four-ounce rate. (See P. L. & R., § 302.)

69. After a publication has been admitted to the second-class rate, the continuous mailing by the publisher of sample copies in numbers exceeding the issue to regular subscribers, or of such copies continuously to the same person, will be deemed evidence that the publication is primarily designed for advertising or free circulation, and the sample copies should be detained until the facts can be ascertained. The postmaster should promptly report the case to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

70. Sample copies are not entitled to free county circulation, and must be mailed separately from editions that are, and prepaid at pound rates.

71. Sample copies must not be inclosed in the same package with copies intended for subscribers. If so inclosed, they must be returned to the publisher for separation. (P. L. & R., § 290.)

72. Sample copies cannot be mailed by news-agents at the pound rate.

At Free Delivery Offices.

73. Second-class Matter at Free-Delivery Offices, how Separated.—Second-class matter for city delivery, where the carrier system is established, should be separately made up at the office of publication,—that for delivery by the carriers of a post office being put in one package or bundle,—each article of mail-matter therein properly stamped, and that for delivery through the boxes of the post office by itself. If the separation is not made at the office of publication, each paper or periodical not properly stamped must be placed in the boxes or at the general delivery for delivery therefrom.

74. Under Section 304, P. L. & R., the postage on second-class publications deposited in a letter-carrier office is as follows:

1. All second-class publications mailed by publishers addressed to a letter-carrier office, or deposited therein for distribution through the boxes or general delivery, are subject to postage at the rate of one cent a pound.

2. Weekly newspapers mailed by publishers or news-agents whether deposited for delivery by the carriers or otherwise, are subject to postage at the rate of one cent a pound.

3. Newspapers, other than weeklies, without regard to weight, and periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, mailed by publishers or news-agents for local delivery by carriers, are subject to one cent postage each, to be prepaid with ordinary stamps affixed.

4. Periodicals exceeding two ounces in weight mailed by publishers or news-agents for local delivery by carriers, two cents each, to be prepaid with ordinary stamps affixed.

75. Transient Second-class Matter.—The rate of postage on newspapers and periodicals of the second-class, when sent by others than the publishers or news-agents to any place in the United States shall be one cent for each four ounces or fractional part thereof, without regard to place of mailing or destination, to be prepaid by ordinary stamps affixed. (§ 302.)

76. A "newspaper" is defined to be a publication issued at stated intervals of not longer than one week for the dissemination of current news, whether it be of general or special character, and having the characteristics of second-class matter prescribed by statute. A "periodical" is a publication not embraced within the above definition of a newspaper, issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year, and having the characteristics of second-class matter prescribed by statute. (§ 303.)

77. Postmasters at free-delivery offices must be watchful to prevent admission to the mails of second-class matter (other than weeklies) addressed for local delivery by their carriers, without prepayment at the rate provided in this section.

78. Second-class matter, mailed at a post office where free-delivery is not established, if addressed to a free-delivery office in the same county, must be presented for mailing in a separate package from the free county matter, and in the same manner as matter directed to subscribers residing outside the county is required to be mailed.

Free County Publications.

79. Publications of the second-class, one copy only to each actual subscriber residing in the county where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, shall go free through the mails; but the same shall not be delivered at letter-carrier offices, or distributed by carriers, unless postage is paid thereon at the rate of one cent per pound, or fractional part thereof. (§ 374.)

80. Second-class publications addressed to a letter carrier office, although published within the county, are subject to postage at the rate of one cent a pound, which entitles them to delivery by the carriers.

81. The fact that the newspaper is mailed by the publisher, at the nearest post office to the claimed office of publication, which may be in an adjoining county, does not deprive it of the right of passing free in the mails to subscribers residing in the county where it is printed and published.

82. If a subscriber to a county paper lives within the county where the same is "printed in whole or in part, and published," he is entitled to receive his copy thereof free from the post office at which he regularly receives his mail, though such office may be outside of the said county, and a subscriber who does not reside in the county where the paper is "printed in whole or in part, and published" cannot receive the paper free, even though his post office may be in the aforesaid county, where "printed in whole," etc.

83. Free County Publications must be Mailed by Themselves.—When a publisher of a newspaper sends in the mails a package of his papers, a portion intended for subscribers residing within the county in which the paper is printed (in whole or in part) and published, and the remainder intended for subscribers residing elsewhere, he must pay postage on the entire package at pound rates. The publisher to entitle himself to the free county delivery must make two packages, one for the subscribers residing in the county and one for those out of the county; the former to go free. (§ 375.)

Second-class Matter Sent by News-Agents.

84. Rights of News-Agents.— News-agents are persons, including newsboys, engaged in business as news-dealers or sellers of second-class publications. A mere local or traveling agent for a publication is not a news-agent.

85. Only publishers and news-dealers have the right to send publications at pound rates, and they cannot sell their publications over their counter in local traffic and then forward them at pound rates to addresses furnished.

86. The news-agent must furnish the postmaster satisfactory evidence that the publications offered are entitled to the pound rate, and have been duly entered at the office of publication.

87. Satisfactory evidence must be furnished that the person to whom bulk packages are sent from a news agency are also news agents, and the address upon bulk packages sent to or from a news-agency to a news-agent should show that the addressee is such agent.

88. A news-agent cannot be permitted to take packages of newspapers and periodicals out of a post office, write an address on each copy and return them to the office for mailing or delivery without additional prepayment of postage at the pound rate, except in the case of publications entitled to pass free under § 374 P. L. & R., to actual subscribers thereto, obtained by him, and the bulk packages of which, mailed to him, have been prepaid at the pound rate.

89. The postmaster is not authorized to open a news-agent's packages and distribute any of the papers or periodicals therein through the post office to subscribers free.

90. News-agents are entitled to return unsold second-class matter to other news-agents at the pound rate of postage, but when such matter is returned to publishers it is subject to postage at the rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

91. When news-agents desire to return to publishers merely the heads or small portions of each copy as evidence that the copy has not been sold, such portions must be rated as third-class matter.

92. On all copies sent by news-agents either gratuitously, or to fill orders or otherwise, to persons other than subscribers or news-agents, postage must be prepaid at the transient rate, by affixing ordinary stamps to the package at the rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

93. Periodical publications are not second-class matter until "issued" from a known office of publication; when sent from a printer to a publisher, or to parties designated by the publisher they are third-class matter. (§ 299 P. L. & R.)

General Provisions.

94. Folding and Addressing Second-class Matter.—Publishers and news-agents are enjoined to fold their publications to a size not larger than 9 by 12 inches, and when second-class matter is addressed by them, unwrapped (that is, when wrapped in bulk, each paper bearing the addressee's name), it should uniformly be upon the upper right-hand corner of the first page; and whether wrapped in bulk or singly, the entire address required should be in a clear handwriting or plain type not smaller than long primer. A disregard of this request is liable to delay transportation and delivery, as postmasters are instructed "to hold illegibly addressed and improperly folded matter of this character until all other is distributed."

95. Examination of Second-class Matter.—Postmasters should frequently examine publications offered for mailing at the second-class rate of postage to ascertain whether they violate the rules prescribed by law for their admission to said class. (See §§ 293 & 294 P. L. & R.)

96. Advertisments to be Permanently Attached.—All advertisements in periodicals must be permanently attached thereto by binding, printing, pasting, or otherwise, and must be of uniform size of the pages of the publication.

97. Second, third or fourth-class matter containing any writing or printing unauthorized by law cannot be delivered, except upon payment of postage for matter of the first-class.

Permissible Additions to Matter of the Second, Third and Fourth Classes.

98. What is Permissible to be Written or Printed on Mail Matter not of the First-class.—Mailable matter of the second-class shall contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein in addition to the original print, except as herein provided, to wit: The name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent; index-figures of subscription-book either printed or written; the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication; the printed, or written name and address without addition of advertisement of the publisher, or sender or both and written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end; the correction of any typographical error; a mark except by written or printed words to designate a word or passage to which it is desired to call attention; the words "sample copy," when the matter is sent as such; the words "marked copy," when the matter contains a marked item or article. And publishers or news-agents may inclose in their publications bills, receipts and orders for subscriptions thereto, but the same shall be in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer, and the subscription due thereon. (Act of January 20, 1888. See also instructions from Third Assistant Postmaster-General, page 903 this GUIDE.) When matter mailable at second-class rate is prepaid at the third-class rate, it shall be deemed third-class matter and entitled to all the permissible printing or writing authorized for matter of, the third-class. The number of copies inclosed may be indicated upon the wrapper or face of the package.

99. Bills, receipts, and orders for subscriptions, in order to be mailable with second-class publications at the pound rate of postage, must be "in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer, and the subscription due thereon." The expression "subscription price" will in every case hereafter be construed by the Department as the regular stated price of the publication, without reference to any premium that may be offered.

100. Forms of Bills, Receipts and Orders Accompanying Second-class Matter.—Bills or receipts printed in substantially the following form are admissible under the preceding act:

NEW YORK, ——— ——, 189—.

Office of ——— ———,
The ——— Weekly,
37 Park Row. P. O. box 4295.
——— ——— to the ——— Weekly, Dr.
——— ———, subscription, in advance.
Received payment for the ——— Weekly from ——— to ———.

101. A bill or receipt for subscription may include the names of more than one publication and their terms of subscription, provided they are all published by the same individual or company, or sent by the same news-agent, and may include any period of subscription or any number of shipments to a news-agent.

102. Orders for subscription may indicate the term or period for which subscription is ordered. The written or printed words or figures, or both, to indicate when the subscription will end, may be placed upon the matter itself, upon the wrapper or upon the bills, receipts or orders which may be inclosed therewith.

103. Permissible Additions to Third-class Matter.—Upon matter of the third-class, or upon the wrapper or envelope inclosing the same, or the tag or label attached thereto, the sender may write his own name, occupation, and residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and may make marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to any word or passage in the text, and may correct any typographical errors. There may be placed upon the blank leaves or cover of any book, or printed matter of the third-class, a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of a personal correspondence. Upon the wrapper or envelope of third-class matter, or the tag or label attached thereto, may be printed any matter mailable as third-class, but there must be left on the address side a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. (Act of January 20, 1888.)

104. Permissible Writing or Printing upon or with Fourth-class Matter.—With a package of fourth-class matter prepaid at the proper rate for that class, the sender may inclose any mailable third-class matter, and may write upon the wrapper or cover thereof, or tag or label accompanying the same, his name, occupation, residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and any marks, numbers, names or letters for purpose of description, or may print thereon the same, and any printed matter not in the nature of a personal correspondence, but there must be left on the address side or face of the package a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. (Act of January 20, 1888.)

105. The tag or label, with the printing or writing authorized thereon, may be attached to the whole package, or separate tags or labels, bearing the same, may be attached to each of one or more articles contained in the package.

106. In all cases directions for transit, delivery, forwarding or return shall be deemed part of the address; and the Postmaster-General shall prescribe suitable regulations for carrying this section (Sections 308, 318 and 323 P. L. and R.,) into effect. (Act January 20, 1888.)

107. Regulations as to Second, Third and Fourth-class Matter.—1. The space to be left on the address side should be sufficient for a legible address and for all directions permissible thereon, for postmarking, rating, and any words necessary for forwarding or return.

2. Watermarks or printing in light tints, not rendering the reading of the address difficult, will not be deemed an infringement upon the address space.

3. Postmasters will carefully examine packages before mailing, to ascertain that no matter chargeable as of the first-class is included, and that the requirements of the foregoing statute are complied with.

4. Postmasters at the offices of address are required to examine such packages and rate up the same at first-class rates whenever the statute has been violated, and collect such postage on delivery. If the addressee feel aggrieved, he may deposit the extra postage with the postmaster, who shall give receipt therefor, and send to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General a statement of the case and the reason of the charge. The postmaster will forward the statement in a penalty envelope, and will accompany it with any explanation necessary to an understanding of the case; and if, upon investigation, it appears that the violation of the law was unintentional and unimportant in character, the postmaster will be directed to refund the deposit.

5. The postmaster will report to the Sixth Auditor all cases in which the penalty has been incurred, under § 327, giving the name of the sender, if known, addressee, office, and date of mailing, and a description of the package and of the matter inclosed or concealed therein, and a statement of the disposition made thereof. When not delivered to addressee on payment of first-class rates, the package will be retained by the postmaster to be used as evidence, and he should be able to establish its identity. If the penalty is voluntarily paid, it will be disposed of as prescribed by § 225, P. L. & R.

108 Penalty for Evasion of Payment of Postage, etc.—That matter of the second, third, or fourth-class, containing any writing or printing in addition to the original matter other than as authorized in the preceding section (§§ 308, 318 and 323, P. L. and R., edition 1893, as amended by the Act of January 20, 1888), shall not be admitted to the mails, nor delivered, except upon payment of postage for matter of the first-class, deducting therefrom any amount which may have been prepaid by stamps affixed, unless by direction of the Postmaster-General such postage shall be remitted; and any person who shall knowingly conceal or inclose any matter of a higher class in that of a lower class, and deposit or cause the same to be deposited for conveyance by mail, at a less rate than would be charged for both such higher and lower class matter, shall, for every such offense, be liable to a penalty of ten dollars.

Manner of Wrapping Mail-Matter.

109. Second-class Matter.—No newspapers shall be received to be conveyed by mail unless they are sufficiently dried and enclosed in proper wrappers (P. L & R., § 306). The wrappers should be such that they can be easily removed without destroying them or injuring their inclosures.

110. Third-class Matter must be placed under band, upon a roller, between boards, or in an unsealed envelope, or closed so as not to conceal the nature of the packet or its contents, or it may be so tied with a string as to easily unfasten. Address cards and all printed matter in the form of an unfolded card may be mailed without band or envelope.

111. Fourth-class Matter not absolutely excluded from the mails, but which from its form or nature might, unless properly secured, destroy, deface, or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service, may be transmitted in the mails when it conforms to the following conditions:

1st. When not liquid or liquefiable, it must be placed in a bag, box, or removable envelope or wrapping, made of paper, cloth, or parchment.

2d. Such bag, box, envelope, or wrapping must again be placed in a box or tube made of metal or some hard wood, with sliding clasp or screw-lid.

3d. In cases of articles liable to break, the inside box, bag, envelope, or wrapping must be surrounded by sawdust, cotton, or other elastic substance.

4th. Admissible liquids and oils (not exceeding 4 ounce liquid measure), pastes, salves, or articles easily liquefiable, must conform to the following conditions: When in glass bottles or vials, such bottles or vials must be strong enough to stand the shock of handling in the mails, and must be inclosed in a wooden or papier-maché block or tube not less than three-sixteenths of an inch thick in the thinnest part, strong enough to support the weight of mails piled in bags and resist rough handling; and there must be provided between the bottle and its wooden case, a cushion of cork-crumbs, cotton, felt, asbestos, or other like substance, sufficient to protect the glass from shock in handling; the block or tube to be impervious to liquid, including oils, and to be closed by a tightly fitting screw-lid of wood or metal, with a rubber or other pad so adjusted as to prevent the leakage of the contents in case of breaking the glass. When inclosed in a tin cylinder, metal case or tube, such cylinder, case or tube should have a screw-lid with a rubber or cork cushion inside in order to make the same water-tight, and should be securely fastened in a wooden or papier-maché block (open only at one end) and not less in thickness and strength than above described. Manufacturers or dealers intending to transmit articles or samples in considerable quantities, should submit a sample package showing their mode of packing to the postmaster at the mailing office, who will see that the conditions of this section are carefully observed

5th. In case of sharp-pointed instruments, the points must be capped or encased so that they may not by any means be liable to cut through their enclosure. and where they have blades, such blades must be bound with wire so that they shall remain firmly attached to each other. and within their handles or sockets. Needles must be inclosed in metal or wooden cases so that they cannot by any means prick through or pass out of their inclosures.

6th. Seeds, or other articles not prohibited, which are liable from their form or nature to loss or damage, unless specially protected, may be put up in sealed envelopes, if such envelopes are made of material sufficiently transparent to show the con ents clearly without opening.

7th. Ink powders, pepper, snuff, or other powders not explosive, or any pulverized dry substances not poisonous, may be sent in the mails when inclosed in the manner prescribed herein for liquids, or when inclosed in metal, wooden or papier-maché cases in such secure manner as to render the escape of any particles of dust from the package by ordinary handling impossible, and of such strength as to bear the weight and handling of the mails without breaking; the method of packing to be subject to the approval of the General Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service.

8th. Queen bees and their attendant bees, and dried insects or reptiles, may be sent in the mails when properly put up. so as not to injure the persons of those handling the mails, nor soil the mail bags or their contents.

9th. Hard candies or confectionery yeast cakes, soap in hard cakes, when wrapped in strong paper boxes or heavy paper wrappers adequate to prevent all injury to other mail matter in the same mail bag, are admissible in the domestic mails.

10th. Pistols or revolvers, in detached parts, may be sent in the mails; but the mailing postmaster will carefully examine such packages, and will receive them only when sure they are harmless.

11th. No specific mode of packing is prescribed for samples of flour; but they should be put up in such manner as to certainly avoid risk of the package breaking or cracking, or the flour being scattered in the mails, and if this be not done the sample should be excluded. Special attention is called to § 322, P. L. and R.

112. Articles of fourth-class matter must be so wrapped that their contents may be easily and thoroughly examined by postmasters, both with reference to the safety of the mails and postal employés, and to the exclusion of matter chargeable as of the first-class.

113. Whenever any packet of matter other than first-class offered for mailing to any address within the United States is sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or bears writing not permissible by law (see Rulings 98, 103 and 104 of this GUIDE), it is subject to postage at letter or first-class rates, and will be treated as a letter; that is, if one full rate, two cents, has been paid, it will be rated up with the deficient postage at letter rates; if less than one full rate has been paid it will be treated as a short-paid letter. (P. L. & R., § 329.)

FREE MATTER.

114. Matter which may be Franked.—All public documents printed by order of Congress may be sent by Senators, Representatives, Territorial Delegates, the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House, and received through the mail free. The word "free" must be written or printed thereon, the name of the sender and his official designation must be written thereon. (P. L. & R., §§ 362-366.) The Congressional Record, or any part thereof, or speeches or reports therein contained, may be sent under the frank of a Senator, Member or Delegate, to be written by himself. (P. L. & R. § 363.) Seeds and agricultural reports, sent from the Department of Agriculture or by Senators, Members or Delegates, pass free. The franking privileges of members of Congress and delegates, as above indicated, continue until the first Monday of December following the expiration of their terms of office.

(P. L & R., §§ 362-364.) Special franking privileges have been granted Lucretia R. Garfield, widow of the late President, James A. Garfield; and Julia D. Grant, widow of the late President, Ulysses S. Grant; and all mail matter carried to or sent by them under their respective written autograph signatures will be carried free, during their respective natural lives. (P. L. & R., § 365.)

115. U. S. Senators and Members of the U. S. House of Representatives entitled to frank public documents, printed by order of Congress, have the right to exercise the privilege until the first Monday in December, following the expiration of their term of office.

116. Regulations as to Franking Privilege.—1. No matter can be transmitted under the franking privilege unless admissible to the mails under the provisions of Chapter XI, or the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1891.

2. Public documents printed by order of Congress, including complete numbers or series of the Congressional Record, with the name of a Senator, Representative, Delegate, or the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House written thereon as the addressee, or written thereon for the purpose of franking the same, shall be transmitted free in the mails, according to the provisions of P. L. & R. § 362.

3. Upon the wrapper or cover inclosing part of the Congressional Record, or speeches or reports therein contained, transmitted under the provisions of § 363, the character of the matter must be indicated by written or printed words, or the word "free" must be written or printed over the signature of the Senator, Member or Delegate franking the same.

4. Upon matter franked under the provisions of § 362, the name of the person franking the same may be written by himself or any one duly deputed by him for the purpose.

5. Upon extracts from or speeches or reports contained in the Congressional Record, transmitted under the provisions of § 363, the frank of the Senator, Member or Delegate must be written by himself, as required by statute. When the name of such member is written by himself with a fac-simile hand-stamp, the signature will be deemed written by the person entitled to frank the same; but should the postmaster know or have good reason to believe, that the frank of any Senator, Member or Delegate is being unlawfully written, stamped or printed on such extracts, speeches or reports taken from the Congressional Record, or upon any matter, he will notify the Senator, Member or Delegate whose name is supposed to be unlawfully used; and also report to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General the facts relating to such supposed unlawful use. But the matter will not be withheld upon mere suspicion that the frank is unlawfully used until so directed by the Department.

6. Translations of extracts from, or speeches or reports taken from the Congressional Record, into other than the English language, may be sent free under the provisions of § 363.

7. A Senator, Member or Delegate who holds his certificate of election is entitled to the franking privilege from the commencement of the term.

8. All franked matter may be forwarded like any other; but such matter when once delivered to the addressee, cannot be re-mailed unless properly franked again.

9. A bulk package of franked articles may be sent to one addressee, who, on receiving and opening the package, may place addresses on the franked articles, and re-mail them for carriage and delivery to the respective addresses.

10. Seeds sent from the Department of Agriculture may be sent under the proper penalty label, or in official envelopes of that Department. When transmitted by a Senator, Member or Delegate they may be sent under the official label or official envelope of the Department of Agriculture, or under the frank of the sender, thus, "Seeds, Free," or merely the word "Free" followed by the name and official designation of the sender.

117. Seeds transmitted by mail under the frank of a Senator or Representative in Congress or from the Department of Agriculture, should be treated by postmasters and railway postal clerks with the same integrity as is accorded other mail-matter.

118. Postmasters have no right to deliver seeds sent in the mails under a frank, or from the Department of Agriculture, to any other person than the one to whom the package is addressed, or upon his order, except upon the authority of the sender, which must first be obtained in case the package cannot be delivered to the person originally addressed.

119. Extension of the Franking Privilege.—The attention of postmasters and postal employés is hereby called to the provisions of Section 3 of the Act of Congress of March 3, 1891, extending the franking privileges as follows:

"SEC. 3. That the members and members-elect of Congress shall have the privilege of sending free through the mails, and under their frank, letters to any officer of the Government, when addressed officially."

In carrying out this enactment, which is now operative, the following rules must be observed:

1. The privilege conferred applies to members of both branches of Congress—Senators, Representatives and Delegates—including not only those who have taken their seats as such, but also those who have been elected, have received their certificates of election, and hold the prima facie right to seats. Senators and Representatives whose terms have expired are not entitled to the benefits of this Act.

2. Letters to be entitled to free transmission under the Act must in every case be addressed to a Government official—not necessarily at Washington, but anywhere in the United States—whose official title must be given in the superscription on the letter, either with or without his name: for example, "Brigadier-General Samuel B. Holabird, Quartermaster-General, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.;" "Postmaster, New York, N. Y.;" "Hon. David M. Key, U. S. District Judge, Chattanooga, Tenn." The term "Officer of the Government" includes any officer of the United States, Senator, Representative, or Delegate in Congress.

3. The name of the franking Senator, Representative, or Delegate, written or impressed must appear on the envelope of the letter, in connection with the initial of his office, and preceded by the word "Free," for example,—"Free—John R. Smith, U. S. S.;" or "Free—Richard Roe, M. C."

4. The term "letters" as used in this law means such communications as are denominated in the laws, mail matter of the first class.

5. When any person is suspected of being guilty, or known to be guilty, of forging or misusing the frank of any Senator, Representative, or Delegate, the fact (if it comes to the knowledge of a postmaster, postal officer, or employé) should be by him promptly reported to the Chief Post Office Inspector. No letter bearing the frank of any of the persons named above should be detained on the mere suspicion that the frank is forged or misused.

6. These instructions must not be held to interfere with those relating to the franking of seeds and public documents comprehended in Section 366.

120. Unpaid Matter Addressed to the Departments and Bureaus at Washington, D. C.—"Any part-paid letter or packet addressed to either of said Departments (Executive Departments or bureaus thereof) may be delivered free; but where there is good reason to believe the omission to prepay the full postage thereon was intentional, such letter or package shall be returned to the sender." (Act of July 5, 1884.)

121. Mail matter addressed to officers of the Government (except that addressed to officers of the Census Office) deposited in a post office by private individuals, with no payment of postage thereon, and not inclosed in penalty envelopes or penalty card furnished by the officer addressed for return information, should be "held for postage." Such matter cannot be forwarded under cover of a penalty envelope or slip, subsequently furnished by the officer addressed; it must be returned to the sender or sent to the Dead Letter Office, as private individuals have no right to send matter in the mails free of postage except as above indicated.

122. Census Matter.—Documents and papers relating to the census sent by officers of the Census Office or addressed thereto, may be sent free. (P. L. & R. § 367.)

123. Official or Penalty Envelopes.—It is lawful to carry through the mail free of postage letters and packages relating "exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States." For this purpose official or penalty envelopes are provided for use of the Departments, bureaus, offices and officers of the United States. The right to use them extends to all officers of the United States Government (not including members of Congress and pension agents or other officers who receive a fixed allowance for their expenses, including expenses of postages). Any Department or office entitled to use them may inclose the penalty envelope with return address to any person from or through whom official information is desired, the same to be used only to cover such official information. The penalty for using them to avoid payment of postage on private matter is a fine of $300. The name of the Department or proper designation of the office or officer should be printed or written on the upper left-hand corner of the address face of the envelope, and thereunder the words, "Official business," and the penalty clause should be printed or written on the upper right-hand corner. Persons not officers writing to the Departments or to officers of the United States concerning the business of the writers with the Government cannot use the penalty envelope to transmit their correspondence.

124. Agricultural College Reports, Bulletins, etc.—The annual report of agricultural colleges established under the Act of July 2, 1862, one copy to the Secretary of the Interior, and one copy to each of the other colleges endowed under said Act, may be sent free. (See P. L. & R. § 370.) The annual reports and bulletins of Agricultural Experiment Stations may also be sent free in the mails; but application for the privilege with evidence showing right thereto must first be made to the Department. (See §§ 371 and 372 P. L. & R.)

125. Copyright Books.—Postmasters are required to send free to the Librarian of Congress any book, map, chart, dramatic, or musical composition, engraving, cut, print or photograph or negative thereof, or of a painting, drawing, chromo, statue, which the author, inventor, designer or proprietor, or assignee, deposits for mailing to such address. (§ 373 P. L. & R.

Unmailable Matter.

126. What is Unmailable.—(See § 330 P. L. & R.) Unmailable matter includes all matter which is by law, regulation or treaty stipulation prohibited from being transmitted in the mails, or which, by reason of illegible, incorrect, or insufficient address of person or office, cannot be forwarded to destination or delivered to the person for whom intended. Unmailable matter is classified thus:

1. Held for Postage.—Or matter insufficiently prepaid to entitle it to be forwarded. This includes domestic matter of the first class which is not prepaid at least one full rate, two cents, and all other domestic matter not fully prepaid.

As to matter unmailable when addressed to or received from foreign countries, see "Prohibited Articles," page 913, this Guide.

2. Misdirected.—That is, matter without address or so incorrectly, insufficiently or illegibly addressed that it cannot be forwarded to its destination. This includes "nixes," the term applied to designate mail-matter not addressed to a post office, or addressed to a post office without the name of the State being given, or otherwise so incorrectly, illegibly or insufficiently addressed that it cannot be transmitted. (P. L. & R. § 996.)

3. Destructive.—That which from its harmful nature is forbidden to be in the mails. Among these are: Poisons, explosive or inflammable articles, live or dead (and not stuffed) animals, insects or reptiles (except as specified in par. 8, Ruling 111, page 865, of this Guide), fruits or vegetable matter liable to decomposition, comb honey, guano, or any article exhaling a bad odor; vinous, spirituous and malt liquors, and liquids liable to explosion, spontaneous combustion or ignition by shock or jar (such as kerosene oil, naphtha, benzine, turpentine and other liquids of like character).

4. Specimens of Cholera Germs.—Disease germs, discharges of any kind from diseased persons, or other things of like character, no matter how securely put up. (Order Postmaster-General, June 1, 1893.)

5. Coin and Jewelry.—That matter, to wit, coin, jewelry, or other precious articles, which by the provisions of the conventions with foreign countries are prohibited from being sent in mails to foreign countries. (See note 20, p. 928, of this Guide.)

6. Obscene Matter.—This embraces: Every obscene, lewd, or lascivious book, pamphlet, picture, paper, writing, print, or other publication of an indecent character; every article or thing designed or intended for the prevention of conception or procuring abortion; every article or thing adapted or intended for any indecent or immoral use; every written or printed card, circular, book, pamphlet, advertisement, or notice of any kind giving information, directly or indirectly, where, how or from whom, or by what means any of the hereinbefore mentioned matters, articles, or things may be obtained or made; every letter upon the envelope of which, or postal card upon which indecent, lewd, obscene, or lascivious delineations, epithets, terms, or language may be written or printed. (See § 333 P. L. & R.)

7. Lottery Matter.—That is, letters and circulars known to be concerning lotteries, so-called gift concerts or other similar enterprises, offering prizes, or concerning schemes devised and intended to deceive and defraud the public for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretenses. (See § 331 P. L. & R.)

8. Mutilated.—That matter becomes unmailable which is recovered from wrecked or burned mail cars or vessels, or which has been so damaged by any other means that it cannot be forwarded to its destination. This includes all matter of value found loose in the mails, separated from the wrapper, label, or envelope containing the address, so that the direction cannot be known; and all matter which is recovered from depredations on the mails, which the Postmaster-General is required to restore to the owners when ownership is proved.

9. Excess of Weight and Size.—Those packages of domestic third and fourth-class matter more than four pounds, except single books exceeding that weight, and official matter emanating from the Departments, and books and documents published and circulated by order of Congress, and of foreign matter, which are in excess of the weight or size fixed by the treaty stipulation as the maximum for such matter (see note 20, page 928, this GUIDE). The limit of weight does not apply to second-class matter mailed in packages at the pound rate or at the rate of one cent for each four ounces.

10. Scurrilous Matter.—Matter upon the envelope or outside cover or wrapper of which or postal card upon which, any delineations, epithets, terms or language of an indecent lewd, lascivious, obscene, libelous, scurrilous, defamatory, or threatening character, or calculated by the terms or manner or style of display, and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character or conduct of another, may be written or printed. (See § 332 P. L. & R.)

127. Returns of Unmailable Matter; When Made.—Unmailable matter must not be held over to be advertised. Post offices of the first-class must make daily, and all other post offices weekly, returns to the Dead Letter Office of all unmailable matter deposited therein for mailing, or received through the mails for which other treatment is not specially provided, on hand at the time of return.

128. Returns of Unmailable Matter; How Made Up and Transmitted.—1. Each return of unmailable matter must be accompanied by a list made on the proper form (No. 1522) for such matter, stating as nearly as possible the full name and address of each article sent.

2. First-class matter should be entered on a list separate from third and fourth-class matter.

3. Should be further separated into the classes named in (§ 330 P. L. & R.), and the "Held for postage" matter subdivided into "Drop" and "Mail" letters.

4. Each class and subdivision must be arranged and entered on the list alphabetically, and every piece and its entry must be numbered to correspond. Where third and fourth-class matter is without address, the pieces should be numbered and a description of each article given. But postal cards and miscellaneous printed matter of no obvious value, need be entered only by a memorandum giving the number of the pieces.

5. Every piece of matter so sent must have plainly written or stamped upon it the specific reason of its being sent, as unmailable, stating whether "held for postage," "jewelry," "excess of weight or size," "misdirected," etc., and must also bear the name of the post office, and date on which it was sent to the Dead Letter Office, care being taken in indorsing or stamping not to deface the original postmark or address.

6. Postmasters receiving matter postmarked and indorsed "Deficiency in Address Supplied," etc., and forwarded in accordance with § 520 P. L. & R., which cannot be delivered, must, after the expiration of seven days from receipt, send the same to the Dead Letter Office as unmailable.

7. The returns of unmailable matter must be securely fastened in one package, with the list inclosed, addressed "Dead Letter Office, Washington, D. C.," and plainly indorsed, "Return of unmailable matter from" (here add the name of the post office.) All matter should be included in the same return, unless the quantity of third and fourth-class matter be too large to be conveniently made into one package, in which case the first-class matter should be sent in one parcel and the third and fourth in another, each with its proper list.

8. Duplicates of all lists and statements must be retained by postmasters for reference in making searches for missing matter.

9. Unmailable matter and the returns thereof must not be sent with returns of ordinary unclaimed matter.

129. Treatment of Unpaid Matter Deposited for Mailing.—For treatment of unpaid matter deposited for mailing see § 480 P. L. & R.

DELIVERY OF MAIL MATTER.

130. The delivery of letters is not controlled by statutory provision, but by the rules and regulations of the Post Office Department; the object of which is to insure and facilitate such delivery to the persons for whom the letters are intended. In the case of money-orders and registered letters, the parties applying for them, if not known, should be required to prove their identity in the same manner as in banking institutions, where parties presenting drafts, checks, etc., who are not known, are required to prove their identity. In the case of advertised letters, parties applying should be questioned as to the place or places whence they may be expecting correspondence. In the general delivery of a post office, the postmaster should exercise a sound discretion in the delivery of letters to persons claiming to be the persons named in the address, and who may not be known to him. (See P. L. & R. §§ 522-538.)

131. Postmasters are responsible for the proper delivery of mail. It is, therefore, for them to determine, after making inquiry and exercising due caution, to whom the delivery shall be made.

132. A postmaster has no right to withhold the delivery of any mail matter on the ground that the party named in the address is indebted to him.

133. A letter addressed to a person imprisoned to await trial, upon indictment, or pending indictment, should be delivered in accordance with the order of the person addressed. In the absence of orders, the mail should be delivered to the sheriff, or officer having charge of the prisoner.

134. When a letter arrives at a post office addressed to one person in the care of another and the postmaster has received no instructions from the person for whom it is intended, it is his duty to deliver it to the first of the two persons named in the address who may call for it.

135. The Statutes of the United States do not protect mail matter after it has been delivered to the party addressed, or in accordance with his order.

136. If the agent of the addressee of a letter is robbed of the same after he has taken it from the post office, complaint should be made to the local authorities, as the jurisdiction of the Post Office Department ceases after the letter has been properly delivered.

137. Postmasters are directed to examine all letters in their office, weekly, so that badly addressed letters may be more carefully and thoroughly scrutinized and promptly delivered, or otherwise forwarded to the proper post office where they belong; and not hold or delay letters not belonging to their respective offices.

138. Letters "Opened through Mistake."—Section 535, Postal Laws and Regulations, provides that when a letter intended for one person is delivered to another, and opened by mistake and returned by him, the postmaster will reseal the letter in the presence of the person who opened it, and request him to write on it the words "opened by mistake," and sign his name. He will then replace the letter in the post office. Postmasters are expected in every case to insist upon a compliance with these requirements; and when an erroneously delivered letter is opened and dropped in the office through the receptacle for letters, and the postmaster is unable to ascertain who opened the same, after resealing the letter indorse thereon the words "opened by mistake by person unknown to the postmaster," and then replace the letter in the office.

139. A letter opened by mistake must be treated until its proper delivery as though it were sealed, and postmasters must not examine the contents of such letters under any pretense whatever. For the purpose of delivering or returning any mail matter, postmasters must confine themselves to the information contained upon the envelope or wrapper.

140. A postmaster, at whose office mail matter in transit is lying, addressed to a post office whose regular supply is cut off by floods or other accidents, making the mail route impassable, is authorized to deliver matter to the parties addressed upon their personal or written application, or to deliver the mail to the postmaster at the office of address, to be taken by him to his own office for delivery to his patrons.

141. Postmaster to Require Appointment of Receiver.—When a firm or company dissolves partnership, and contention arises as to whom the mail matter addressed to the former business firm or company, or its officials, shall be delivered, the postmaster, being forbidden by one party to deliver to another, should require the appointment of a receiver, retaining all mail matter until said receiver is appointed; and if no such receiver is appointed, or no agreement between the contending parties is reached before the expiration of thirty days from the date when delivery ceased, the letters in dispute, and all that may arrive thereafter (until an agreement is made or receiver appointed), shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office marked "IN DISPUTE." If, however, such letters bear card requests for their return if not delivered within a certain time, they should be returned to the sender direct, at the expiration of the time named, care being taken to mark all such letters "IN DISPUTE."

142. Official Letters to Pensioners.—A letter from the Pension Office, in Washington, D. C.,

may be delivered to the person in whose care it may be addressed, as well as to the pensioner or a member of his family; but a letter addressed to a pensioner from the office of an agent for paying pensions must be delivered to the pensioner or some member of his family, even though addressed in the care of a third person; because such address is prohibited. A pensioner's order, verbal or written, instructing a postmaster to deliver letters to him from a pension agent, or from the Pension Office, to an attorney, claim agent or broker, must be disregarded. If a communication from the Commissioner of Pensions or a pension agent, addressed to a pensioner reaches the post office after the pensioner has died, leaving no surviving widow, or children under sixteen years of age, the postmaster should return the communication to the office from which it came, or to the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., with a statement of the facts. If there be a surviving widow, the letter should be delivered to her. If no widow, then to the guardian, if any, of the children surviving under sixteen years of age. (§ 524, P. L & R.)

143. Concerning the Delivery of Official Letters Addressed to Pensioners.—Information of the non-observance, by many postmasters, of the requirements of Section 524, concerning the delivery of letters addressed to pensioners, having come to the notice of this Department, it is deemed wise to issue the following special instructions, to wit:

144. Letters from the Pension Office in Washington, D. C., may be delivered to the pensioner himself, to a member of his family, or to any other responsible person, known to the postmaster, in whose care they may be addressed. They must not be delivered to any person (neighbor or acquaintance) except as stated below, who may call, even with the pensioner's consent, for the latter's mail.

145. Letters addressed to a pensioner, from the office of any United States Pension Agent, must be delivered only to the pensioner, or to a member of his family specially authorized by him to receive them, except as stated below. They must not be delivered to any person in whose care they may be addressed.

146. Letters from the office of the United States Pension Agent, addressed to a pensioner must not be placed in the post office box of another person for delivery.

147. If the pensioner has been adjudged insane or imbecile by a court, and a guardian or manager of his business has been designated by the court, all official letters for the pensioner, including those from Pension Office and those from the offices of the United States Pension Agents, should be delivered only to said guardian or manager.

148. Under no circumstances must the letters of pensioners, sent from the Pension Office or from any United States Pension Agency, be delivered to any attorney, claim agent, broker, or any other person except as stated above.

149. The law provides that no part of the money due, or to become due, to any pensioner is liable to attachment, levy, or seizure, by or under any legal process whatever, and this applies to letters in transit containing checks and those in post offices awaiting delivery. Postmasters are, therefore, hereby instructed to refuse the delivery of any letter, sent to a pensioner from a United States Pension Agency, to any person claiming to hold a lien thereon, or even to any marshal, sheriff, constable, or any other officer of a court (except to a guardian or manager as aforesaid) without first reporting the fact to the Postmaster-General of the demand therefor, and receiving instructions from him.

150. Delivery of Mail Matter Addressed to Minors.—Where minor children reside with their parents, the father, or if he be dead the mother, generally is entitled to direct the disposition of mail matter addressed to such minors, and unless the minors be under guardianship, may authorize another to receive mail matter addressed, to them although they be not residing with the parent, and the postmaster should deliver accordingly, requiring directions in writing if he deem it necessary. In the absence of directions from a parent or guardian, or one authorized to control his correspondence, mail matter addressed to a minor may be delivered to him; and, especially if living independently, he is entitled to control his correspondence. Mail matter addressed to a deceased minor, who up to the time of his decease resided with parents or guardian, may be delivered to the parents or guardian; but if the minor left a husband or widow, delivery may be made to him or to her.

151. When a minor is not dependent on a parent for maintenance and support, and does not reside with a parent or guardian, or with some one in whose charge he may have been placed, such minor has the right to control his own correspondence.

152. At colleges and similar institutions, where students have been placed in charge of the principal by their parents or guardians, and where the rules of the institution provide that the principal shall have control of the mail matter addressed to such students as are minors postmasters should make the delivery in accordance with the order of the principal. If, however, the principal has not authority from the parent or guardian to control the mail of the children placed under his care (which authority is understood by an acceptance of the rules—that being one), the Department cannot direct the delivery to be made to the principal against the wishes of the student.

153. Specially Held for Delivery.—When a postmaster has been requested to hold, or has good reason to believe that an ordinary letter or parcel (without the card of the sender), remaining uncalled for, can be delivered to the person addressed, he may endorse it "Specially Held for Delivery," and retain it not longer than three months before sending it to the Dead Letter Office. If, at the expiration, of three months, the facts shall warrant the further holding of the letter, authority therefor should be obtained from the First Assistant Postmaster-General. A letter bearing the card of the sender must not be held beyond the time named in said card; if no time be mentioned in the card it should be returned at the expiration of thirty days, endorsed as provided for by Ruling 177 of this GUIDE. Attention is also called to Sections 546 and 1156, Postal Laws and Regulations, Ed. 1893.

FORWARDING LETTERS, ETC.

155. The matter to be forwarded at request of addressee, without additional charge for postage, includes letters prepaid at one full rate (two cents), parcels prepaid at first-class rates, postal cards, official matter, and free county publications (within the county of publication) and matter from Postal Union Countries. (See P. L. & R., § 519.)

156. Other mail-matter, whenever forwarded, must be charged with additional postage at the same rate at which it was originally mailed, with the rate noted thereon thus: "POSTAGE DUE FOR FORWARDING,——CENTS," unless the addressee or some one for him prepay the postage required for forwarding, in which case the necessary stamps will be affixed and canceled. At the office of destination, the matter will be treated as deficient matter, unless the postage for forwarding has been prepaid. Each reforwarding subjects the matter to an additional charge for postage.

157. Requests to forward given by any other person than the addressee or his lawful agent, or the person in whose care the matter is addressed, will be disregarded; the husband of an addressee will be presumed her agent when she has not directed her mail to be withheld from his control. A general request to forward matter should be observed until revoked.

158. The direction may be changed and matter reforwarded upon request as many times as may be necessary to reach the addressee.

159. A letter opened through inadvertence may nevertheless be forwarded to the person addressed without additional charge for postage. But the postmaster must not open the envelope to ascertain the person addressed or the name of the writer.

160. Matter entitled to be forwarded, should be promptly sent in the next mail, indorsed "Forwarded by order of addressee" or "Forwarded," and postmarked with date of forwarding.

161. Penalty envelopes must not be used to forward letters; but if there be insufficient space to write correction of address, a piece of paper should be attached for the purpose.

162. As to forwarding registered matter, see chapter on Registry System of this GUIDE.

163. Erroneously Addressed or Delivered Matter, etc., when to be Forwarded.—When any article of mail matter has been erroneously delivered, it may, on being returned to the post office, be forwarded upon due request as if it had not passed from the post office. Any matter proper to be forwarded free, addressed to the care of another, and returned by him redirected, may be forwarded in like manner. Matter which has been opened inadvertently upon misdelivery may be forwarded. As postal cars, mail apartments in cars and steamboats, are designated as post offices, a deposit in such car or apartment, at the post office originally addressed, of unopened letters properly readdressed for forwarding, is permissible; and the deposit in a letter-box established by the Department within the delivery of office of original address, is equivalent to a deposit in the post office.

164. The postmaster will correct and forward to its known destination any matter of the first and second-classes which comes to his office, through obvious mistake of the sender in addressing it, but should not guess at the destination, nor forward it on trial. If sure that it can be delivered from the office to which he sends it, he will postmark it and indorse: "DEFICIENCY IN ADDRESS SUPPLIED BY" (name of forwarding office.) (P. L. & R., § 520.)

FORWARDED MATTER WITH POSTAGE DUE THEREON.

165. Postmasters receiving an unpaid postage bill with forwarded matter must comply with the provisions of Section 516 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, and return the same to the issuing postmaster, by next mail, with the proper amount of uncanceled postage-due stamps.

(Exception: If the postmaster has received an order to forward the matter to another post office, it should be forwarded with the bill, and the last receiving postmaster will return it to the issuing postmaster with the due stamp.)

166. To obtain credit for postage-due stamps on matter which fails of delivery, it should be sent to the Dead Letter Office with the regular return of dead matter, but inclosed with a special claim for credit for the amount in a separate wrapper, marked "postage-due matter."

167. Letter Carrier Post Offices will claim credit for postage-due stamps on matter which fails of delivery on the regular dead-letter bill. (See §§ 515 and 517, P. L. & R.)

LETTERS UNDER COVER TO POSTMASTERS.

168. Postmasters will forward all first-class matter on which one full rate of postage is prepaid, which may reach them under cover from any other post office with or without request to mail the same. Before forwarding, they should cancel the stamps and indorse in writing or stamp on such matter the following: "RECEIVED AT ————, UNDER COVER FROM THE POST OFFICE AT————."

RETURN OF UNCLAIMED MATTER.

169. Request Matter.—When the writer of any letter on which the postage is prepaid shall indorse upon the outside thereof his name and address, such letter shall not be advertised, but after remaining uncalled for at the office to which it is directed thirty days, or the time the writer may direct, shall be returned to him without additional charge for postage, and if not then delivered shall be treated as a dead letter. (R. S., § 3939; P. L. & R., § 549.)

170. The Time for Return of Request Matter.—The sender has the right by a subsequent written direction to the postmaster at the office of destination to lengthen or shorten the time originally named on the envelope after which the letter, if not delivered, shall be returned to him, but it must remain for delivery at least three days from date of receipt; and postmasters must obey such written authority, and return as directed, without additional charge for postage. When the addressee has given general direction to hold his letters until called for, and they are not called for within the time limited in the return request, they should be returned to the sender in accordance with the request. (P. L. & R., § 550.)

171. Card and Official Matter.—Whenever any unclaimed matter of the first-class bears the name and address of the sender, as post office box, number and street, etc., without a request that the same be returned if not delivered, such matter is called "card matter," and must not be advertised, but must be returned to sender at the expiration of thirty days from the date of its arrival at the post office of destination. All such matter originating in Canada or Mexico will be treated as herein directed.

172. All official matter sent under penalty envelopes or labels, or the frank of Senators or Members of Congress, will be treated as card matter, and if unclaimed, returned to the office of mailing, if known. If the post office of origin cannot be ascertained, it should be returned to the post office at Washington, D. C.

173. A request upon a drop letter for its return to the writer at some other post office, if unclaimed, cannot be respected unless it has been prepaid with one full rate (two cents) of postage.

174. Postmasters must examine the return request upon mail matter not promptly delivered so as to comply with the request within the time specified, indorsed with the reason for its non-delivery. Frequent complaints have been made of such failures by postmasters, and the answer that the time was overlooked, is not satisfactory to the Department.

175. A letter which has been opened inadvertently, or upon a wrong delivery, may be returned to the writer without additional charge, when it contains a card or return request. The postmaster must not open letters to ascertain the writer.

176. Unclaimed card and request letters, prepaid one full rate, but not wholly prepaid, are to be returned to mailing office for delivery to the writer, who will be required to pay the amount originally due. If payment be refused, the matter will be indorsed "REFUSED," and treated as such. (P. L. & R., §§ 551 and 559.)

177. All request, card or official matter of any class returned to sender, or undelivered matter sent to the Dead Letter Office, must bear on its face the reason for such return—such as "REFUSED," "REMOVED," "PRESENT ADDRESS UNKNOWN," "DECEASED," "UNCLAIMED," "CANNOT BE FOUND," etc., etc., and must also, in every instance, bear the post-mark of the office from which it is returned. No article of undeliverable matter must be detained at the office to which it is addressed for a longer time than that named in the return request.

178. Attention has been called to the fact, that postmasters in many cases have been in the habit of marking letters as "unclaimed," when the addressees have declined to accept them. The Department insists upon postmasters endorsing in a proper manner upon the envelopes the reason for the non-delivery of letters. Letters which have been refused by the addressees must be endorsed "refused," instead of "unclaimed."

179. Unclaimed letters bearing the card of a hotel, a school, college or other public institution, which has evidently been printed upon the envelopes to serve as a mere advertisement, should not be returned to the place designated in the cards, unless there is also a request therefor. When letters bearing such special request are returned to the office of mailing, the postmaster should present them to the hotel, school, college, etc., and if the writer or his address is unknown, they should be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office with the next return of dead letters.

180. Single, unclaimed postal cards, wholly or partly in writing, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, with the regular returns of unclaimed matter.

Double, or reply postal cards, when unclaimed, will be returned to the sender when the address of the sender can be ascertained, otherwise they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. Care must be taken in endorsing and returning double cards, not to deface or destroy the unused portion.

181. Return of Other than First-class and Request-Matter.—All matter, other than first-class, may be returned, but is subject to an additional charge for postage for returning the same. When the sender of matter which would be subject to return postage shall, by indorsement upon the wrapper or otherwise, request its return, postmasters will comply with such request within the time fixed by the sender—if no time is fixed, then at the end of thirty days—first charging such matter, however, with the necessary return postage, and indorse the same "RETURN POSTAGE DUE —— CENTS;" and the postmaster at the office to which such matter is returned must affix thereto postage-due stamps sufficient to cover the return postage, and collect the same from the sender before delivering such returned matter. If the sender should refuse to pay return postage, the matter must be disposed of as "REFUSED." If the matter be unclaimed, it will be treated as other unclaimed matter. If postage stamps or money sufficient to pay the return postage be furnished by the sender, the postmaster at the returning office must affix to the matter returned the necessary stamps and cancel them, the same as if the matter had been originally mailed at his office. (See "Special Notices to Postmasters," page 889, of this GUIDE.)

182. Refused second-class matter returned at the request of the publisher must be rated at the transient or four-ounce rate, and promptly returned in accordance with the request, but not before the expiration of the time named.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING THE TREATMENT AND DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED MATTER.

183. Advertising.—When to advertise. At post offices of the fourth-class, matter should be advertised monthly, at all other post offices weekly, and when practicable upon the first day of the month or week, but no matter should be advertised that has not remained on delivery for at least one week.

184. Form of Advertisement.—(a) Matter should be advertised by placing in a conspicuous place in the post office one or more printed or manuscript lists of the names of persons to whom such matter is addressed. (b) The names should be arranged alphabetically and the names of ladies and gentleman in separate lists. (c) The third and fourth-class matter should be advertised in lists with appropriate headings separate from the letters. (d) No expense to the Department must be incurred in advertising matter with printed lists, except by special authority from the First Assistant Postmaster-General.

185. What to be Advertised.—All unclaimed matter of the first-class, including letters and other matter returned from the Dead Letter Office direct to the sender, and valuable matter of the third and fourth-class, should be included in the advertisement, except registered matter, refused matter, fictitious matter, card and request matter, matter addressed to persons who call regularly at the post office, or which the postmaster has special reason to believe will be called for, matter indorsed "To be held until called for," "Poste restante," or similar directions, and matter which the addressee has requested to be retained. Such matter held on request should be marked, "Specially held for delivery," and may be retained for a period not to exceed ninety days, except by special permission from the Department. Matter which the postmaster has reason to believe will be promptly called for, or otherwise delivered, the advertisement as to such may be delayed one week. (Section 546, P. L. & R.)

186. Postmasters are required to collect one cent postage due upon all letters advertised, whether by posting or otherwise, which are subsequently delivered.

Disposition of Unclaimed Matter.

187. When to send Unclaimed Matter to Dead Letter Office.—From post offices of the fourth-class returns of unclaimed matter must be made monthly, and one month after advertisement; from all other offices returns must be made weekly, and two weeks after advertisement.

188. How to make Returns of Unclaimed Matter.—(a) Every piece of mail-matter sent to the Dead Letter Office should be marked upon the address side with the date of advertising and the reason for its non-delivery, such as "unclaimed," "removed," "refused," etc, and upon the sealed side with the date and name of the post office from which it was sent to the Dead Letter Office (care must be taken in indorsing and stamping matter not to deface the original address or postmark). (b) Each class of matter should be arranged separately and duly entered on the Dead Letter Bill (form 1523), under its proper heading. (c) The bill and a copy of the advertised list must be sent in every return. (d) The advertised list should give the name of office, State and postmaster, and the date of advertising, and all matter delivered or otherwise disposed of since advertising should be indicated by a mark drawn through the name on the list. (e) A manuscript list of each piece of third-class matter of obvious value, and all fourth-class matter should be sent with such matter (for convenience this list may be made on an unmailable blank, form 1522½, changing the word "unmailable" to "unclaimed.") (f) The whole return should be wrapped and tied in one parcel and plainly addressed, "Dead Letter Office, Washington, D. C." It should also be indorsed "Return of unclaimed matter from (here add the name of post office.) A penalty envelope may be used for the address label, but it should be securely fastened to the parcel. Where the return is small it may be inclosed in the envelope. (g) Where refused matter is included in the return it should be accompanied with a separate list of the matter sent. Refused matter should not be held in a post office beyond the time for making the next regular return of unclaimed matter.

189. Necessary blanks will be furnished to postmasters upon application to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Supplies, Washington, D. C.

190. Domestic printed matter obviously without value, including printed postal cards, must not be sent to the Dead Letter Office when unclaimed, except that upon which postage is due, but must be disposed of as waste paper, and the proceeds taken up and accounted for as other postal revenue. (Section 555, P. L. & R.)

191. Printed Matter of "Obvious Value" Defined—Printed matter of obvious value is defined to be such as magazines, pictorials, music, pictures, photographs, books, or pamphlets, likely to be of use or value to the addressee.

Withdrawal of Mail Matter.

192. Before Dispatch.—After mailable matter has been deposited in the post office it cannot be withdrawn except by the writer thereof or sender, or in case of a minor child, the parent or guardian duly authorized to control the correspondence of the writer. The utmost care must be taken to ascertain that the person desiring to withdraw the matter is the person entitled to do so. If necessary, the postmaster should require the applicant to exhibit a written address in the same hand as that upon the letter, and such description of the letter or article mailed, or other evidence, as will identify the same and satisfy the postmaster that the applicant is entitled to withdraw it.

The postmaster acts at his peril in permitting such withdrawal, and would be liable, however honest his intentions, were he to deliver it to an impostor or one not entitled to it,

He should in no case delay a mail or retard the business of his office in order to search for a letter desired to be withdrawn.

193. Letters with Stamps Canceled not to be Withdrawn for Mailing on the Cars.—After canceling the stamps upon a letter the postmaster must not return it to the person mailing it for him to take it to a railway post office. If received too late to put in the locked pouch, the postmaster or his assistant or sworn clerk may, after cancellation and postmarking, take it to the postal car. The railway postal clerk may receive it from such postmaster, assistant, or clerk, but is forbidden to receive such canceled letter outside of the pouch from any other person. (P. L. & R., § 488.)

194. Withdrawal by Sender after Dispatch.—After a letter has passed from the mailing post office the delivery of the same may be prevented, and its return to the writer secured, by an application by the writer to the postmaster at the office of mailing, stating reasons therefor, identifying the letter, and supporting such application with sufficient proof in writing. Upon such application and evidence, and upon a deposit being made by the writer of a sum sufficient to cover all expenses incurred, the postmaster shall telegraph a request for the return of such letter to his office, if it has been forwarded, to the postmaster at the office of address, carefully describing the same, so as to identify it and prevent the return of any other matter. On receipt of such request the postmaster at the office of address shall return such letter to the mailing postmaster in a penalty envelope, who will deliver it to the writer upon payment of all expenses and of letter rate of postage on the matter returned, on the envelope of which postage-due stamps of the proper value must be placed and canceled, and upon the prepayment also of a registered parcel, addressed to the Assistant Attorney-General, Division of Correspondence, P. O. Department, in which the postmaster shall inclose and transmit the application of the writer and all proofs submitted by him, together with the writer's receipt for it, and the envelope of the returned letter.

The following form may be used in making application for withdrawal of mail matter after dispatch:

Postmaster——— ———, ——— ———, 189–.

Please recall and deliver to myself or bearer a letter deposited in ——— ——— about ——, ——— ———, 189–, addressed to ——— ———, and described as follows: ———, and in the same handwriting as this application, and which was written by me or by my authority, and which I do not desire delivered to the addressee for the following reasons: ———.

It is hereby agreed that if the letter is returned to me, I will protect you from any and all claims made against you for such return, and will fully indemnify you for any loss you may sustain by reason of such action, and I herewith deposit $— to cover all expenses incurred, and will deliver you the envelope of the letter returned.

[Name.] ——— ——— [Address.] ——— ———.

[Receipt.] Received ——— ———, 189–, of the postmaster, the above described piece of mail-matter for account of the sender. [Name.] ——— ———.

GENERAL RULES FOR POSTMASTERS IN THE CONDUCT OF THEIR OFFICES.

DAYS AND HOURS OF BUSINESS.

195. When the mail arrives at a post office on Sunday, the postmaster should keep the office open for one hour or more for the delivery of the same, after it has been duly assorted, if the public convenience demands it. If it be received during the time of public worship, the opening of the office should be delayed until services have closed. He is not required to open the office during the day of Sunday if no mails arrive after the closing of the same on Saturday, and before six o'clock on Sunday afternoon. While the office is open, stamps may be sold to any one applying therefor, and mail delivered to persons calling for the same; but money-orders must not be issued nor paid, nor letters registered on that day. Sunday-school services are not to be regarded as "public worship," within the contemplation of the regulations. (See § 436 P. L. & R.)

196. The business of a post office cannot be restricted to certain days in the week under the provisions of Section 436, Postal Laws and Regulations.

197. Postmasters are not obliged to open, assort, and deliver the same evening, a mail which arrives after 9 P. M., but there is nothing to prohibit their doing it, if they feel so disposed.

198. The hours during which clerks in post offices are required to be on duty are regulated by the postmasters in whose offices they are employed, and not by the Department.

Location of Post Offices.

199. The site of a post office of the fourth-class should not be changed without authority from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General. When it is desirable to change the location of a Presidential post office, application should be made to the First Assistant Postmaster-General.

200. At post offices on the line of railroads, where a change has been made in the postmaster, and the incoming postmaster changes the site of the post office to a point more than eighty rods from the railroad station, without first securing unconditional authority from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General therefor, the postmaster will be required to provide for the exchange of mails without expense to the Department, and no messenger service will be established until said change of site shall have been duly authorized. (See § 391, P. L. & R.)

201. When a change of site of a post office increases or decreases the distance traveled by a mail messenger or carrier for its supply, the postmaster should at once report that fact to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

202. It is not allowable, under the regulations of the Department, to locate a post office in a bar-room, or in any room directly connected therewith, nor to open or deliver any mail matter in any room in which liquor is sold at retail, except the same be sold by a druggist for medicinal purposes only, and not to be drunk on the premises.

203. Postmasters at post offices of the fourth-class are permitted to transact any other business in the room in which the post office is located, when the same is kept separate and distinct from that of the post office.

204. If a postmaster has a store in connection with the post office and the same is attached and closed for debts incurred by the postmaster, he should provide another room for his office, as the Department will not protect him against the enforcement of State laws by allowing him to plead interference with the mails.

205. The policy of the Post Office Department is to secure postmasters who will at least keep a building used for official purposes free from all charges and claims against the premises. The Department will not sustain any postmaster in attempting to evade the payment of rent upon premises so occupied through the use of his official position.

Supplies for Post Offices.

206. When blanks, books, and supplies of a post office become infected, so as to render them liable to communicate small-pox or other contagious disease, permission will be given to burn them, upon application being made to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Supplies. The postage stamps must be carefully counted in the presence of two disinterested witnesses, a statement of their classification and amount sworn to, and forwarded, together with the letter authorizing said destruction of supplies, to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General, Stamp Division. (See § 667 P. L. & R.)

207. All postmasters having on hand old letter-balances and scales apparently worthless, are hereby instructed to return them by mail to the Division of Post Office Supplies, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., and to notify the Superintendent of that Division at the time of shipment.

208. Postmasters and others in ordering from the contractor printed facing slips, should see that slips for foreign matter are printed so as to indicate the exchange office, as for instance, "New York, Foreign." "Boston, Foreign," "San Francisco, Foreign," etc. Mail is frequently missent and delayed on account of insufficient address on this class of matter.

209. Every postmaster is hereby instructed to place an impression of the postmark of his post office upon each requisition for post office supplies and blanks made upon the First Assistant Postmaster-General. By this means the handling of requisitions will be greatly facilitated, and numerous delays, occasioned by illegible handwriting and omission of the written names of the office and State, will be avoided. The latter names must also appear in writing, in addition to the postmark.

Postmarking and Backstamping.

210. The attention of this office has of late been repeatedly called to instances of negligence among postmasters in regard to the postmarking of letters, in the cancellation of postage stamps, and too, that the majority of postmasters at whose offices such letters are received for delivery also fail to deface the uncanceled stamps, or to report the delinquent mailing postmasters to the Department. The following section of the Revised Statutes of the United States, prescribing the duty of postmasters in these matters, is therefore again published, with the announcement that every postal employé who is hereafter discovered to be habitually careless or inefficient in the performance of this duty will be liable to dismissal from office:

"Postage stamps affixed to all mail matter, or the stamped envelopes in which the same is enclosed, shall, when deposited for mailing or delivery, be defaced by the postmaster at the mailing office, in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct; and if any mail matter shall be forwarded without the stamps or envelopes being defaced, the postmaster at the office of delivery shall deface them, and report the delinquent postmaster to the Postmaster-General." (Rev. Stat., § 3921.)

211. The attention of postmasters is called to Sections 473, 474 and 475 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, regarding the postmarking of mail matter. It is important that mail matter be postmarked in a perfect manner, so that each letter and figure of the stamp may be distinct. A failure on the part of the postmaster to postmark mail legibly, not only reflects upon the management of his office, but renders him liable to be charged with delays which have not actually occurred at his office. (See order Postmaster-General, p. 892 of this GUIDE.)

212. The backstamping of letters, showing the date of their receipt, is a very important matter, and the attention of postmasters is called to the requirements of § 509 P. L. & R., which must be complied with.

POSTAL CARDS.

213. A postal card with a statement of account written thereon may be transmitted in the mails when it does not contain anything reflecting injuriously upon the conduct or character of another, or a threat of any kind, or any other matter forbidden by law.

214. The Department does not hold the usual legal notices sent out by tax collectors that tax is due, or about to become due, written or printed upon postal cards, to be unmailable.

215. It is the Postmaster-General who is authorized by law to determine the quality, form and size of postal cards, and to prescribe the rules and regulations under which they may be sent in the mails, and it is not within the discretion of others to change the card so adopted. Such change of form or face will render the card unmailable.

216. When anything whatever, except an address label, is attached to a postal card transmitted in the mail, the same becomes subject to additional postage.

217. Postmasters are forbidden to back-stamp postal cards on the side intended for the communication. The back-stamp must be made only on the side intended for the address, and so as not to interfere with the address.

SPECIAL DELIVERY.

For Instructions as to Special Delivery, see Sections 633 to 665 Postal Laws and Regulations, Ed. 1893.

218. Any article of mailable matter bearing a ten-cent special delivery stamp in addition to the lawful postage, is entitled to immediate delivery on its arrival at the office of address, between the hours of 7 A. M. and 11 P. M., if the office be of the free-delivery class, and between the hours of 7 A. M. and 7 P. M., if the office be other than a free-delivery office.

219. To entitle such a letter to immediate delivery, the residence or place of business of the addressee must be within the carrier limits of a free-delivery office, and within one mile of any other office. Special delivery stamps are not available for the payment of postage, nor can ordinary postage stamps be used to secure immediate delivery of mail matter. Attention of postmasters is called to Act approved January 16th, 1889. (§ 634 P. L. &. R., 1893.)

GENERAL RULES.

220. A postmaster must reside within the delivery of the post office to which he is appointed. (See § 397 P. L. & R.)

221. An alien may be appointed postmaster, provided he has declared in proper form his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and can take the oath as prescribed in § 35, P. L. & R. This ruling shall also apply to assistants or clerks.

222. The financial condition of a candidate for appointment to the office of postmaster does not affect his eligibility to such office. He is required, however, to furnish a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, before he can be commissioned and authorized to assume the duties of the office.

223. The regulations of the Department do not forbid postmasters engaging in other business, provided it does not interfere with their official duties, and is not inconsistent with their duties as postmaster.

224. It is contrary to the rules of the Department for a postmaster to use his official signature to an advertisement of goods sold by him in his private capacity as a merchant, or as an indorsement of any person or thing. (See Ruling 243.)

225. A postmaster whose annual compensation is less than one thousand dollars is not prohibited by any provision of the "Postal Laws and Regulations" from accepting and holding another office under the state, territory or municipality in which he resides, provided his duties as postmaster suffer no interference in consequence thereof.

226. Any postmaster may serve as notary public if the business of his office is not neglected in consequence thereof.

227. A postmaster who is also a notary public may, in his notarial capacity, take affidavits in pension cases, but he must not be concerned in the prosecution of such cases, or any other claims against the Government of the United States.

228. Under Section 36, Postal Laws and Regulations, a duly commissioned postmaster is, by virtue of his commission, authorized to administer the oath of office to any person, whether employed in the postal service, or in any other Department of the Government. His authority is, however, restricted to the administration of the said oath of office. He is not empowered, under the provisions of the section referred to, to take affidavits, or acknowledgments, or to perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office of Justice of the Peace or Notary Public.

229. Frequent complaints are made to the Department by publishers that postmasters do not notify them that their papers addressed to subscribers remain undelivered. Attention is called to Sections 556 and 557, Postal Laws and Regulations, edition 1893, which must in all cases be promptly complied with.

230. There is nothing in the Postal Laws or Regulations concerning the liability of a subscriber for the subscription price of a newspaper or periodical.

231. When a subscriber of a newspaper or periodical refuses to take the same from the office, or neglects to call for it for the period of one month, it becomes the duty of the postmaster to notify the publisher of the fact. If the first notification be disregarded, a second may be sent, calling attention to the previous notice. The refused matter should then be held for thirty days, after which the same, and all copies thereof subsequently arriving, should be placed with the waste paper.

232. Postmasters should make a record, for their own protection, when a publisher is notified of the non-delivery of his paper to a subscriber. This record should show the name of the publication, city or town in which it is published, name of the subscriber and the date when the notice was sent. If the first notification is disregarded, a second one should be sent and a record also made of it.

233. On investigation of complaints of subscribers of failure to receive their newspapers, it has frequently been found that the papers were not in the packages when received at their destination. Postmasters are therefore requested to notify at once the Division Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, in whose district the office is situated, of any shortage that may be in the package, stating its condition when received and the name of the subscribers.

234. The Postal Laws do not make postmasters liable for the breakage or destruction of matter passing through their offices. If a postmaster should, through negligence or wilful neglect, cause loss to a patron of his office, his liability therefor is a question between the party suffering such loss and the postmaster, to be decided in the courts.

235. A postmaster is responsible for the proper management of his office and for the safe keeping of the contents thereof until his successor has been appointed and entered upon the duties of the office.

236. Whenever the sureties upon a postmaster's official bond, by reason of such postmaster's absconding, being placed under arrest, or abandoning the office, or for any other reason whatever, take possession of the post-office, either by placing one of their own number, or some other person in charge thereof, to act for them, they do so by authority of the Department.

of the office, the sureties should report the fact to the Department, with the request that they be instructed concerning their duty in the premises; pending the receipt whereof they should not surrender the office to the said postmaster, or permit him to have official connection therewith.

237. The surety of a postmaster has the right to examine his accounts, but said surety has no right to examine mail matter awaiting delivery, or passing through the office, unless the required oath of office has previously been administered to him.

238. Postmasters and their sureties being responsible for the acts of employés in post offices, such employés may be selected without regard to age, and without consultation with the Post Office Department, except as provided in Sections 419, 450 and 451, Postal Laws and Regulations.

239. A postmaster summoned as a witness should obey the summons and go into court, but should refuse to testify in regard to the delivery of mail-matter, at the same time exhibiting to the court Section 462, P. L. & R. He will then abide by the action of the court.

240. Section 462, Postal Laws and Regulations forbidding postmasters to furnish lists of the persons receiving mail from their post offices, must be observed under all circumstances. When a request for such information is received, accompanied by a postage stamp or stamped envelope for prepayment of return postage, the postmaster should return such postage stamp or stamped envelope to the writer, under cover of a penalty envelope, at the same time politely advising him that he is forbidden by the regulations of the Department to furnish the information desired.

241. Lists of names sent to postmasters for revision, must be returned to senders when postage stamps are enclosed for that purpose; no new names must be added to the lists. There is no objection, however, to postmasters crosssing off the names of those persons who have moved away, or are deceased.

242. Postmasters must not furnish information as to the gross weight of any publication passing through their post offices at any time at the pound rate, or of the value of the stamps canceled in payment thereon, to any person not an official of the Post Office Department.

243. No postmaster or other postal officer or employé is permitted, without special authority from the Postmaster-General, to give any endorsement, recommendation or other testimonial, in his official capacity, to any private enterprise or business having any connection with the postal service or with postal affairs, or that appeals in any way for support to other postal employés. (See Ruling 224.)

244. Postmasters should, so far as possible, advise the patrons of their offices, that professed dealers in "green goods" are swindlers of the worst type. While they claim to deal in counterfeit money they do nothing of the kind. When a person is found who is willing to negotiate with them for a supply of counterfeit money, they sell him what purports to be a package of that article, but when the purchaser opens his package he finds that it contains nothing bearing any resemblance whatever to money, either spurious or genuine. The contents of his package consist of saw-dust, old newspapers or something of a like worthless nature. (See order of Postmaster-General, page 891 of this GUIDE.)

245. There is no law or regulation requiring postmasters to attend to the business of private individuals; they may, however, do so as an act of courtesy, when perfectly convenient to themselves. Private individuals, when addressing postmasters on their own business, should enclose a postage stamp for reply.

246. Postmasters are expected to extend to all persons the courtesy of a respectful reply to inquiries upon postal business, for which they may use penalty envelopes, when it relates exclusively to the business of the Government. They may use their own discretion about replying to letters upon the private business of the writers. Such replies should be prepaid by ordinary stamps.

247. It is not a violation of postal law to send dunning communications by mail, when the same are sent under cover of envelopes which do not bear thereon written or printed words or display, objectionable to the law. (See § 332, P. L. & R.)

248. A letter deposited in a post office to be sent in the mail to another post office, the same being prepaid with one full letter rate of postage, and in the absence of any positive knowledge that its contents are unmailable, must be forwarded in the mail. The fact that such letter may be addressed to initials, constitutes no exception to this rule. When not addressed such letters are undeliverable · but the question of their delivery requires the attention of the delivering postmaster only.

249. The patrons of a post office should not tarry at the place of delivery longer than is necessary to receive their mail.

250. A post office should be kept free from anything obnoxious or offensive to its patrons; hence, a postmaster has the right to prohibit smoking in his office.

251. Postmasters must depend upon the local authorities to prevent disorderly persons from committing breaches of the peace in their post offices. There is no statute of the United States punishing such offense, and the local law applicable to such offenses in any public place must be enforced by the local authorities. When such protection is refused the Department can only close the post office.

252. When matter addressed to a postmaster reaches its destination insufficiently prepaid, the postmaster has the same right as any other citizen to refuse to pay the necessary additional charge for postage, and may decline to take the package out of the post office, which must then be treated as "refused" matter.

253. Packages of matter mailed at less than the letter rate of postage cannot lawfully be forwarded from the office of mailing, except upon full payment of postage.

254. Neither internal revenue stamps, nor stamps cut from stamped envelopes, newspaper-wrappers or from postal cards, can be received in payment of postage. Matter bearing such stamps should be treated as "held for postage."

255. The attention of postmasters and officers of the postal service charged with the receipts or disbursements of public moneys, or with the sale of postage stamps, is called to the Act of Congress approved June 30th, 1876, which reads as follows, to wit: "That all United States officers charged with the receipts or disbursements of public moneys, and all officers of national banks, shall stamp or write in plain letters the word 'counterfeit,' 'altered,' or 'worthless,' upon all fraudulent notes issued in the form of, and intended to circulate as, money, which shall be presented at their places of business; and if such officers shall wrongfully stamp any genuine note of the United States, or of the national banks, they shall, upon presentation, redeem such notes at the face value thereof." It has come to the knowledge of the Department that persons duly authorized to sell United States postage stamps, return to those tendering them, notes positively determined to be "counterfeit," "altered," or "worthless," without first complying with the above requirements of the law. No possible loss can accrue to the person thus stamping notes, for should a genuine note by mistake, be branded contrary to its character, the same would be redeemed at its actual face value at any sub-treasury of the United States.

256. No post office inspector, postmaster, or any other person connected with the postal service, except those employed for that purpose in the Dead Letter Office, has authority to break the seal of any letter passing through the mails without legal warrant therefor.

257. Postmasters should understand that in the appointment of assistants, clerks or other employés in their offices, they must use the printed blank form of oath furnished by the Department. Written forms will not be accepted. If they have no printed forms on hand, they should apply for them at the office of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, Bond Division.

258. The amount of mail found in sacks and pouches turned in as empty at the Mail Bag Storehouse and the Mail Bag Repair Shop, Washington, D. C., clearly indicates great carelessness on the part of postmasters and postal clerks in emptying these sacks and pouches, and that the provisions of Section 506, P. L. & R., are not being strictly complied with. Pouches and sacks should in every case be carefully examined after being emptied, to see that there is no mail left therein. In returning empty sacks and pouches the labels should, in all cases, bear the postmark of the post office, or R. P. O. line from whence the same are dispatched.

259. No law of the United States exempts postmasters from jury duty, from obedience to the subpœnas of courts, nor from liability to pay highway taxes in labor, nor any other duty prescribed by the laws of the State or municipality in which they reside, not in conflict with the postal or other laws of the United States. Should a postmaster and his assistant be both summoned at the same time for road or jury duty, or for attendance at court, the postmaster should have a temporary assistant sworn to take charge of the office during their absence.

260. Time of Closing the Mails.—All letters brought to any post office half an hour before the time for the departure of the mail shall be forwarded therein; but at offices where, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, more time for making up the mail is required, he may prescribe accordingly, not exceeding one hour. (R. S., § 3840.)

261. Mails at first-class post offices are to be closed not more than one hour, and at all other offices not more than half an hour before the schedule time of departure of trains, unless such departure is between the hours of 9 P.M. and 5 A.M., when they can be closed at 9 P.M. This ruling does not apply to the post office at New York City, and any office may be exempted therefrom by special order. At fourth-class offices the mails should not be closed until it becomes necessary, allowing a reasonable time for delivery at the train or to the carrier on star routes. (P. L. & R., § 464.)

262. Opening and Closing at Intermediate Offices on Star Routes.—Seven minutes are allowed for opening and closing the mails at all intermediate offices on star routes, where no time is specified. Should this time be too short at any post office, the postmaster should apply to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General for an enlargement. On railroad and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is necessary to receive and deliver the mails. (P. L. & R., § 465.)

Mail Messengers and Mail Contractors.

263. Mail messengers are not authorized to cancel stamps on mail matter, nor can a railway postal clerk accept for mailing any matter offered by mail messengers outside the mail bag, if the stamps thereon have been canceled.

264. The Department provides mail messenger service at intermediate post offices on railroad routes, when said offices are located more than eighty rods from the railroad station, and also at points within eighty rods where the railroad company does not employ an agent.

265. No increase of pay will be allowed mail messengers for additional service. If the messenger wishes to relinquish the service, he may do so at any time by giving the Second Assistant Postmaster-General thirty days' notice, thereupon the route will be re-advertised.

266. The Post Office Department cannot authorize mail carriers to carry firearms. Such permission can only be obtained from the local authorities.

267. Mail contractors, mail carriers and their agents, who have contracts, or are interested in transporting the mails will not be accepted as sureties on the bonds of the postmasters at post offices located on any mail route on which any mails are transported under any such contracts.

268. A postmaster should not become surety upon the bond of a mail contractor. It is held by the Post Office Department that a postmaster upon the official bond of a contractor would become a party concerned in the contract, and therefore cannot be permitted to act as bondsman.

269. No postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk employed in any post office, can lawfully become a mail contractor or be concerned in any contract for carrying the mail. The wife of a mail contractor cannot serve as postmaster.

270. A postmaster may erect a box at a railroad station for the reception of mail matter, but he cannot claim credit for stamps canceled upon such matter unless stamps are canceled in the post office.

271. When letters are deposited at a post office for mailing after the mail pouch has been locked and sent to the train, the postmaster may cancel the stamps thereon and hand the letters to the postal clerks on the cars; but, if they are taken to the cars by any person other than himself, or his sworn assistant, the stamps thereon must not be canceled by the postmaster.

Boxes and Box Rents.

272. Under existing law, all boxes erected in post offices by box-holders shall become the property of the United States, and rent must be collected thereon at rates to be fixed by the Department, and such rates can only be changed by the Department.

273. The Post Office Department regulates the rent of boxes in post offices.

274. An individual member of a firm is entitled to have the mail of his family placed in the post office box rented by the firm. If the box will not accommodate all the mail the firm must rent another.

275. Postmasters must deliver mail to persons calling for the same in their order, whether they be box-holders or not.

276. A postmaster has no right to use the boxes or the general delivery of his office for the distribution of bills or circulars relating to his own private business without prepayment of postage thereon.

277. It is provided by law that no box at any post office shall be assigned to the use of any person until the rent thereon has been paid for one quarter in advance.

278. Postmasters are prohibited from disclosing to the public the names of persons owning or renting boxes in their offices.

279. A postmaster on taking charge of an office is not compelled to buy the boxes and outfit belonging to his predecessor, but he is expected to provide himself with the necessary boxes and fixtures without delay.

280. Where a change of postmasters occurs during a quarter the box rents collected by each postmaster must be accounted for in their respective quarterly returns, and when their accounts are audited each postmaster will receive proper credit for the pro rata amount due them.

281. Records of Box-Holders and Receipts.—Each postmaster must keep in his office, for examination of Inspectors, and deliver to his successor, a list of box-holders, with the number of the box assigned to each, the time during which he has used it, and for which rent is prepaid. The record of receipts which he is required to keep (see §§ 191, 192 and 193, P. L. & R., 1893), must show the amount of moneys received for box rents, the number of the box, the period, and renter, as to each payment, respectively. If no such record be turned over to him the incoming postmaster will require claimants of boxes to produce receipts or other satisfactory evidence of prepayment of rent, and allow the use of the boxes for the residue of the prepaid term. (§ 448, P. L. & R.)

Compensation of Postmasters.

For Classification and Compensation of Postmasters, see Sections 407 to 414 Postal Laws and Regulations, Ed. 1893.

282. The salaries of some postmasters are fixed by law, and cannot be increased by any increase of business, while the compensation of the majority of the postmasters is regulated by the amount of cancellations of the stamps on matter mailed at their offices, or by the amount of stamps sold. The public have the right to choose the post office in which they shall deposit their mail-matter, but the postmaster is forbidden to solicit the mailing of matter at his office rather than at another. It is the determination of the Department to see that mail matter, which ought to be posted at an office where it would not increase the salary of the postmaster, is not mailed at an office where it would increase the postmaster's compensation. To that end the Department will always endeavor to secure a postmaster whose friends will not sacrifice the public interest for the postmaster's private gain, and whose compensation will be regulated by the business that properly belongs to his office. Violations of this rule will be regarded as cause for removal.

283. The salaries of Presidential postmasters, or postmasters at offices of the first, second and third-classes are adjusted on the basis of the gross receipts accruing at the respective offices for the four quarters ending March 31st of each year, to take effect at the beginning of the next fiscal year, to-wit, July 1st ensuing.

284. There is no provision in law by which special adjustments of the salaries of postmasters can be made.

285. There is no provision in law by which allowances can be made for furniture (safe included), fixtures, boxes or miscellaneous articles, nor for advertising, at offices of the third and fourth-classes.

286. The Act of Congress, approved March 2d, 1889, making provision for allowances for rent, fuel and light, for third-class post offices, limits the annual rent to $400, and the total for fuel and light to $60.

Key Deposit.

287. Postmasters who provide their own boxes may require a key deposit at their discretion. If key deposit is collected, the regulations must be complied with (§ 449, P. L. & R.) A proper record must be kept, and a semi-annual statement furnished the First Assistant Postmaster-General (upon form 1090, K. D.), June 30th and December 31st of each year, and a final statement upon discontinuing key deposit or on retiring from the office.

288. Postmasters are custodians of the "Key Deposit Fund," and they will be held to a strict accountability therefor.

THE POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

289. Information as to the Money Order System.—Offices in full face type in the Alphabetical List at the beginning of this number of the GUIDE are MONEY-ORDER Offices. Those with an asterisk (*) prefixed are International as well as Domestic Money-Order Offices. Those with the sign ⅌ prefixed are authorized to issue Postal-Notes only.

290. The following instructions are intended to secure payment of the order to the rightful party, and postmasters are required to enforce them rigidly in every respect, so far as a due regard to public convenience will permit. The public are strictly cautioned:

To take all means to prevent the loss of a money-order.

To be careful on taking out a money-order to state correctly the given name as well as the surname of the person in whose favor it is to be drawn. (See P. L. & R., ⅌ 1251.)

To see that the name and address of the person taking out the money-order are correctly made known to the person in whose favor it is drawn.

Neglect of these instructions will risk the loss of the money, besides leading to delay and trouble in obtaining payment.

291. No application for compensation for alleged injury from delay in the payment of money-orders can be entertained by the Department; but persons aggrieved by delays of this kind, whether occasioned by non-receipt of advices of orders, by mistakes resulting from carelessness in the filling out of orders or advices, or by alleged lack of funds at the office drawn upon, should make the same known to the Department by addressing the Superintendent of the Money-Order System, Washington D. C.

292. The fees or charges for Domestic Money-Orders are as follows:

For orders not exceeding $5	5 cents.
For orders exceeding $5 and not exceeding $10	8 cents
For orders exceeding $10 and not exceeding $15	10 cents.
For orders exceeding $15 and not exceeding $30	15 cents.
For orders exceeding $30 and not exceeding $40	20 cents.
For orders exceeding $40 and not exceeding $50	25 cents.
For orders exceeding $50 and not exceeding $60	30 cents.
For orders exceeding $60 and not exceeding $70	35 cents.
For orders exceeding $70 and not exceeding $80	40 cents.
For orders exceeding $80 and not exceeding $100	45 cents.

293. The maximum amount of a single order is $100, and no more than three Domestic orders may be issued in one day to the same remitter, in favor of the same payee, payable at the same post office. (See P. L. & R., ⅌⅌ 1248 and 1249.)

294. A person applying for a money-order will be required to write the particulars upon a form of application which will be furnished him therefor by the postmaster.

295. Parties procuring money-orders should examine them to see that they are properly filled up and stamped. This caution is necessary to avoid difficulties in the way of payment

296. The person who presents a money-order for payment must be identified if unknown to the postmaster, unless identification has been expressly waived by the remitter of the order on his application therefor. (See P. L. & R., ⅌⅌ 1270 and 1253.)

297. More than one endorsement on a money-order is prohibited by law; and a second or any subsequent endorsee, to obtain payment, must forward the order, through the Post Office at which it was issued or the one on which it is drawn, to the Department, with an application for a duplicate to be issued in lieu thereof, and must furnish proof of the genuineness of the endorsements.

298. A money-order may be repaid at the office of issue within one year, provided it bears not more than one indorsement. The fee will not be refunded. (See P. L. & R., ⅌⅌ 1310-11.)

299. When a money-order has been lost by either remitter, payee, or indorsee, a duplicate thereof will be issued by the Department free of charge, to the owner of the original, upon his making application (stating the circumstances of the loss), to be forwarded by the issuing or the paying postmaster, each of whom will be required to furnish a certificate that the original order had not been, and would not be, paid or repaid, as the case may be.

300. A duplicate order can be drawn only on the issuing or the paying office of the original order, and becomes invalid if it bears more than one indorsement, or be not presented for payment within one year from its date. (See P. L. & R., ⅌ 1294.)

301. The issue of money-orders on credit is prohibited under severe penalties. Checks, drafts or promissory notes are in no case to be received by postmasters for money-orders. (See P. L. & R., § 1245.)

302. A money-order may be paid upon a written order, or power of attorney, from the payee, as well as upon his indorsement. The written order or power of attorney must be filed with the paying postmaster. (See P. L. & R., § 1273.)

303. A money-order which has not been paid within one year from the date of its issue should be forwarded to the Department with an application for duplicate, to be furnished by the issuing or paying postmaster. (See P. L. & R., § 1288.)

POSTAL-NOTES.

304. The uniform fee for a postal-note is three cents. (See P. L. & R., § 1312.)

305. A postal-note, if issued at a money-order office, may be repaid at the office of issue within three months from the last day of the month of issue; if issued at a postal-note office it can only be paid at some money-order office. (See P. L. & R., § 1321.)

DUPLICATE POSTAL-NOTES.

306. If a postal-note be lost or destroyed, no duplicate thereof can be issued. This regulation cannot be departed from in any case whatever, for the reason that every postal-note is payable to bearer, and that no specified person can therefore satisfactorily establish the fact of his ownership in a lost note, which if found at any time, would be payable to the bearer. (See P. L. & R., § 1325.)

307. If a postal-note be not paid within three months from the last day of the month of issue it will become invalid and not payable, and the holder, to obtain the amount thereof, less an additional fee of three cents (which must be charged by law), must deliver the note to the postmaster at some money-order office, and sign an application for a duplicate, payable to him by such postmaster, to be issued by the Superintendent of the Money-Order System, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. (See P. L. & R., § 1326.)

INTERNATIONAL MONEY-ORDERS.

308. There are now in operation postal conventions for the exchange of money orders between the United States and the following countries, viz.: Switzerland, Great Britain and Ireland, Germany, France, Italy, Canada, Newfoundland, Jamaica, New South Wales, Victoria, New Zealand, Queensland, the Cape Colony, the Windward Islands (embracing the islands of Barbados, Grenada, St. Vincent, and St. Lucia), the Leeward Islands (consisting of the Presidencies of Antigua, St. Christopher—Nevis, Dominica, Montserrat, and the Virgin Islands), Belgium, Portugal, Tasmania, the Hawaiian Kingdom, Sweden, Japan, Norway, Denmark, the Netherlands, the Bahama Islands, the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago, Austria, Hungary, British Guiana, the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, Bermuda, South Australia and Salvador.

309. Upon receiving an International Money-Order, properly filled out from the issuing postmaster, the remitter must send it, at his own cost, to the payee, if the latter reside in:

Canada,	Jamaica,
Great Britain and Ireland,	Windward Islands,
France and Algeria,	Leeward Islands,
New Zealand,	Newfoundland,
New South Wales,	The Bahama Islands,
Victoria,	The Colony of Trinidad and Tobago,
Tasmania,	British Guiana,
Queensland,	Bermuda,
Cape Colony,	South Australia.
Hawaii,

310. But the order should be retained by the remitter if the intended beneficiary live in any of the following named countries:

Germany,	Denmark,
Switzerland,	Netherlands,
Italy,	Japan,
Belgium,	Austria,
Portugal,	Hungary,
Sweden,	Luxemburg,
Norway,	Salvador.

In which case it is of no value except as evidence of the deposit by him of the sum therein mentioned, and he should be advised that another and different form of order will be forwarded to the payee by the exchange office in the country of payment. (See P. L. & R., § 1353.)

311. The following is a list of countries and places with which an exchange of money-orders is maintained by the United States through the intermediary of the Post Office Departments of other countries.

312. In the indirect exchange referred to above the order should invariably be retained by the remitter as a receipt, except in the case of orders payable at Alexandria, Egypt, if drawn as French.

Beyroot, Turkey in Asia, if drawn as French.
Constantinople, Turkey in Europe, if drawn as British or French.

And orders drawn for payment in

when the order should be forwarded by the remitter to the payee.

313. A small deduction from the value of each order is made by the Post Office Department acting as intermediary, in the case of orders forwarded through Germany, Great Britain, or Switzerland. (See P. L. & R., §§ 1349 and 1350.) No deduction is made, however, in the case of orders payable in Heligoland, the German post offices in Africa, and the British Postal Agencies at Constantinople and Panama.

314. The following are the monetary values of the standard coins of the above mentioned countries, respectively, as fixed by authority of the conventions between the United States and each of those countries for the exchange of money-orders, viz.: One pound sterling, the money of Great Britain, Jamaica, New South Wales, Victoria, New Zealand, Tasmania, South Australia, Queensland, the Cape Colony, the Windward Islands, the Leeward Islands the Bahama Islands, and the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago (£1), is equal in value to $4.87 in gold; one German mark is equal to 24¼ cents gold; one French, Swiss, or Belgian franc, or one Italian lira, is equal to 19¾ cents gold; one Portuguese milreis is equal to $1.08 gold; three crowns seventy öre, Swedish, Danish, or Norwegian money, are equal to $1 gold, or one crown is equal to about 27 cents; and one florin Netherlands money is equivalent to 41 cents gold. There is no fixed valuation of Japanese or of Salvador money for money-order purposes. The amounts are converted into their proper equivalents by the Japanese or Salvador Department respectively on the day of the issue of the orders in Japan or in Salvador on the day of the arrival of the exchange lists from the United States. The money of Canada, as well as the money of the Hawaiian Kingdom, is similar to that of the United States in denomination and value. (See P. L. & R., § 1353.) The money of Newfoundland is denominated dollars and cents, and the Newfoundland dollar is equal to $1.01 in United States money.

315. When International Money-Orders are sent to an International Money-Order Office, with directions to forward the money for the same, the payee residing at a place where there is no money-order office, the postmaster at such International Money-Order Office should inclose the amount in a penalty envelope (duly registered), to the person entitled to receive the same without charging the usual registry fee. (See P. L. & R., § 1373.)

316. The maximum amount for which money-orders may be drawn in the United States is as follows: For orders payable in:

AMENDMENTS

TO THE POSTAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS, EDITION OF 1893.

Section 330 is amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

Section 485, is amended as follows: After paragraph 6 add new paragraph:

7. Exception.—Held-for-postage and misdirected printed matter (nixies) of no obvious value except that of foreign origin, need not be sent to the Dead Letter Office, but may be disposed of as waste paper, as directed in Section 555 respecting unclaimed printed matter of like character upon which postage due stamps have not been affixed.

Before placing this matter with the waste paper, all postage stamps thereon must be canceled, and each piece carefully examined; and, if any is found to contain other matter of a higher class inclosed, it must be sent to the Dead Letter Office. (Order 195, Sept. 25, 1893.)

Section 480 last line of paragraph 7 should read, "sent to Dead Letter Office, in the manner directed by Sec ion 566."

SPECIAL NOTICES TO POSTMASTERS.

NAMES OF STREETS.

During the past few years the corporate limits of many of our large cities have been extended so as to embrace towns having independent post offices, mainly of the third and fourth-classses.

In most instances these independent post offices have been discontinued, and stations of the central office established, through which delivery is made by the carriers. In consequence, it has happened that two or more streets of the same name would thus be located in one city, causing delay in delivery of mail, by reason of the difficulty of determining on which of these streets the persons addressed resided.

The names chosen for these stations have a local significance, and if made a part of the address, mail can be more readily delivered.

Firms and individuals in cities where these conditions prevail, should request correspondents to place upon all mail the name of the station through which delivery is made, in addition to street and number, and the name of the city post office.

The following will, perhaps, illustrate more clearly the purpose of this suggestion, namely:

John Jones & Co.,
142 Fifty-third Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

In the meantime, it is suggested to postmasters that action by proper local authorities towards changing names of streets, where duplicates occur, will be greatly to the benefit of the patrons of the post office.

RETURN TO SENDER OF SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.

The attention of postmasters is directed to (§ 553, p. 234, P. L. & R.), which provides that:

"When the sender of matter which would be subject to return postage shall, by indorsement upon the wrapper, or otherwise, request its return, postmasters should comply with such request within the time fixed by the sender. If no time is fixed, then at the end of thirty days, first charging such matter, however, with the necessary return postage, and indorse same Return Postage Due....Cents, and the postmaster at the office to which such matter is returned must affix thereto postage-due stamps sufficient to cover the return postage, and collect the same from the sender before delivering such return matter.

The lack of uniformity in observing the provisions of this section is justly complained of by the public, who, having observed the conditions prescribed in said regulation, have a right to expect that their request will be complied with. Postmasters are therefore directed to return all matter bearing such request, in accordance with the terms thereof. If the envelope does not bear a request for the return of the matter it should not be returned but should be disposed of in the same manner as similar matter not bearing the address of the sender upon the cover.

COLLECTION OF POSTAGE REMAINING DUE UPON INSUFFICIENTLY PREPAID MATTER ADDRESSED TO COUNTRIES OF THE POSTAL UNION, RETURNED UNDELIVERED TO WRITER.

The Universal Postal Convention, concluded at Vienna, July 4th, 1891, and now in operation, provides that "unpaid letters and postal-cards, and insufficiently prepaid articles of every kind, when returned to country of origin, owing to their being reforwarded, or because they have become undelivered, are liable, at the expense of the addressees or senders, to the same rates as similar articles addressed directly from the country of first destination to the country of origin."

In compliance with this provision of the Convention, the unpaid postage on all matter posted in the United States, and addressed to countries of the Postal Union (except Canada and Mexico), will be collected whenever the same is returned to the United States, either as reforwarded matter or as undeliverable, in each case the amount to be collected being double the amount of postage wanting to fully prepay the articles when mailed.

When undelivered letters of this class are returned to the senders from the Dead Letter Office, those which bear the card of the sender, will be returned in an official envelope to the postmaster at the office of delivery, and the amount to be collected will be found marked upon the original envelope.

Letters which do not bear the card of the sender, and are opened in the Dead Letter Office, will be returned in a penalty envelope direct to the sender, with the amount of postage to be collected marked upon the official envelope.

Postmasters will collect the proper amount of postage by means of postage-due stamps, as now provided by the postal regulations—that is, at free delivery offices the stamps will be affixed immediately upon the receipt of the matter, and at all other post offices the postage-due stamp will be affixed and canceled, when the letters are delivered to the owners. (§ 515 P. L. & R.)

Postmasters should, as far as they may be able, give publicity to this requirement of the Convention, in order that patrons of the mail may be informed of the advisability of fully prepaying matter addressed to Postal Union countries.

SUMMER RESORT POST OFFICES.

The Department every spring goes through the form of establishing many "Summer Resort" post offices that are kept open only during the summer months, and then discontinued at the close of the season, necessitating considerable work in the Department that it seems may be obviated.

Hereafter it is proposed that at the small post offices, known as "Summer Resorts," instead of discontinuing the same in the fall they shall be continued as offices, although no mail may be received or sent. The post office property may be retained by the postmaster, or turned over for safe keeping to the nearest post office, and at the close of each quarter the postmaster should report "no business done," instead of making out the customary quarterly reports to the various bureaus of the Department.

At the close of each season the postmaster should notify the Second Assistant Postmaster-General that the office is to be closed for the winter at a certain date, that necessary changes may be made in the mail service; also notify the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General of the fact, and at the same time give the post office address of the postmaster for the winter, to be filed in this office.

TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS OF DEPREDATIONS.

The attention of all postmasters is invited to Sections 668, 669 and 1134 of the Postal Laws and Regulations of 1893. It is desired that the Chief Post Office Inspector, as well as the Inspector in Charge of the Division, be notified at once by telegraph of all robberies or burnings of post offices, robberies of the mail, loss, cutting or rifling of mail pouches, and in fact all important and serious depredations upon the mails.

These reports should be made to the various Divisions as follows: In cases occurring in the State of New York, to the Post Office Inspector in charge at New York City; in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, to Inspector in charge at Philadelphia, Pa.; in Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, to Inspector in charge at Boston, Mass.; in Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina, to Inspector in charge at Washington, D. C.; in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, to Inspector in charge at Cincinnati, Ohio; in Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, to Inspector in charge at Chicago, Ill.; in Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Nebraska and Indian Territory, including Oklahoma, to Inspector in charge at St. Louis, Mo.; in Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, to Inspector in charge at Chattanooga, Tenn.; in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona, to Inspector in charge at Denver, Colorado; in California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Alaska, to Inspector in charge at San Francisco, Cal.; in Idaho, Montana, North and South Dakota, to Inspector in charge at Helena, Mont.; in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, to Inspector in charge at New Orleans, La.

ORDERS OF THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Robbery of Post Offices.

Post Office Department,
Washington, D. C., April 13th, 1893.

In consequence of the frequent robbery of post offices, I desire to enjoin upon postmasters (particularly those whose offices are not provided with burglar-proof safe) the necessity for greater care in the guarding of postal and money-order funds, postage stamp stock, and other Government property.

In a number of instances recently brought to the attention of the Department by post office inspectors, it was developed that postmasters had carelessly left Government funds, postage stamps, etc., in an unlocked cash drawer over night, or with some neighboring storekeeper where the facilities for their protection were much inferior to those offered by the post office itself. Obviously in such cases the Department cannot allow credit for reimbursement. (See Section No 225. P. L. & R. of 1893.)

If postmasters would cultivate and maintain closer relations with the local police authorities, it would seem that many of the post office robberies could be prevented. Localities contiguous to cities and the larger towns appear to be periodically visited by burglars, and, while a large number have been apprehended and imprisoned, it has had no deterrent effect, many reports of post office burglaries reaching the Department daily.

"GREEN GOODS" OR COUNTERFEIT MONEY CIRCULARS.

Post Office Department, May 15th, 1893.

Large quantities of circulars commonly known as the "Green Goods Circulars," and usually containing propositions to sell counterfeit money, are sent through the mails in violation of postal laws. These are mainly addressed to persons whose names are obtained from city directories, or from lists made out by private individuals and sold for a consideration. The circulars are almost uniformly under seal, and are often deposited at offices remote from the places to which replies are directed to be sent. Recently a large trunk filled with such matter was sent by express from the city of New York to one of the large towns in Ohio, and there delivered to the person addressed, who hired an expressman to cart it to a dark alley where it was opened, and the circulars then deposited in the post office for mailing. By accident the envelope of one of them was torn so that the contents were exposed, and thus the postmaster became satisfied that all of the envelopes, which were uniform in size and addressed to various places in the same handwriting, related to this unlawful business, and he so reported to the Post Office Department. The postmaster was instructed to prepare a rubber stamp containing the following superscription and impress it upon each letter:

Official Notice.

The person receiving this letter is warned against swindlers, who pretend to deal in Counterfeit Money. If this letter relates to that subject, hand it to Postmaster, who will forward it to P. O. Dev't., Div. of Correspondence, Washington, D. C.

This developed the fact that most of the addressees were not only willing to surrender the circulars in accordance with the request, but were indignant that they should have been thus addressed. A very large number of them were returned to the Post Office Department.

The success of the experiment has been so great as to suggest the propriety of instructing postmasters who discover that large quantities of sealed matter in the form of letters, etc., evidently containing circulars of the character referred to, have been deposited in their offices, to make requisition on the Department for a rubber device in the above form for stamping them, and forward to destination without further delay, or promptly notify the "Division of Correspondence, P. O. Department," of the discovery of such matter, the probable number of pieces, etc., and ask for instructions.

Postmasters are especially cautioned to not break the seal of any envelope containing the suspected matter, and to be careful about putting the superscription upon any letter or package without abundant reason to believe that it contains unlawful matter of the kind referred to.

W. S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

SPECIMENS OF CHOLERA GERMS UNMAILABLE.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, June 1st, 1893.

My attention has been recently called to an article published in one of the medical journals of this country, in which the author—an eminent physician—offers to make analytical examinations of specimens of the intestinal discharges of persons supposed to be affected with cholera, and suggests that if these specimens be bottled and tightly sealed, they may be sent to him by mail.

As this article has probably obtained a wide publicity, and may therefore induce many physicians to attempt compliance with the writer's suggestion, I think it proper to announce that disease germs, discharges of any kind from diseased persons, or other things of like character, no matter how securely put up, are of the nature of poisons, and extremely dangerous to health, and that they are therefore absolutely unmailable.

Postmasters should see that no such things are allowed entry into the mails.

W. S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

POSTMARKING AND CANCELLATION.

CIRCULAR TO POSTMASTERS AND POSTAL CLERKS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, May 15th, 1893.

From cases that have recently come to my notice, and others that have been reported in the usual course of business to one of the bureaus of this Department, there is reason to believe that at many post offices much of the work of postmarking mail matter and cancelling the postage stamps thereon is hastily and insufficiently done. In most of these cases the postmarks are illegible, while the cancellation is so slight as to render the stamp liable to be reused, with the result of depriving the Government of some of its lawful revenue.

To correct this evil as far as is practicable, the special attention of every postmaster and postal clerk in the service is hereby called to Sections 472 to 476 of the Postal Regulations, prescribing the manner of postmarking and cancelling, as well as the character of the ink to be used for that purpose, and he is directed to see to it that, so far as his own field of duty, or that of any of his subordinates, extends, these provisions shall hereafter be rigidly carried out. In a word, the Department will expect thoroughness in the work, and energetic effort must be made by all postal officials to have this expectation realized.

W. S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

FAILURE TO RATE UP AND COLLECT POSTAGE ON SHORT-PAID MATTER.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, June 26th, 1893.

The Department for some time past has been receiving reports which indicate that at many post offices throughout the country there is more or less neglect by postal employés to rate up mail matter not fully prepaid. For example, from one of these reports, it appears that in a single week, at the post office at Wheeling, W. Va., there arrived from about fifty other post offices nearly 150 double, treble and even quadruple rate letters, not one of which had been rated up at the time of mailing; and these cases comprehended some of the largest post offices, where careful attention to such things is expected.

It needs but a moment's reflection to see that neglect of this kind at a mailing office, followed as it no doubt is, in a majority of instances, by a failure of the receiving office to observe and correct the irregularity, must bring about in the aggregate a large loss of postal revenue. I therefore direct that all postmasters and their subordinates give this matter their most careful consideration, and that they endeavor in every way to bring about a thorough reform. Their attention is particularly called to Sections 479, 480, 510 and 513, of the Postal Regulations, giving directions as to the treatment of short-paid matter at both mailing and receiving post offices.

W. S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

REWARDS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, October 6th, 1893.

Ordered, That during the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1894, the Post Office Department will pay the following rewards, viz.:

1st. The sum of one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person, in any United States Court, of robbing the mails being conveyed in any mail car attached to a railway train, and in violation of the provisions set forth in the concluding clause of Section 5472, Revised Statutes, the entire section of which reads as follows:--

"Any person who shall rob any carrier, agent, or other person, entrusted with the mail, of such mail, or any part thereof, shall be punishable by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than five years, and not more than ten years; and if convicted a second time for a like offense, or if, in effecting such robbery the first time, the robber shall wound the person having custody of the mail, or put his life in jeopardy by the use of dangerous weapons, such offender shall be punishable by imprisonment at hard labor for the term of his natural life."

2d. The sum of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person, in any United States Court, of robbing the mails being conveyed over any post route, other than a railway, and in violation of the provision set forth in the concluding clause of Section 5472, Revised Statutes, above quoted.

3d. The sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person, in any United States Court, of attempting to rob the mails being conveyed over any post route, or in violation of the provisions of Section 5473, Revised Statutes, which provides as follows:

"Any person who shall attempt to rob the mail by assaulting the person having custody thereof, shooting at him or his horse, or threatening him with dangerous weapons, and shall not effect such robbery, shall be punishable by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than two years and not more than ten years."

The person filing claim for the said reward of two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be required to furnish satisfactory proof that the object of the attack was the robbing of the mails.

These rewards will be paid to the person or persons causing such arrests and convictions, upon presentation of satisfactory documentary proof to the Department.

All previous offers of reward, in conflict with this, are hereby rescinded.

HANDLING OF CIRCULAR MATTER IN THE MAILS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, October 9th, 1893.

Complaints are frequently made by business men and others that circular matter does not receive proper attention at the hands of postmasters and other postal employés. While it is not expected by those who use this class of matter (circulars) for advertising and other purposes, that it shall receive in all cases the same treatment accorded first-class matter—it being understood that very frequently it is necessary to give preference to first-class matter in distribution—but it is expected by those who forward this class of matter, and by the Department, that every employé shall use his best endeavors to secure the prompt dispatch and sure delivery of each and every piece of mail matter of whatever class. It must not be treated as "only a circular," and thrown aside on that account. Postage has been paid upon it according to the rates fixed by law, and it is entitled, so far as the Department can secure it, to the same certainty of delivery to the party addressed as any other class of mail matter.

WILSON S. BISSELL, Postmaster General.

RATES OF PAY FOR COMMUNICATIONS BY TELEGRAPH.

Order No. 123.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Postmaster-General by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to aid in the construction of telegraph lines, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes," approved July 24th, 1866, and by the Revised Statutes of the United States, Title LXV, I hereby fix the rates at which such communications as the said Statutes prescribe (not including those passing over circuits established by the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Department of Agriculture), shall be sent during the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1893, and terminating June 30th, 1894, by the several companies within the effect of said statutes, as follows:

For day messages containing not more than twenty (20) words, exclusive of place from and date, twenty (20) cents, not exceeding one thousand (1,000) miles, and one (1) cent for each additional word. One quarter of this rate to be added for each five hundred (500) miles, or fraction thereof, but no rate on a message of twenty (20) words to be more than forty (40) cents, nor on an additional word more than two (2) cents. The rate between all points in any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, shall be twenty (20) cents for twenty (20) words, and one (1) cent for each additional word.

In cases where the price of a message, determined as herein provided, shall include a fraction of a cent, such fraction, if less than one-half, is to be disregarded; if one-half or more, it is to be counted as one cent.

For night messages not exceeding twenty (20) words, exclusive of place from and date, fifteen (15) cents for any distance within two thousand (2,000) miles, and for greater distances twenty-five (25) cents; in each case one (1) cent for each additional word.

Instead of computing the actual distances of transmission, the distance for payment shall in all cases be taken absolutely to be the number of miles between the capital of the State or Territory, or from the city of Washington, if from within the District of Columbia, from within which (whatever the place) the message is sent, and the capital of the State or Territory, or the city of Washington, if within the District of Columbia, within which (whatever the place) the message is received, as shown in the accompanying table, wherein such distances are given as computed upon the shortest practicable route between such capitals, and which is to be taken as part of this order.

But it is provided, that if on the 1st day of July, 1893, or at any time during the ensuing year, any such company shall charge the public for a message of ten (10) words or less, exclusive of the date, address and signature, a less rate than is herein fixed for twenty (20) words, exclusive of place from and date, the rates here prescribed shall, as to such company, thenceforth during the year be reduced to the rates so charged to the public.

The statutes provide that telegrams between the several Departments of the Government and their officers and agents, in their transmission over the lines of any such company, shall have priority over all other business. All officers of the United States sending such telegrams should endorse thereon the words "Official Business," and should report to the Postmaster-General any failure to transmit them in such priority, and any charge made in excess of the rates above prescribed.

Each company will be allowed to charge for messages received from another line at the same rate as if received from the Government direct, at the point of transfer for transmission over its own line.

INSTRUCTIONS TO POSTMASTERS AT FREE DELIVERY POST OFFICES.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, June 23d, 1893.

In order to more clearly comply with the increasing exactions of the Free Delivery Service, postmasters at Free Delivery Offices are instructed to see that carefully prepared TIME CARDS, showing the "hours of collection," are kept on all the letter-receiving boxes and package-boxes in their respective cities.

Whenever additional time cards are needed, postmasters will at once make requisition for them to this office (Free Delivery Division), stating the number needed and the hours when the collections are to be made.

This, and all other circular letters and official correspondence, should be preserved on the files of your office for future reference.

THE FURNISHING OF LISTS OF NAMES AND ADDRESSES BY POSTMASTERS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, July 26th, 1893.

It has come to the knowledge of this Department, that postmasters still continue to make public the names and addresses of the patrons of their offices in direct violation of Section 462, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.

Postmasters must understand that this prohibition also extends to their wives and other members of their families, and they will see that such information is not supplied by any one of them. Any violation of this rule will subject the offending postmaster to discipline.

NOTICE TO POSTMASTERS AND OTHER EMPLOYÉS OF THE POSTAL SERVICE.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, July 28th, 1893.

It is observed that many of the letters received at the Dead Letter Office appear to have had the postage stamps which had been affixed thereto forcibly removed while in the custody of the postal service.

Postmasters and all other employés of the postal service are hereby reminded that the wilful and unlawful removal from any mail matter of any postage stamps, affixed thereto in payment of the postage, by any person employed in any branch of the postal service, is a grave misdemeanor, and punishable by fine or imprisonment. Special attention is therefore called to Section 1449, page 491 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, edition of 1893.

FRANK H. JONES, Acting Postmaster-General.

SENDING UNCLAIMED LETTERS TO THE DEAD-LETTER OFFICE. NOTICE TO POSTMASTERS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, July 21st, 1893.

It has come to the knowledge of this Office that many postmasters do not promptly send unclaimed matter to the Dead-Letter Office at the time prescribed by the postal regulations. In some instances letters have been held one and even two years after their receipt, notwithstanding the regulations require all unclaimed matter to be sent to the Dead-Letter Office at the expiration of one month at fourth-class post offices, and two weeks at all other offices, after the date of advertising the same; the only exception being in the case of matter especially held for delivery, and in these cases ninety days is the utmost limit, except where special permission is given by the Department.

This failure to promptly comply with the regulations in relation to the disposition of unclaimed matter causes delay in returning the same to the writers from the Dead-Letter Office, and besides the annoyance, frequent loss results from such delay.

The attention of all postmasters is, therefore, called to this subject, and they are hereby admonished that they must strictly comply with the provisions of Sections 545, 546, 562, and 563 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, edition of 1893. Failure to do so will be considered by the Department as evidence of bad administration.

FRANK H. JONES, First Assistant Postmaster-General.

UNCLAIMED AND UNMAILABLE MATTER SENT TO THE DEAD-LETTER OFFICE.—NOTICE TO POSTMASTERS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, Sept. 25th, 1893.

Much extra labor and delay in the treatment of unclaimed and unmailable matter sent to the Dead-Letter Office for final disposition, is caused by the failure of postmasters to comply with the regulations governing the treatment of mail matter in post offices.

It is expected that postmasters will familiarize themselves with all parts of Chapter XVIII of the Postal Regulations, so as to secure proper treatment of mail-matter in their offices, and when it becomes necessary to send any undelivered (unclaimed) or unmailable matter to the Dead-Letter Office, they are hereby instructed that they must strictly comply with Sections 564 and 566, which direct how much matter shall be made up and transmitted to the Dead-Letter Office.

The special instructions found on the back of the dead-letter bill, form 1523, and on the unmailable bill, form 1522½, must also be carefully observed.

Duplicate copies of all bills and lists of matter sent to the Dead-Letter Office should be retained by the postmaster for future reference, in case inquiry is made for the matter.

If postmasters are not supplied with proper blanks, they will be furnished with them upon application to the Superintendent of Division of Post Office Supplies, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

FRANK H. JONES, First Assistant Postmaster-General.

NOTICE RELATIVE TO SUB-CONTRACTS FOR MAIL SERVICE.

The following notice, relative to sub-letting service, has been promulgated in circular form, and is published for the information of persons interested:

"POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON, D. C., September 15th, 1893.

"All contractors for carrying the mails on star and steamboat routes are hereby notified that the provision of the Act of Congress approved May 17th, 1878, requiring contractors to file their sub-contracts in the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, will hereafter be strictly enforced.

"All such contractors who have executed sub-contracts which have not been filed in this office are directed to file the same at once.

"Notice is hereby given that no certification for payment will be made for service performed on any star or steamboat route after January 1st, 1894, until there shall have been filed in the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General—

"1st. The sub-contract under which the mails are carried; or,

"2d. A certificate from the original contractor that he has not executed a sub-contract, but has provided the stock and equipment (or steamboat) with which the service is performed; or,

"3d. A certificate from the mail carrier that he is not working under any written agreement which is intended to be filed in the Department for recognition or as a lien against the pay of the contractor.

"Attention is invited to the laws and regulations relating to sub-contracts for mail service attached hereto."

The Laws and Regulations bearing upon the matter above referred to are embraced in Sections 781, 790, 791, 792, 793 and 794, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893, a copy of which may be found in every post office.

All sub-contractors for carrying the mails on star routes should see that their sub-contracts are filed in the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, if they wish to receive their pay direct from the Department each quarter.

A sub-contract cannot be recognized by the Department unless it is executed with the original contractor, for the entire route, for a period of at least one year, and upon the blank form (No. 2075) prescribed by the Department.

Postmasters should see that sub-contractors have this information.

J. LOWRIE BELL, Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

INSTRUCTIONS TO POSTMASTERS.

Postmasters should give prompt attention to communications from this Bureau, and promptly and clearly reply to inquiries sent to them in reference to matters pertaining to the transportation of the mails; their failure to do so frequently results in delay in determining important questions in the Department and consequent injury to the public service. Attention is called to the fact that postmasters are the agents of the Department, and that, as such, this office must rely, to a great extent, on them for information in regard to all matters in connection with the performance of mail service, and prompt and intelligible replies to all communications sent them requiring answers are expected.

No change of location of a post office whereby the distance on any mail route is increased, should be made without first having obtained the unconditional authority of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General for the change of site of offices of the fourth-class, and of the First Assistant Postmaster-General for offices of other classes. If such change be made the Department cannot allow additional pay to a mail carrier for the increased distance, nor can it require him to visit the office at the unauthorized site. It is very important, therefore, that postmasters obtain the requisite authority for the change before removing their offices, in order that their supply may not be cut off and their patrons be deprived of the means of communication to which they are entitled.

Postmasters should advise the Department whenever a change of schedule becomes necessary on a star route, by reason of a change of the running time of trains on any railroad with which such star route connects, in order that proper action may be taken to have mails received and dispatched in such manner as will render the most expeditious service to the persons dependent upon the route for their mail supply; but changes of schedule entirely in the interests of the contractor or carrier should not be recommended.

Particular attention is called to the regulation prohibiting postmasters, their assistants, and clerks from being directly or indirectly interested in any mail contract or receiving pay for carrying mails. By this regulation the members of the immediate family of a postmaster or assistant postmaster are debarred from becoming mail contractors or sub-contractors, or receiving pay for carrying mails.

Employment of Temporary Mail Carriers.

Postmasters should not employ any person to act in place of the regular mail carrier without first being authorized by the Second Assistant Postmaster-General to employ such temporary carrier, unless such employment is clearly justified by that section of the Postal Laws and Regulations of 1893, which relates to temporary service under the class of service which it is proposed to replace. (Railroad Service, § 735; Mail Messenger Service, § 741; Star and Steamboat Service, § 772, and § 828.)

In case of employment under either of said sections, the postmaster should immediately forward to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General a report of the circumstances under which the service was employed, and the rate agreed upon by the postmaster and the temporary carrier.

In the employment of temporary service postmasters should secure suitable carriers at the lowest obtainable rates.

Postmasters must not expect the Department to authorize the payment of temporary carriers who are not employed in strict accordance with the Postal Laws and Regulations.

Railroad Mail Service.

Mail Messenger Service.

In the case of a failure of Mail Messenger Service, after such service has been authorized by the Department, the postmaster at the office dependent upon such service for its mail supply, may employ a temporary carrier, but the rate of pay must not exceed that of the regularly authorized mail messenger.

In all cases where Mail Messenger Service has not been authorized by the Department, or where the postmaster cannot secure the service of a temporary carrier at the rate of pay of the regularly authorized mail messenger, the postmaster must obtain authority from the Second Assistant Postmaster-General before he employs a temporary carrier. (See § 741, page 301.)

When the site of a post office has been changed, thereby making the distance over eighty rods, Mail Messenger Service must not be employed until authority to employ such service has been secured from the Department. This authority cannot be given before the change of site is authorized by the Department.

A commission issued to a new postmaster does not of itself give authority to change the site of the post office. He must first secure unconditional authority in accordance with part of Section 391, page 170.

If the postmaster moves the office without such authority, he will be expected to provide for the exchange of the mails without expense to the Department, until the change of site shall have been duly authorized by the Department, and the postmaster shall have been instructed by the Second Assistant Postmaster-General to employ Mail Messenger Service.

Star Service.

In case of absolute failure of the regular carrier to perform service, temporary Star Service should be employed under the provisions of Section 772. In such cases it is the duty of the postmaster at the head of the route to act, and he should at once report all the facts to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

In cases not clearly covered by the provisions of the section referred to, special instructions from the Department for the employment of a temporary carrier must be obtained before action is taken.

J. LOWRIE BELL, Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

INSTRUCTIONS TO POSTMASTERS RELATIVE TO USE OF ROUTE NUMBERS; DISTANCE TRAVELED BY MAIL CARRIERS, AND USE OF BLANK FORM 2201, ETC.

Postmasters frequently make the mistake of using the numbers given in the general advertisements of service which is to commence the first of July following, or the new numbers, as they are sometimes called, in their communications to the Department, relative to service under the existing or old contract.

This is a serious error and leads to an endless amount of labor and confusion in the Department. Postmasters at terminal offices are directed to be especially careful not to use the numbers given in the advertisement dated September 15th, 1893, when referring to the service under the contract which expires June 30th, 1894.

This error is more frequently committed by postmasters in the matter of making out their monthly registers of arrivals and departures of the mail at their respective offices, by giving the new number instead of the number for the current term.

All communications to the Department relating to matters pertaining to mail routes should embrace the numbers and terminal offices of the route to which reference is made.

By a strict observance of the foregoing instructions, much needless labor, delay and confusion will be obviated both to the Department and postmasters.

Postmasters who are required to report arrivals and departure of the mails, are particularly cautioned to observe the following requirements of the Department:

1. To keep on file in their respective offices duplicates of all registers sent to the Department. It not infrequently happens that the original is lost in transit, or for some other reason the duplicate is required.

2. To forward promptly on the first day after the close of each month, the register for that month. These registers are the evidence upon which contractors are paid for the performance of the service, and they should receive their pay promptly, as many of them are poor men and dependent upon their mail pay for subsistence.

3. To enter in the caption or heading of the register the time fixed by the official schedule for the arrival and departure of the mail furnished by the Department, and in the body of the register, in the column for that purpose, to enter in plain figures the actual time of arrival and departure on each date. The exact time must be given and ditto marks must not be used.

4. To state on the face of the register the actual time of departure and arrival of the carrier, and when, from any cause, a mail carrier is prevented from making the entire trip, postmasters should state on the back of the Monthly Register (Form 2201) the distance traveled from and to the office, naming the point, whether river, creek or post office, to which the carrier traveled, together with the cause of failure to complete the trip. This information will enable the Inspection Division to give full credit for the exact distance over which service has been performed by the carrier.

5. To refuse to deliver the mail to the carrier in advance of the schedule hour for his departure. The carrier is subject to a fine for departing in advance of, as well as arriving after, the schedule time. Much complaint is made by mail patrons who have gone to a post office a few minutes before the schedule time for closing the mails and have found that the same have already been dispatched.

6. To promptly report to this office whenever any contractor, sub-contractor or carrier, or any member of their immediate families, is a postmaster, assistant postmaster, or in any way connected with any post office.

A failure to strictly observe the above requirements will be regarded as sufficient ground for a recommendation for removal from office for neglect of duty.

Blank form 2201 (Register of Arrivals and Departures of Mails) should never be used for reporting service to post offices not regularly established on a mail route, and known as "Special Supply Offices."

In forwarding Registers of Arrivals and Departures of Mails, postmasters should be careful to address the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Inspection, Washington, D. C.

J. LOWRIE BELL, Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO MAIL-BAGS, LOCKS, KEYS, CATCHERS, CORD FASTENERS AND LABEL CASES.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THEM, AND HOW TO DISPOSE OF THE SURPLUS AND SUCH AS ARE DEFECTIVE, ETC.

To WHOM TO APPLY.—All requisitions for pouches, sacks, locks, keys, label-cases, and mail-catchers, must be made upon the "Second Assistant Postmaster-General (Mail Equipment Division), Washington, D. C.," except in cases of great emergency, and then pouches, sacks, and locks may be obtained from the nearest mail-bag depository.

MAIL BAGS.

1. For instructions relative to receiving pouches without locks or with defective locks on them, see paragraphs Nos. 12 and 13 under the heading "Mail Locks."

2. All surplus mail bags in good condition at post offices not located on railway postal lines should be promptly forwarded to the "Mail Bag Storehouse, Washington, D. C.," and the Superintendent advised of the number of every size of bags so forwarded.

3. All defective mail-bags and mail-catchers, at any post office must be forwarded to the "Mail Bag Repair Shop, Washington, D. C.," and the Superintendent advised of the number of each.

4. Postmasters are prohibited from using mail bags as receptacles for waste paper, etc., and must empty all mail bags containing public documents and return the bags at once. (See Sections 839 and 841, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893; also Section 5475 of the Revised Statutes, where this matter is covered by statute law with penalty.)

5. Postmasters should take great care to make personal investigations in their offices at least once in every two weeks to see that no mail bags, etc., are illegally used for the personal convenience of employés in violation of Section 1438, page 488, P. L. and R., 1893.

6. It is alike the duty of the postmaster, or his deputy, and the carrier, to see that mail pouches are securely locked before they leave the office. Too much care cannot be exercised in this particular.

7. Postmasters, especially those at the head of a route, must see that each route is always duly provided with suitable mail bags and locks in good and safe condition. It is their duty to look constantly to the condition of the mail bags in use, permitting none to be used which are too much worn or otherwise unsafe, and to report any damage discovered to have been done to them, whether through accident, negligence, or design, while in the custody of carriers.

8. Each requisition must state the kind and size of mail bag needed; on what route it is to be used and why it is needed. If more than one mail bag at a time is needed, postmasters must clearly explain why more than one is required. Their failure to do so will be considered evidence that they desire to replace serviceable mail bags, or that they delayed making requisition in the first place, and have kept unsafe bags in use; either of which state of affairs will justify an investigation by this office.

REPAIRING MAIL BAGS.

9. Section 848, P. L. and R., 1893, is not intended to give postmasters the right to send a bag to a harness-maker to have it sewed or riveted, but merely to have a new staple made in case one has been cut because of a defective lock. All other repairs are done in the repair shop at Washington, D. C.

MAIL LOCKS.

10. The new lock to be used on pouches, and which is now being put into use, will always be known as the "EAGLE" Lock.

11. Section 861, P. L. and R., 1893, is to be interpreted as follows:

When a pouch is received without a lock and the postmaster has no mail lock to put on the pouch, he will lock the pouch with any safe padlock he may have, and send the key in a sealed envelope by the mail carrier to the next postmaster, who will, if he has no mail lock, use the same padlock on the pouch, and forward the key to the next postmaster in a sealed envelope, and so on. The first postmaster who may have a mail lock will put it on the pouch and immediately return the padlock and key to its owner.

If a postmaster has no padlock, he will purchase an inexpensive lock, which he will send, immediately after its use, together with the key and his explanation, to the Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General. The bill for such lock and key is to be presented like other accounts in his quarterly statement to the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department.

12. Postmasters are not allowed to cut the shackle of a lock, or to deface it or the strap of a mail bag, but may cut the staple of a bag when the lock cannot be opened with key.

13. When sending in surplus locks, postmasters will first send all the iron mail locks that can be spared, and then, if a further surplus remain, the "EAGLE" locks should be sent in.

14. All defective iron mail locks, "EAGLE" locks, brass locks, and through registry locks, as well as cord fasteners and label-cases, good and defective, at any post office, must be forwarded as soon as received to the "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General (Mail Equipment Division), Washington, D. C."

15. All surplus iron mail locks, "EAGLE" locks, brass locks, through registry locks, new or old, in post offices not located on railway mail routes should be forwarded to the "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General (Mail Equipment Division), Washington, D C."

16. Postmasters are not allowed to use a mail bag lock, new or old, for any other purpose than to lock mail bags, not even to lock a mail box inside or outside of the office.

17. The Department does not furnish locks for boxes other than street letter-boxes used by authority from the Department.

MAIL KEYS

(See first paragraph of the foregoing instructions as to where to apply for keys)

18. The key to the pouch locks now being put into use, will always be known as the "EAGLE" lock key

19. Delays in forwarding keys to take the place of those that have been broken, are caused by postmasters frequently failing to state which kind, "EAGLE" lock key or "IRON MAIL" lock key is needed

20. The number stamped on the key should be stated plainly.

21. As both the "EAGLE" lock and key and the "Iron Mail" lock and key will be used together for a year or more, the keys to both locks should be kept attached to one chain, so that delays may not be made in opening locks.

☞ Postmasters will not return the Iron Mail key until it is asked for by this office.

22. If the key fails to unlock several locks, the defect is in the key, and not in the lock, and application should be made to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General (Mail Equipment Division), Washington, D. C., for a new key, stating which key is needed, Eagle or Iron Mail, and giving number stamped upon the key, and upon receipt of a new key the old one should be returned at once in a registered letter.

23. Postmasters who are ordered to obtain the property of discontinued post offices, and to send the mail keys to the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Mail Equipment Division, in a registered letter, should always accompany the transmission of the keys with a letter giving the name of the office discontinued, county and State, and the number stamped on the mail keys, which are inclosed. The Department does not send receipts for keys so received, the registry cards, when properly used, being sufficient for the purpose.

24. All mail keys returned to the Department, of whatever kind, should be addressed to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Mail Equipment Division.

25. The fact that United States mail keys, both for the general mail lock and street letter box lock, are sometimes sent to the Department without the bit parts in the one case and the nibs in the other, makes it necessary to remind postmasters and clerks in the Railway Mail Service that keys which are returned broken to be replaced by new ones should always be accompanied with the broken pieces or parts connected therewith or belonging to such key, and if any of the parts are in the lock it should come in the same package with the key. The nib or bit portions of keys are the most valuable and important parts, and in order to prevent them from falling into improper hands, care should be taken to forward them with the keys when returned to the Department by registered mail.

SURPLUS SERVICEABLE BAGS AND LOCKS ON RAILWAY LINES WHERE FORWARDED, ETC

26. Surplus mail equipments are those not actually needed in forwarding the regular mails of an office.

27. Surplus mail bags and locks, in good condition, in post offices located on railway postal lines must be promptly forwarded (properly labeled) as follows:

Post Offices in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island will forward to Postmaster at Boston, Mass.

Post Offices in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, to the Postmaster at Atlanta, Ga.

Post Offices in Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Utah and Wyoming, to the Postmaster at Chicago, Ill.

Post Offices in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana, to the Postmaster at St. Paul, Minn.

Post Offices in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Texas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Colorado, to the Postmaster at St. Louis, Mo.

Post Offices in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Arizona and Alaska, to the Postmaster at San Francisco, Cal.

Post Offices in the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, will forward their surplus serviceable mail bags to the "Mail Bag Storehouse, Washington, D. C.," and their surplus locks, both good and defective, to the Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, Mail Equipment Division, Washington, D. C.

J. LOWRIE BELL, Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, June 26th, 1893.

Many postmasters order large quantities of the smallest size penalty envelopes (No. 1, A), giving as a reason therefor that they are needed in the delivery of registered matter for sending registry notices to addressees.

Registry notices sent from post office buildings to hotels, places of business, and residences, should invariably be covered by small penalty envelopes properly addressed; but registry notices placed in letter boxes, and in general delivery cases, should not be so covered, as such practice is unnecessary, besides causing more labor and wasting the envelopes.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, September 7th, 1893.

The attention of postmasters is called to the following opinions by the Assistant Attorney-General for the Post Office Department, in relation to the admission to the mails, at the pound rate of postage, of periodical publications issued and circulated in the interest of fraternal insurance organizations.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

HON. A. D. HAZEN, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

SIR:—I return herewith all the papers, including a copy of the publication entitled The Equitable League, published monthly by a company composed of the officers of the Supreme Court of the order of the Equitable League of America, submitted with your letter of the 25th ultimo.

Your inquiry is whether this publication is entitled to admission into the mails as second-class matter. It is admitted that the subscriptions are not collected direct from those whose names appear on the subscription lists, but are levied as assessments on the membership. In the issue of September 1st, 1891, which you furnish for my inspection, it is announced in an editorial that "The Supreme Court adopted this paper as a means of sending the assessments to the membership direct from the Supreme Office, and at the same time to provide a means of furnishing information directly to each member of the order, independent of the local court officers."

It therefore seems to be treated by the organization as a circular used in the enforcement and collection of assessments, and for the notification to the members of the amounts or conditions of the assessments. One of the essentials of a legitimate periodical is a bona fide list of subscribers, representing persons who voluntarily and willingly subscribe, including those who accept the publication as the gift of others. Collecting the subscription in the nature of an assessment is a compulsory collection, and cannot be considered as constituting "a legitimate list of subscribers" within the meaning of the law.

The pound rate should be denied to The Equitable League.

Very respectfully,

JAS. N. TYNER, Assistant Attorney-General.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 16th, 1893.

The Postmaster-General.

SIR:—The opinion rendered by Judge Tyner on the 15th day of October, 1891, in which I fully concur, covers the question presented by you verbally to me on the 15th instant, in regard to the mailability of the Good Fellow as second-class matter.

It appearing that the Good Fellow's subscription list consists of 500 or 600 outside of lodge subscriptions, and about 10,000 subscriptions paid for by the lodge without cost to the members beyond regular dues, it has not a "legitimate list of subscribers" within the meaning of Section 277, Postal Laws and Regulations. If, as Judge Tyner held in the opinion referred to, the collection of subscriptions in the nature of an assessment from members of a fraternal society does not constitute a "legitimate list of subscribers," a fotiori, it does not constitute such a list when it is made by the lodge without any assessment whatever for that purpose, and payment for which is made out of funds arising from the regular dues.

I will add that if it appears to you that this paper was not originated, and is not published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, or arts, or some special industry, then it cannot be admitted to the mails as second-class matter, though it have a legitimate list of subscribers. I presume it will not be contended that this paper is devoted to literature, the sciences, or arts, or to a special industry, and if it comes within the purview of the statute at all, it must be because it was originated and is published for the dissemination of information of a public character. Information of a public character, as here used, I take it, means information that would be of interest to the public generally. Information for the members of a secret society would not, in my opinion, be information of a public character within the meaning of the law. And even though a paper may contain some information of a public character, yet if it was not originated and is not published for the purpose of disseminating such information, but for another purpose, then it is not admissible to the mails as second-class matter.

To be more explicit: If the paper was originated and is published for the purpose of disseminating information of a public character, and the information it contains, which is intended exclusively for the members of the Royal Society of Good Fellows, is thrown in as an incident only, and it has a legitimate list of subscribers, then it is mailable as second-class matter; but, on the other hand, if it was originated and is published primarily for the purpose of giving information to the members of such society, and the poetic and literary gems contained in it are thrown in, as side-lights only, then it is not mailable as second-class matter, though it have a legitimate list of subscribers.

I herewith hand you a copy of the opinion of Judge Tyner, referred to above.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. THOMAS, Assistant Attorney-General.

RESTRICTIONS AS TO MATTER UPON BILLS, RECEIPTS AND ORDERS FOR SUBSCRIPTION.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, October 3d, 1893.

Postmasters are directed to inform publishers that the law (act of January 20th, 1888), prescribes that bills, receipts and orders for subscriptions, in order to be mailable with second-class publications at the pound rate of postage, must be "in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer, and the subscription due thereon."

The expression "subscription price" will in every case hereafter be construed by the Department as the regular stated price of the publication, without reference to any premium that may be offered.

Forms of subscription blanks heretofore sanctioned by the Department conveying information other than as above indicated, may be used by publishers until January 1st, 1894. After that date a strict compliance with the terms of this circular will be required.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

NOTICE.—NON-DELIVERY OF SPECIAL-DELIVERY MATTER.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, November 20th, 1893.

A standing rule of the Department now requires that in every case where an attempt by messenger to make immediate delivery of special-delivery matter fails because of there being no person at the place of address authorized to receive it, and the matter is therefore brought back to the post office, the postmaster shall cause a form of notice to be got to the addressee, if such notice be at all likely to facilitate delivery, informing him that special effort has been made, without success, to get the matter into his hands, and that, consequently, it can be specially had only upon application to the postmaster for it—such notice to be given by leaving the form at the addressee's residence or place of business, or by depositing it in his post office box, if he has one, or by any other practicable means. A blank form of notice suitable for this purpose has been adopted by the Department, supplies of which can at any time hereafter be had from the First Assistant Postmaster-General. (See transcript of form below, No. 3955.)

Postmasters will be expected to use their best judgment in assisting to carry out the intention of the Department in this matter, and they must, therefore, among other things, require their special-delivery messengers to carry with them on their several trips a sufficient supply of the blanks above indicated, and to be thoroughly instructed as to when and how to use them.

It is, of course, to be understood that in every case the postmaster will see that all reasonable efforts to make delivery of special-delivery matter by messenger shall be resorted to before the matter is decided to be specially undeliverable; also, that if no application for the matter shall result from the giving of the notice, delivery shall be effected, as soon as possible thereafter, in the manner of ordinary mail, through the carrier force, through post office box, or through the general delivery, as may be appropriate.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

Call at the post office, bringing this notice with you, for a special-delivery letter, which could not be delivered for the following reason: .....

Date.....
No. of letter.....

If not called for at the post office before the next delivery by carrier, the letter will be delivered by him as addressed—at.....

(This notice may be left at the addressee's residence or place of business, or be put into his post office box, if he has one, or be got to him in any other practicable or appropriate way.)

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, November 20th, 1893.

Attention has been called to a practice prevailing among postal clerks, post office clerks and letter-carriers of signing for a number of registered pieces opposite the center of a brace drawn in the signature column of postal clerks registry books, post office transit books, or post office delivery books.

This style of signature affords opportunities for fraud, and hereafter when a number of entries are made consecutively on any book of the registry system for delivery to one person, signature must be made on the last line of the several entries for the one dispatch or the one delivery, and immediately above the signature the signer should invariably write in words (not figures) the total number of registered pieces for which signature is given.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

GENERAL REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MAILS.

FOR PARCELS-POST REGULATIONS

See Pages 940-943

1. Correspondence from the United States for foreign countries and places, other than Canada, Mexico, and the other countries of the Universal Postal Union, if forwarded in direct mails by vessels regularly employed in carrying the mails, and not through the intermediary of a country having postal relations with the United States by treaty or other arrangement, is subject to the rates of postage given in the Foreign Postage Table herein, opposite "Navigator's or Samoan Islands." Ordinary (unregistered) letters, newspapers, pamphlets, periodicals, books and other printed matter, may be sent, in these cases, under the regulations and conditions applicable to the same correspondence in the domestic mails. Full prepayment of postage is compulsory for all correspondence sent, and the rates chargeable on matter sent are collectible upon delivery of matter received. (See § 344, p. 146 P. L. and R., 1893.)

2. Articles for or from foreign countries (except Canada and Mexico) are not designated "First-class matter," "Second-class matter," etc.; but are classified as "Letters," "Post-cards," "Newspapers and other printed matter," "Commercial or business papers," and "Samples of merchandise."

3. For the correspondence exchangeable with the countries excepted above, see the Foreign Postage Table herein, and Notes therein referred to and following said Table.

4. The limit of weight for a single rate of postage on letters for Canada and Mexico is one ounce. On letters for other foreign countries the limit of weight for a single rate remains at a half-ounce, as heretofore.

5. Letters conveyed in vessels not regularly employed in carrying the mails (commonly called "ship letters") are subject to double rates of domestic postage (4 cents per ounce) on delivery.

6. Postage can be prepaid upon articles, only by means of postage stamps of the country in which the articles are mailed. Hence, articles mailed in one country addressed to another country, which bear postage stamps of the country to which they are addressed, or of any country other than the one in which they are mailed, are treated as if they had no postage stamps attached to them. Articles mailed at the U. S. Postal Agency at Shanghai, China, are treated as if mailed in the United States; consequently, postage must be prepaid by means of U. S. postage stamps.

7. Mail matter enclosed in penalty envelopes, and therefore entitled to pass free of postage in domestic mails, when sent to or received from ports of foreign countries between which and the United States there are no postal treaties or conventions, in mails conveyed by vessels employed by this Government, is exempt from domestic postage charges, and should pass free of postage to addressees. But the "penalty clause" cannot take the place of postage stamps on articles for foreign countries, except as before stated. (See § 376, P. L. and R., 1893.)

8. Official mail matter relating exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States, sent by officers of the executive departments at Washington to private parties in the Dominion of Canada, the Republic of Mexico, or the Hawaiian Kingdom may be enclosed in the departmental penalty envelopes authorized by P. L. and R., § 365.

9. Matter to be sent in the mails at less than letter rates of postage must be so wrapped that it can be easily examined at the office of delivery, as well as at the mailing office, without destroying the wrapper.

10. Newspapers and periodicals sent in the mails to foreign countries other than those of the Postal Union, should be wrapped singly. Those sent by publishers to regular subscribers in Canada and Mexico are transmissible as in domestic mails, except that packages addressed to Mexico must not exceed 4 lbs. 6 ozs. in weight.

11. A newspaper or periodical packet for transmission to the Postal Union, Canada and Mexico excepted, at the rate of one cent per two ounces or fraction, is restricted to a single (outside) address. Periodicals addressed to several different subscribers, must not be enclosed in the same package with postage stamps affixed only to the outside wrapper of the package. But several periodicals or other articles of printed matter, without separate addresses, may be enclosed in the same package.

12. Canada and Mexico are the only foreign countries to which periodicals from publishers for regular subscribers (second-class matter in domestic mails) may be sent at the bulk or pound rate of postage. Periodicals for all other foreign countries, whether "transient" or for regular subscribers, are required to be prepaid with postage stamps at the rate applicable to "printed matter" for those countries.

13. United States postmasters are required to notify publishers in Canada and Mexico (but not in other foreign countries) when subscribers fail to take newspapers or periodicals from the post office. (See § 557, p. 235, P. L. and R., 1893). All packages of printed matter received from foreign countries which, from any cause, prove to be undeliverable, must be sent to the Dead Letter Office. (See §§ 577 and 560, pp. 244 and 236, P. L. and R., 1893).

14. The United States two-cent postal card should be used for card correspondence with foreign countries (except Canada and Mexico, to which countries the one-cent card is transmissible); but where these cards cannot be obtained, it is allowable to use for this purpose the United States one-cent postal card (except the largest ("C") size card, which, on account of its size, can be sent only as a "letter") with a one-cent United States adhesive postage stamp attached thereto.

15. Postal cards of foreign origin which are posted in the United States, addressed to a foreign country, and United States postal cards only partially prepaid (the one-cent single and the two-cent double card) addressed to a foreign country, cannot be forwarded except as letters; but the reply-half of a double foreign postal card is mailable in the United States when addressed to a person in the country which issued the double card.

16. Foreign reprints of English copyright works sent to Great Britain in mails from other countries may be forfeited under the laws of that country at the instance of Her Majesty's subjects who possess such copyright property.

17. If the owner of any copyright granted by the United States, or his authorized representative, should file an authenticated list of publications thus protected by law with any exchange office, requesting the postmaster to prevent the forwarding of any of them in the mail, the postmaster must examine imported publications to see if any of such protected list is included, and if such be the case, should advise the person so interested, and hold the copy or copies for a reasonable time to permit proceedings for confiscation. (See § 291, p. 121, and § 330, p. 135, P. L. and R., 1893.)

18. Packets of samples of merchandise for dispatch in the mails to foreign countries are restricted to bona fide trade samples or specimens having no salable or commercial value in excess of that actually necessary for their use as samples or specimens. Goods sent for sale, in execution of an order, or as gifts, however small the quantity may be, are not admissible at sample rates and conditions. (See Sections "g," "h," "i," "j," of Note 14, on pages 926 and 927.)

Pairs of articles—such as gloves, shoes, socks, etc.—are not transmissible by mail to foreign countries at the postage rates and conditions applicable to "samples of merchandise," but one article of a pair may be so transmitted. Neither are "natural history specimens," exchanged between collectors, transmissible as "samples."

19. Articles not specifically enumerated in Postal Conventions or in the United States Postal Laws and Regulations as transmissible in the mails to foreign countries, or which are not homogeneous with those therein enumerated, are not entitled to be sent at the reduced rates of postage fixed for correspondence other than letters, but may be transmitted at letter rates of postage, fully prepaid, provided they are not absolutely excluded from the mails by the provisions of Postal Conventions, or by the Laws and Regulations. With a few exceptions articles of merchandise of all kinds are transmissible in the regular mails for CANADA, in unsealed packages, at the same rates of postage as would apply to them if the packages were addressed for delivery in the United States. (See §§ 357 and 358, pages 153 and 154, P. L. and R. 1893). Articles of merchandise may also be sent to JAMAICA, BARBADOES, THE BAHAMAS, BRITISH HONDURAS, MEXICO, THE HAWAIIAN KINGDOM, THE LEEWARD ISLANDS, THE REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA, SALVADOR, COSTA RICA, THE DANISH WEST INDIA ISLANDS (ST THOMAS, ST. CROIX and ST. JOHN), BRITISH GUIANA, and THE WINDWARD ISLAND, in unsealed packages, by Parcel-Post. (See pages 940–943 of this GUIDE.)

20. Articles other than letters and postal cards, addressed for delivery in any foreign country embraced in the Universal Postal Union, which contain writing in the nature of personal correspondence, or which do not conform to all the conditions prescribed for such articles to entitle them to transmission in Postal Union mails at reduced rates of postage (see Note 14 on pages 925–927 are not allowed to be dispatched from the United States unless they are fully prepaid at the letter rate of postage,—viz.: 5 cents per ½ oz. or fraction of ½ oz.

21. "Advertising circulars" are liable in Canada to a specific customs duty of one cent each, which duty Canadian customs officials are required to collect when such pamphlets arrive by mail in large quantities, even though each pamphlet bears a different address; and "trade catalogues," and similar publications, are liable in Canada to customs duty at the rate of 6 cents per pound and 20 per cent. ad valorem.

22. Electrotypes and cuts for advertising purposes are not transmissible by mail to any foreign country except Mexico and Canada, and by Parcel Post to Jamaica, Barbadoes, The Bahamas, British Honduras, Mexico, The Hawaiian Kingdom, The Leeward Islands, The Republic of Colombia, Salvador, Costa Rica, The Danish West India Islands (St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John), British Guiana, and The Windward Islands, unless fully prepaid at the rate of postage applicable to letters for that country.

23. Manuscript sermons, and packages of old letters, may be sent by mail to countries of the Postal Union at the rate, and under the conditions, applicable to "commercial papers" in Postal Union mails.

24. Valentines, unframed Christmas and Easter cards, and other cards of a similar character, passing between friends in small quantities as tokens of esteem, are transmissible in mails dispatched to countries of the Universal Postal Union (except Canada and Mexico, to which United States domestic postage rates apply), at the rate and under the condition applicable to "printed matter" in Postal Union Mails; notwithstanding they are composed partly of silk or satin, and are hand-painted and of elaborate design and finish. But such cards regularly framed, whether with wood, metal, or other material usually used for picture frames, are not entitled to transmission as "printed matter," and should not be admitted to Postal Union mails at less than the letter rate of postage fully prepaid; nor should articles intended for use (such as cushions, etc.), which bear an Easter or Christmas greeting, but cannot be considered in any sense "cards," be treated as printed matter in said mails.

25. Packages of canceled or uncanceled postage stamps, or postal cards addressed to or received from foreign countries, are subject to postage at letter rates (except when sent by Parcels-Post to the countries named on page 940); and, when received in the mails from foreign countries, are liable to United States customs duties.

26. Any person employed in any branch of the postal service, who shall wilfully and unlawfully remove from any mail matter any postage stamp affixed thereto in payment of the postage, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

27. When a letter arrives at a post office addressed to one person in the care of another, and the postmaster has received no instruction from the person for whom it is intended, it is said postmaster's duty to deliver it to the first of the two persons named in the address who may call for it.

28. If no legal representative of a deceased person exists, and various persons claim mail-matter addressed to said deceased, the matter should be sent to the Dead Letter Office, with a statement of the facts in the case.

29. No person employed in any Department of the postal service shall, under any circumstances, break the seal of any letter or parcel for the purpose of ascertaining the character of the contents; nor is any such person allowed to refuse to receive for mailing any sealed package upon the suspicion that it contains unmailable matter.

30. The Post Office Department cannot prevent the transmission and delivery of lottery circulars, or other objectionable articles, when enclosed in sealed envelopes, as the law does not authorize the breaking of the seal to ascertain the character of the contents.

31. Under Section 1031, page 371, P. L. and R., 1893, the Post Office Department or its revenues are not liable for losses in the mails; but when any valuable matter is missing, the Department will use its best efforts to assist the owner to recover the same. Relief in such cases must come through an appropriation by Congress.

32. All correspondence with foreign governments or administrations relating to alleged losses of mail matter, of either domestic or foreign origin, is conducted through the office of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, Division of Post Office Inspectors and Mail Depredations.

33. In cases where excessive postage on foreign matter has been rated up at the exchange post office and collected at the office of delivery, and the excessive charge has been refunded by order of the Department, credit for money so refunded will be obtained at the offices of free delivery on the dead letter bill, as directed in Section 517, page 221, P. L. and R., 1893, for "foreign letter forwarded," except that the postage-due bill should be indorsed, "Postage upon foreign letter overcharged, refunded upon order of the Department, No. ——, dated ——, 18—." At other offices credit will be obtained by charging the amount as an expense under item D of the account current. (See § 516, P. L. and R.) The receipt of the person to whom the money is refunded, and the order of the Department directing the payment, should accompany the return, as vouchers.

34. The postmark on mail matter is a very important feature thereof. All mail-matter addressed to foreign countries is required to bear a legible impression of the date-stamp of the mailing post office; and matter received from foreign countries must bear a similar stamp (on the back of letters and on the front of postal cards) of the delivering post office. Postmasters should cause care to be taken not to deface by their own postmark, nor cover with postage-due stamps, any postmark already on an article.

35. The letter "T" stamped upon the wrapper of an article received in the mails from a foreign country indicates that it was considered in that country as not fully prepaid, and that additional postage is to be collected on delivery. An "O" at the side of the postage stamps indicates that the stamps were of no value for prepayment of postage in the country in which the article was mailed. Wholly unpaid letters are liable on delivery to a charge of ten (10) cents per ½ oz. (double the prepaid rate); and insufficiently paid articles of all kinds are liable to a charge of double the amount of the short payment, which charges are indicated in the United States by the stamp, "Due — cents," or, "U. S. charge to collect — cents," impressed thereon at the U. S. exchange post office which received the article from abroad, and is required to be collected by the postmaster who delivers the article, and who should affix thereto postage-due stamps of the value of the amount collected.

36. Mail-matter of all kinds (except articles contained in Parcels-Post mails) received from any country of the Postal Union, including Canada and Mexico, is required to be re-forwarded, at the request of the addressee, from one post office to another, or to any foreign country embraced in the Postal Union, without additional charge for postage. (See Note 17, page 928.)

In the case of unpaid letters, or short-paid matter of any kind, the deficient postage is to be collected by the postmaster by whom the article is delivered.

37. Pursuant to arrangements made between the Post Office Department of the United States and the Post Office Department of Canada, requiring each country to use bags belonging solely to it in dispatching mails, and, reciprocally, the prompt return, empty, of the bags received, all postmasters, agents and employés of this Department are hereby prohibited from using any bags belonging to Canada, and are required to collect and forward, from time to time, all such bags found in the service, to the nearest United States exchange post office, whence they are to be returned, empty, to Canada.

38. It is not customary for this Department to reply to inquiries of a hypothetical nature. Any statement of facts that may be submitted, however, will receive due consideration.

39 The POSTAL GUIDE, issued each month, should be consulted as soon as received for information respecting recent modifications of our Foreign Mail arrangements; and should be carefully preserved for reference.

40. Senders should be cautioned that in order to insure prompt and safe transmission to destination of articles addressed to foreign countries, they should (1) make the address legible and complete, giving the name of the country as well as that of the town or post office. Articles addressed to "London" may be sent either to England or Canada. (2) Avoid using flimsy paper for envelopes, as they are liable to be torn or destroyed in the long transits. (3.) Avoid using sealing-wax on the covers, as letters so sealed often adhere to each other, and the addresses of the articles are destroyed by the tearing of the covers in the attempt to separate the articles. (4) See that postage stamps affixed to the covers of articles of printed matter do not adhere also to the articles themselves, thus virtually sealing the packages, and thereby subjecting them to additional postage, at the letter rate, on delivery.

41. The ascertainment and rating of deficient postage on correspondence for and from foreign countries, and the placing on the correspondence of the proper indications of such deficiencies, is the work of the exchange post offices and not of the mailing or delivering post offices, unless the latter are also exchange post offices.

42. For other regulations and suggestions respecting foreign mails, see appropriate titles in Postal Laws and Regulations, and Notes after Foreign Postage Tables herein.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES.

1. TO ALL FOREIGN COUNTRIES:

a. Liquids, poisons, explosive and inflammable articles, fatty substances, live or dead animals, insects—especially Colorado beetles—reptiles, fruits or vegetable matter liable to decomposition, confectionery, pastes or confections, and substances exhaling a bad odor, excluded from transmission in domestic mails, as being in themselves, either from their form or nature, liable to destroy, deface or otherwise injure the contents of the mail-bags or the persons of those engaged in the postal service, are prohibited from transmission in the mails exchanged with foreign countries as are also obscene, lewd, or lascivious books, pamphlets, etc., and letters and circulars concerning lotteries, so-called gift-concerts, etc., also excluded from the domestic mails. (For exceptions hereto see Notes 2, 3 and 14, pp. 920, 921, 925–927).

b. Certain articles other than those above mentioned, which, from their nature or form, are liable to destroy, deface or injure the contents of the mail-bags or the persons of those engaged in the postal service, may be transmitted in the mails to foreign countries, if bona fide trade samples and exchangeable in the mails with said countries, when enclosed in the form prescribed for such articles in domestic mails. For the conditions applicable to samples of liquids, etc., see Sections "g," "h," "i," and "j" of Note 14, pp. 925–927.

c. All articles prohibited from domestic mails are also excluded from circulation in the mails to or from foreign countries.

d. Postal cards or letters addressed to go around the world.

2. TO ALL COUNTRIES OF THE POSTAL UNION:

a. Letters or packets containing gold or silver substances, jewelry, or precious articles. (For exceptions see Note 20, p. 928.) This does not apply to Canada.

b. Any packet whatever, containing articles liable to customs duty in the countries addressed. (See the first paragraph under "Customs Duties," p. 915.) This does not apply to Canada or Mexico, or to articles forwarded by "Parcels Post."

c. Articles other than letters which are not prepaid, at least partly, or which do not fulfil the conditions required in order to enjoy the reduced rates.

d. Articles other than letters and postal cards addressed for delivery in any foreign country embraced in the Universal Postal Union, which contain writing in the nature of personal correspondence, or which do not conform to all the conditions prescribed for such articles, to entitle them to transmission in Postal Union mails at reduced rates of postage (see Notes 14 and 20) unless they are fully prepaid at the letter rate of postage, viz.: 5 cents per ½ oz. or fraction of ½ oz.

e. Articles of a nature likely to soil or injure the correspondence.

f. Packets of samples of merchandise which have a salable value or which exceed in weight or measure the prescribed limits, are not transmissible at the rates fixed for samples.

g Packets of commercial papers and printed matter of all kinds, the weight of which exceeds 2 kilograms (4 lbs. 6 ozs.); or the size of 18 inches in any direction, except rolls of printed matter. (See Sections "d" and "f" of Note 14, pp. 926.

h. Postal cards not of United States origin; also short-paid United States postal cards and United States postal cards of the largest ("C") size, except as letters; and except also the reply halves of double postal cards received from foreign countries.

i. There is, moreover, reserved to the government of every country of the Union, the right to refuse to convey over its territory or to deliver, as well articles liable to the reduced rate in regard to which the laws, ordinances or decrees which regulate the conditions of their publication or of their circulation in that country have not been complied with, as correspondence of every kind which evidently bears inscriptions forbidden by the legal enactments or regulations in force in the same country.

3. To Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Denmark, the Danish Colonies, Egypt, France, the French Colonies, Germany, Italy, Luxemburg, Norway, the Netherlands, Portugal, the Portuguese Colonies, Roumania, Russia, Servia, Sweden and Switzerland; articles of correspondence marked on the outside with the declared value of contents.

4. To Belgium:

Articles of miscellaneous merchandise not bona fide trade samples.

5. To Canada:

a. Letters not prepaid, one rate,—2 cents. Articles, other than letters in their usual and ordinary form, which are wrapped so that their contents cannot be easily examined.

b. Other exchangeable mail matter not fully prepaid.

c. Police Gazettes; and publications which violate the copyright laws of Canada.

6. To Denmark:

a. Articles resembling postage stamps or postal cards.

b. "The Danish Pioneer."

7. To Great Britain:

a. Packages of tobacco, manufactured or unmanufactured, including cigars, cigarettes and snuff.

b. Any article enclosed in glass, or of a greasy nature.

8. To Greece:

Plants in general (including roots, hay, fresh fruits and vegetables), and fertilizers.

9. To Hungary:

Articles of clothing of all kinds—including hats, underclothes, and pairs of shoes, gloves etc.

10. To Italy:

a. Living plants or any living portion of a vegetable, such as branches, bulbs or roots.

b. Samples of tobacco.

c. Samples of raw or spun silk in excess of 100 grams (3½ ozs.) weight.

d. Correspondence relative to lotteries,

11. To Mexico:

a. Letters not prepaid one rate—2 cents. Articles other than letters in their usual and ordinary form, which are wrapped so that their contents cannot be easily examined.

b. Other exchangeable matter not fully prepaid.

c. Publications which violate the copyright laws of Mexico.

d. Merchandise other than bona fide trade samples, unless sent by "Parcels-Post."

e. Bank notes, drafts payable to bearer, money, jewelry, precious stones; subject to a fine of twenty per cent. of the value of the articles.

f. Liquids, pastes, confections, vegetables, etc., without regard to the manner in which they are wrapped.

12. To Roumania:

Plants, such as trees, shrubs, bulbs, roots, etc.

13. To Russia:—

a. New-papers and other political publications, unless addressed to members of the reigning imperial family, ministers of the Empire, or members of the diplomatic corps, or subscribed for at Russian post offices.

b. Non-political publications, except those subscribed for at Russian post offices, or addressed to the Public Imperial Library, the Academy of Sciences, the higher educational establishments, or established book stores.

c. Books in the Russian language published elsewhere than in Russia.

d. Pasteboard drawing models.

e. Russian paper money, and bonds of the Russian Government.

14. To SWEDEN:—

15. To SPAIN:—

a. Reproduction of the hydrographic maps published by the Spanish Ministry of Marine.

b. Missals, breviaries and other lithurgical books pertaining to the Catholic religion.

c. Works of Spanish authors reproduced abroad in contravention of the law respecting intellectual property.

d. Samples of cloths, textile fabrics, felt, and colored paper which measure more than 16 inches square, and which have not cuts at least 8 inches long across their width.

16. THE UNITED STATES OF COLOMBIA:—

Books and non-periodical publications which, to judge from their number, are not intended for the personal use of the persons to whom they are addressed, but are intended for sale, and consequently are liable to customs duties upon entering the United States of Colombia.

CUSTOMS DUTIES.

The Department has not been advised what articles (other than those so designated in the preceding list of "prohibited articles") are liable to customs duties in foreign countries, and consequently does not exclude articles of merchandise from the mails for foreign countries because they may be liable to customs duties in the countries to which they are addressed.

Customs duties cannot be prepaid by the senders of dutiable articles; they will be collected of addressees if the articles are delivered.

Newspapers and other periodical publications received in the mails from abroad under the provisions of postal treaties or conventions, and packages addressed to foreign Consuls in the United States, which bear the official seal of the Consul's Government, are free from customs duty.

Books and printed matter bearing the address of the chief of a foreign mission in the United States, and imported through the mails, may be delivered without payment of customs duties.

Dutiable books forwarded to the United States from the Postal Union are delivered to addressees at post offices of destination upon payment of the duties levied thereon. (See paragraph 8, Section 580, page 248, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.)

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed collectors of customs that a duty of 25 per cent. ad valorem is imposed on all printed matter not otherwise provided for, without regard to mode of importation; and that all printed matter, except newspapers and periodicals, and except printed matter other than books imported in the mails for personal use, is subject to the regular duty of 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Sample copies of musical publications imported by dealers or agents of foreign publications, are held to be not exempt from United States customs duties.

REGULATION GOVERNING THE TREATMENT OF DUTIABLE ARTICLES RECEIVED IN THE MAILS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

When letters, sealed packages, or packages, the wrappers of which cannot be removed without destroying them, are received in the United States from a foreign country, and the postmaster of the exchange office at which they are received has reason to believe they contain articles liable to customs duties, he shall immediately notify the customs officer of the district in which his office is located, or the customs officer designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of examining the mails arriving from foreign countries, of the receipt of such letters or packages, and their several addresses; and if any letter or package of this character be addressed to a person residing within the delivery of his office, the postmaster shall also, at the time of its arrival, notify the addressee or addressees thereof that such letter or package has been received, and is believed to contain articles liable to customs duties, and that he or they must appear at the post office at a time in said notice to be designated, not exceeding twenty days from the date of said notice, and receive and open said letter or package in the presence of an officer of the customs.

Letters, all registered articles, sealed packages, or packages, the wrappers of which cannot be removed without destroying them, which are supposed to contain articles liable to customs duties, and which are addressed to persons residing outside of the delivery of the United States exchange office where they were first received from abroad, shall be forwarded, without longer detention than twenty-four hours, to their respective destinations marked "supposed liable to customs duties," and upon their receipt at the office of destination the postmasters thereof shall notify the nearest customs officer and the persons addressed, in the manner and to the same effect as hereinbefore provided in the case of similar letters or packages addressed for delivery at the United States exchange office where they were first received.

If a reply is not received from the customs officer within twenty days from the date of said notice, the package may be delivered to the addressee without regard to the stamp "supposed liable to United States customs duties." But if the customs officer should request the postmaster to allow the package to be opened in his presence by the addressee, the postmaster will comply with said request, and immediately report the nature and probable value of the contents to the customs officer (retaining the package in his possession), whereupon the customs officer will inform the postmaster of the amount of the customs charges due upon said package, which amount the postmaster will collect upon the final delivery of the package, and transmit, under official registration, to the customs officer.

Provided, however, that nothing hereinabove contained shall authorize or allow customs officers to seize or take possession of any letter or sealed package while the same is in the custody of a postmaster, nor until after its delivery to the addressee; and provided further, that no letter or sealed package shall be detained at the office of delivery a longer period than may be necessary for the appearance of a customs officer and the addressee, in pursuance of the notices hereinbefore provided to be given; and that packages addressed to foreign Consuls in the United States, which bear the official seal of the Consul's Government, shall be forwarded and delivered without being subjected to inspection by customs officials.

Unsealed packages (except registered articles, which are to be treated as sealed packages) received in the mails from foreign countries, which are found, upon examination by customs officers, to contain articles liable to customs duties, shall be delivered by the postmaster at the exchange office of receipt to the proper officer of the customs for the collection of the charges chargeable thereon, with notice of such delivery to the person addressed. But books received from countries or colonies of the Universal Postal Union, all unsealed packages of merchandise received in mails from Mexico and Canada, and all packages received by "Parcels-Post" from any foreign country, which are found to be dutiable shall, when addressed to a post office other than the exchange office of receipt, be promptly transmitted by mail to the addressees charged with the amounts of customs charges levied thereon, respectively, which amounts postmasters at the offices of destination will collect of the addressees on their delivery, and remit by first mail thereafter, under registration, to the Collector of Customs of the district in which the exchange post office of receipt is situated. In case of the refusal or neglect of addressees of such dutiable books, or packages of merchandise from Mexico and Canada, to apply for them at the post office of destination within a period of thirty days from the date of their receipt at said office, and pay the customs charges and any postage charges levied thereon, the postmaster of said office will specially return the same, under official registration marked to show why they were not delivered, to the Collector of Customs of the aforementioned district; but in the case of packages received by "Parcels-Post" from foreign countries, which appear to be undeliverable, postmasters at post offices of destination shall, at the expiration of thirty days from date of their receipt, report to the "Superintendent of Foreign Mails, Post Office Department," that said packages are undeliverable, giving the reason therefor, and stating the names and addresses of both senders and addressees of the packages, dates and places of mailing, dates of receipt, and what the packages are said to contain—and hold the packages subject to the further orders of the Department. Postmasters are instructed to collect the customs charges on such books and packages forwarded to their offices for delivery to addressees and promptly remit the sum so collected by them to Collectors of Customs in registered letters, using penalty envelopes, and omitting the registration fee as for all official matter under Section 581, Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893; but the postal revenues are not in any manner to be credited or charged with such duties.

All sealed packages, other than letters in their usual and ordinary form, forwarded to the United States in the mails from Mexico and Canada, contrary to the provisions of the Postal Conventions between the two countries, shall be immediately returned from the United States exchange offices of receipt to the Mexican or Canadian exchange offices from which they were dispatched.

Postmasters are expected to extend to customs officers, specially designated for that duty by the Secretary of the Treasury, such facilities as may be necessary to enable them to examine mail matter arriving in the mails from foreign countries, in order to protect the customs revenues.

Postal clerks on railway post offices exchanging mails with Canada are also directed to carefully examine Canadian mails coming into their hands for distribution, and to turn into the nearest exchange post office where there is a custom house officer all books and packages of merchandise found in such mails, known or supposed to be liable to customs duty, in order that appropriate action may be taken by the postmaster in conjunction with the customs officer concerning their disposition.

The General Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service will see that full and explicit instructions are given to all postal clerks on railway post offices exchanging mails with Canada, respecting the examination of the mails from Canada, and the post offices to which all intercepted packages containing dutiable articles are to be turned in.

He will also require the postal clerks to make daily reports to the Superintendents of the Railway Mail Service Divisions, and the Superintendents to make monthly reports to the Department, showing the number and character of all articles subject to customs duty which they may intercept and turn in under the requirements of this order.

Postmasters, Post Office Inspectors, and other postal employés will promptly report to this Department every case coming to their notice where the foregoing instructions are in any wise violated.

The foregoing regulation, having been mutually agreed to by this Department and the Treasury Department, is published for the information of postmasters and other postal officials, who are hereby directed to be guided hereafter by its provisions.

FOREIGN POSTAGE TABLE.

SHOWING THE RATES OF POSTAGE CHARGEABLE IN THE UNITED STATES ON MAIL-MATTER FOR FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

a. For additional information relative to foreign mails, see Notes generally which follow this Table — especially Notes 14, 17, 18, and 20, relative to minimum rates on packets of Commercial Papers (5 cents), and Samples (2 cents), and the limits of weight and size for Samples, Printed Matter and Commercial Papers in Postal Union mails.

b. The absence of rates under headings of this Table indicates that the correspondence designated by said headings is not transmissible.

c. Prepayment of postage upon ordinary letters for places mentioned in this Table, is optional with senders; except those for places marked "c," upon which prepayment is compulsory. Full prepayment is required upon all registered articles; and postage upon all articles other than letters is required to be prepaid at least in part.

d. On articles for places marked "d," additional postage may be collected on delivery; the rates stated in this Table being fixed to cover the postage charges to the port of debarkation only.

e. For the rates and conditions applicable to articles sent by "Parcels-Post" to certain foreign countries, see the heading "Parcels-Post," pages 940–943.

§Shanghai. Articles of every kind and nature which are admitted to the United States domestic mails are admitted to the mails exchanged between the United States and the United States Postal Agency at Shanghai, China; subject, however, to the following rates of postage, which must be prepaid, in all cases, by means of United States postage stamps on all articles, except official correspondence in "penalty" envelopes.

Postal cards, single, 2 cents each; double, 4 cents each;

Second and third-class matter, and samples of merchandise not exceeding 8 ounces in weight, 1 cent for each 2 ounces or fraction of 2 ounces;

Fourth-class matter, 1 cent for each ounce or fraction of an ounce;

Registration fee, 8 cents; no additional charge for return receipt.

Articles other than letters in their usual and ordinary form must not be closed against inspection, but must be so wrapped or inclosed that they may be readily and thoroughly examined by postmasters and customs officers.

Articles addressed for delivery at the following places in China, viz:

Chin Kiang,	Hung Chow,	Kalgan,	Newchwang,	Peking,	Tientsin,	Wuhu,
Chung King,	Ichang,	Kiukiang,	Ningpo,	Shanghai,	Wenchow,	Yentai,

are transmissible in the mails for the U. S. Postal Agency at Shanghai.

* Includes Basutoland, Caffraria and Griqualand.

‡ Also at Postal Union rates (see "Germany," page 922).

NOTES REFERRED TO IN FOREGOING TABLE.

NOTE 1.—The only post offices in the Argentine Republic to which registered correspondence may be sent are those mentioned in Note 1, p. 790, United States POSTAL GUIDE for January, 1887.

NOTE 2.—CANADA.—1. Articles of every kind or nature which are admitted to the domestic mails of either country are admitted at the same postage rates and under the same conditions to the mails exchanged between the two countries; except that plants, seeds, etc., are subject to the postage rate of one cent an ounce; that "Commercial papers" (see Note 14, pp. 925 and 926) are transmissible at the same postage rate and under the same conditions as apply to them in Postal Union Mails: and that articles other than letters in their usual and ordinary form are excluded from the mails unless they are so wrapped or enclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters or customs officers; and except also the following articles, the transmission of which is absolutely prohibited under any circumstances, viz.:

All sealed packages, which, from their form and general appearance, evidently are not letters.

Publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; packets (except single volumes of printed books and packages of second-class matter) which exceed four pounds six ounces in weight; poisons, explosive or inflammable substances, live or dead (not dried) animals, insects and reptiles (except queen-bees and their attendant bees), fruits and vegetables which quickly decompose, and substances which exhale a bad odor; lottery tickets or circulars, Police Gazettes; all obscene or immoral articles, and other articles which may destroy or damage the mails, or injure the persons handling them.

2. All articles are required to be fully prepaid with postage stamps, at the rate of postage applicable to similar articles in the domestic mails of the country of origin, and are required to be delivered free of postage to addressees in the country of destination; except that letters upon which only one rate of postage has been prepaid are required to be forwarded stamped "T" and marked upon the cover with the amount of postage due and short-paid, and the amount so marked as due (and only that amount) is required to be collected as postage on delivery.

United States Postmasters will therefore refuse to receive or forward articles addressed for delivery in Canada which are not fully prepaid with United States postage stamps at the postage rate applicable to the articles in our domestic mails; except letters in their usual and ordinary form prepaid two cents, which must be forwarded to the proper United States exchange post office, where they will be stamped "T" and rated with the deficient postage.

3. Articles other than letters, in their usual and ordinary form, on their arrival at the exchange post office of the country of destination, will be inspected by customs officers of that country, who will levy the proper customs duties upon any articles found to be dutiable under the laws of that country. Dutiable articles received in the United States will be treated in accordance with the regulation upon pages 915–917.

4. Official correspondence which is entitled to pass in the domestic mails of either country free of postage, is likewise entitled to transmission free of postage between the United States and Canada.

5. (a) Any article of mail matter may be registered upon the payment of the domestic registration fee in addition to the ordinary postage thereon.

(b) A "Return-Receipt" will be furnished free of additional charge for any registered article which has endorsed on the cover the words "Return-Receipt demanded," and only for articles so endorsed. The "Return-Receipt" will be attached to the article by the exchange post office which dispatches it.

c. When "Return-Receipts" accompany registered articles which are delivered, the receipts are required to be returned to the office of origin bearing the addressee's signature.

d. If any article entered upon a registered list is not found in the mails, the receiving exchange post office is required to at once notify the dispatching exchange post office of the fact by means of a Bulletin of Verification.

e. Until further notice registered, as well as ordinary, mails will be exchanged in canvas sacks carefully sealed.

6. All registered articles, ordinary letters, postal cards, and other articles manifestly of value to the senders, which are found to be undeliverable, are required to be returned to origin through the Dead Letter Office of the country of destination; except that fully prepaid "request" letters, and fully prepaid letters, which bear on the cover the senders full address (but no request for return) may be returned direct to the dispatching exchange office instead of being sent to the Dead Letter Office; the former at the expiration of the time named in the "request," and the latter at the expiration of thirty days after receipt.

NOTE 3.—MEXICO. All articles of every kind or nature which are admitted to the domestic mails of either country will be admitted under the same conditions to the mails exchanged between the two countries; except that articles of miscellaneous merchandise (fourth-class matter), not sent as bona fide trade samples, are required to be sent by "Parcels-Post," and that commercial papers and bona fide trade samples are transmissible in the regular mails at the postage rate and subject to the conditions applicable to those articles in Postal Union Mails (see Note 14, pp. 925-927); and except also the following articles, the transmission of which is absolutely prohibited under any circumstances, viz.: Sealed packages, which from their form and general appearance evidently are not letters; publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; packets, except single volumes of printed books, which exceed four pounds six ounces in weight; liquids, poisons, explosive or inflammable substances, fatty substances, or those which easily liquefy; live or dead (not dried) animals, insects (except bees) and reptiles; confections, pastes, fruit and vegetables which quickly decompose, and substances which exhale a bad odor; lottery tickets or circulars; all obscene or immoral articles; and other articles which may destroy or damage the mails, or injure persons handling them. Articles other than letters, in their usual and ordinary form, on their arrival at the exchange post office of the country of destination will be inspected by customs officers of that country, who will levy the proper customs duties upon any article found to be dutiable under the laws of that country. Dutiable articles received in the United States under this arrangement will be treated in accordance with the regulation upon pages 915-917. Official correspondence mailed in either country which is entitled to pass in the domestic mails of that country free of postage, is likewise entitled to transmission free of postage to the other country. Any article of mail matter may be registered upon the payment of the domestic registration fee in addition to the ordinary postage thereon; and a "Return-Receipt" will be furnished free of additional charge for any registered article which has indorsed on the cover the words "Return-Receipt demanded," but only for articles so indorsed. The "Return-Receipt" will be attached to the article by the exchange post office which dispatches it. When "Return-Receipts" accompany registered articles which are delivered, the receipts are required to be returned to the office of origin bearing the addressee's signature. All registered articles, ordinary letters, postal cards, and other articles manifestly of value to the senders, which are found to be undeliverable, are required to be returned to origin through the Dead Letter Office of the country of destination; except that fully prepaid "request" letters, and fully prepaid letters which bear on the cover the sender's full address (but no request for return) may be returned direct to the dispatching exchange office instead of being sent to the Dead Letter Office; the former at the expiration of the time named in the "request," and the latter at the expiration of thirty days after receipt. The sender of any article may cause its return, or its address to be changed, provided application therefor be made through the Post Office Department of the country in which the article was mailed, the formalities prescribed by Note 15, p. 927 having first been complied with. See also Section 551, page 233, P. L. and R., 1893.

NOTE 5.—The Egyptian postal service has been extended to the following offices in Soodan: Facher, Fachouda, Fazoglon, Gardaref, Karkough, Mousallemieh, Obeid, and Sennaar. To the following offices in Soodan only ordinary (unregistered) correspondence may be sent: Abou-Hamed and Mantamme (principal agency Barber), Amedib and Gallabat (principal agency Kassala); Chaka and Fodja (principal agency Obeid); Dara, Kobkabie, Kobe and Kolkol (principal agency Facher); Debba (principal agency Dongola); Halfaie, Kana, and Om Dorman (principal agency Khartoum); and Senehit (principal agency Massouah). The names of the principal agencies should be incorporated with the address on correspondence for the above offices.

NOTE 6.—The Bay Islands comprise Ruatan, Bonacca, Utilla, Barbarette, Moxat, and Helene.

NOTE 7.—The Virgin Isles, belonging to Great Britain, comprise Tortola, Anegada, Virgin Gorda, Jost Van Dyke, Guano Isle, Beef and Thatch Islands, Prickly Pear, Camanas, Coopers, Salt, St. Peters, etc.

NOTE 8.—The Grenadines, or Grenadilles, consisting of Bequai, Caricou, Union and several smaller islands, belonging partly to St. Vincent and partly to Grenada, W. I., colonies of Great Britain embraced in the Postal Union, the postage rates and conditions of which therefore apply.

NOTE 9.—Postal Union rates and conditions apply to British Indian offices in various Native States within the limits of Hindostan. To Kashmir, Ladak (Little Thibet), and Cabul (Afghanistan), in Italian mail, the same rates apply, but prepayment is compulsory, and only to the British Indian frontier.

NOTE 10.—Correspondence for the Tunisian and Tripolitan ports of Sousse, Monastir, Mehdie, Sfax, Djerba and Tripoli, sent via France, is assimilated in all respects, since January 1st, 1880, to correspondence for France. That for other portions of Tripolis, sent by the same route, is liable to the same rates of postage, but prepayment is obligatory and valid only to the port of debarkation, and registration is not possible. Correspondence for Goulette, near Tunis, and for Sousse, in Tunis, sent via Italy, is assimilated in all respects to that for Tunis sent by the same route.

NOTE 11.—Correspondence for parts of the Chinese Empire (including Formosa) other than Hong Kong, where foreigners reside, sent via Hong Kong, is assimilated in all respects to that for Hong Kong, except that prepayment is obligatory and registration only effective as far as the Hong Kong Postal Agency nearest the place of destination. To the following named places, to which the foregoing applies, correspondence is advantageously sent via Hong Kong, Amping, Fatshan, Island of Formosa, Keelung, Pagoda Anchorage, Pakhoi, Taiwan-foo, Takao, Tamsui and Whampoa.

NOTE 12.—Correspondence for the cities of Pekin, Tien-Tsin, Kalgan and Ourga, sent in the mails to Russia via Germany, is assimilated in all respects to correspondence addressed to Russia. Such correspondenbe should be marked "Via Russia."

NOTE 13.—Correspondence for Russia should have the name of the place of destination added in either English, French or German; and if for the smaller towns in Russia, they should bear, as a part of their address, the name of the province or government in which the towns are situated. If these conditions are not complied with, the Russian post office declines to undertake delivery of the correspondence. Newspapers and other political publications of foreign origin are not allowed circulation in Russia by mail, except such as are addressed to members of the reigning imperial family, the ministers of the empire, or members of the diplomatic corps. Non-political publications and newspapers are only admitted to circulation by mail when addressed to the Public Imperial Library, the Academy of Sciences, the higher establishments of education, and established bookstores, but any person in Russia may subscribe at the Russian post offices for foreign newspapers and publications, whether political or not. Books in the Russian language, published elsewhere than in Russia, are subject to customs duty there, and hence are excluded from the mails sent to Russia.

NOTE 14.—LETTERS, POSTAL CARDS, PRINTED MATTER of all kinds, COMMERCIAL PAPERS and SAMPLES OF MERCHANDISE are transmissible in Postal Union mails.

a. Postal cards—single or with paid reply—must be forwarded without cover. Short-paid post cards are required to be treated as letters, and postage-due treated accordingly.

Each half of a double post-card is a complete post-card; but, in the event of the reply-half of a double post card issued by any country being sent by mail to an addressee in a country other than that which issued the card, it is required to be treated as an unpaid letter, and postage collected of the addressee accordingly.

The face of a post-card (single or double) is reserved exclusively for postage stamps, post-marks, and the address, which may be made either in writing, printing, or by means of a hand-stamp, or an adhesive label. The sender may also, in the same manner, indicate his name and address either on the face or back of a post-card, and he may also place his name and address on the reply-half of a double post-card. Engravings or advertisements may be printed on the back of post-cards. Post-cards issued by private individuals or corporations (in countries which authorize the issue of such cards) are required to be recognized and treated as post-cards in the country to which they are sent, provided they are received in mails made up in the country in which said cards originated. Each half of a double post-card is subject to a full rate of postage; that is to say, the postage rate for a single international post-card being two cents, the charge for a post-card with paid reply will be four cents.

b. Packets of printed matter, commercial papers, and samples must not contain any letter or manuscript note having the character of an actual and personal correspondence; and must be made up in such manner as to admit of being easily examined. The character of actual and personal correspondence cannot be ascribed to the following, viz.: (1st) To the signature of the sender or to the designation of his name, of his profession, of his rank, of the place of origin, and of the date of dispatch; (2d) to a dedication or mark of respect offered by the author; (3d) to the figures or signs merely intended to mark passages in the text, in order to call attention to them; (4th) to the prices added or altered by hand upon the quotations or prices current of exchange or markets in catalogues, prospectuses, and notices of various kinds; (5th) to annotations or corrections made upon proofs of printing or musical compositions, and relating to the text or to the execution of the work; (6th) to offers of, or orders for, books on which the offers and orders are indicated in handwriting, either by crossing out or underscoring printed text; (7th) to invoices or bills inclosed with printed matter and relating thereto; (8th) the sender's address and title as well as conventional initials added to printed visiting cards; (9th) change of date, the name, business and address of sender and the erasure of any part of the text; (10th) the name of a commercial traveler and the date of his visit inserted in trade circulars, etc.; (11th) dates of sailing inserted in steamship schedules; (12th) the name of the person invited and the date, object and place of meeting inserted in invitations and notices. Any other additions which would deprive a print of its general character and give it that of personal correspondence are prohibited.

It is permitted to inclose in the same packet, samples of merchandise, printed matter, and commercial papers, but subject to the following conditions: (1st) That each article taken singly shall not exceed the limits which are applicable to it as regards weight and size; (2d) that the total weight must not exceed 2 kilograms (4 lb. 6 oz.) per package; (3d) that the minimum charge shall be 5 cents when the packet contains commercial papers, and 2 cents when it consists of printed matter and samples.

c. THE FOLLOWING ARE CONSIDERED AS PRINTED MATTER, viz.: Newspapers and periodical works, books stitched or bound, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing with or without the manuscripts relating thereto, engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, lithographed, or autographed; and in general, all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment or cardboard by means of printing, lithographing and autographing, or any other mechanical process easy to recognize, except the copying-press, and type-writer; also raised drawing models on pasteboard, papers with raised characters, for the use of the blind, and fashion-plates, maps, etc., which have been hand-painted. Reproductions obtained by process of chromography, polygraphy, hectography, papyrography, velocigraphy, etc., are transmissible in the mails to the countries of the Postal Union at printed matter rates, provided said reproductions are mailed at post office windows, and in the minimum number of twenty (20) perfectly identical copies; if mailed otherwise than as above provided, such reproductions are subject to treatment as letters.

d. Printed matter must be either placed under band, upon a roller, between boards, in a case open at one side or at both ends, or in an unclosed envelope; or simply folded in such a manner as not to conceal the nature of the packet; or lastly, tied by a string easy to unfasten. Address cards and all printe d matter presenting the form and consistency of an unfolded card may be forwarded without band, envelope, fastening or fold. The maximum weight of printed matter is fixed at 2 kilograms (4 lb. 6 oz.); and the maximum size at 45 centimeters (18 inches) in any one direction, except that rolls of printed matter which do not exceed 75 centimeters (30 inches) in length and 10 centimeters (4 inches) in diameter may be forwarded by mail; and except also that packets of books and other printed matter which do not exceed 2 feet in length and 1 foot in each other dimension, are transmailable in the mails to Great Britain and Germany.

e. THE FOLLOWING ARE CONSIDERED AS COMMERCIAL PAPERS, viz.: All instruments or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand, which have not the character of an actual and personal correspondence, such as papers of legal procedure, deeds of all kinds drawn up by public functionaries, way-bills or bills of lading, invoices, the various documents of insurance companies, copies or extracts of deeds under private seal written on stamped or unstamped paper, scores or sheets of manuscript music, manuscript of works or of articles for publication in newspapers, forwarded separately, etc.

f. Commercial papers must be forwarded under band or in an open envelope. The maximum weight of commercial papers is fixed at 2 kilograms (4 lb. 6 oz), and the maximum size at 45 centimeters (18 inches), except when put up in rolls the dimensions of which do not exceed 75 centimeters (30 inches) in length, and 10 centimeters (4 inches) in diameter.

g. SAMPLES OF MERCHANDISE must conform to the following conditions: (1st) they must be placed in bags, boxes, or removable envelopes in such a manner as to admit of easy inspection; (2d) they must not have any salable value, nor bear any manuscript other than the name or profession of the sender, the address of the addressee, a manufacturer's or trade-mark, numbers, prices and indications relating to the weight or size of the quantity to be disposed of, and words which are necessary to precisely indicate the origin and nature of the merchandise; (3d) they must not exceed 250 grams in weight (8¾ ounces), or the following dimensions: 30 centimeters (12 inches) in length, 20 centimeters (8 inches) in breadth, and 10 centimeters (4 inches) in depth; except that when in the form of rolls, packages of samples may measure not to exceed 30 centimeters (12 inches) in length, and 15 centimeters (6 inches) in diameter.

h. By special agreement between the United States and France, Great Britain, Belgium Switzerland, the Argentine Republic, Italy, Egypt, Austria-Hungary, the Hawaiian Kingdom (Sandwich Islands), and the following British Colonies, viz.:

packets of samples of merchandise up to 350 grams (12 ounces) in weight are admissible to the mails exchanged between the United States and the countries and colonies mentioned.

i. Samples of liquids, fatty substances, and powders whether coloring or not (except such as are dangerous, inflammable, explosive, or exhale a bad odor), are admitted to the mails exchanged between the United States and those foreign countries which admit such samples to the mails they exchange with the other countries of the Universal Postal Union, provided said samples conform to the following conditions, viz.: (1) Liquids, oils and fatty substances which easily liquefy, must be placed in thick glass bottles hermetically sealed; the bottles must be placed in a wooden box, which can be opened without withdrading tacks, nails, or screws, containing sufficient spongy matter to absorb the contents if the bottles should break, and this wooden box must be enclosed in a case of metal or wood with a screw top, or of strong and thick leather, in order that it may be easily opened for examination of the contents. (2) Fatty substances which do not easily liquefy, such as ointments, resin, etc., must be enclosed in a box or bag of linen, parchment, etc, and then placed in an outside box of wood, metal or strong, thick leather. (3) Dry powders, whether coloring or not, must be enclosed in boxes or stout envelopes, which are placed in an outside bag of linen or parchment. Samples of flour, meal or sand are transmissible to Great Britain, provided they are enclosed in boxes or envelopes placed in outside bags of linen or parchment.

The countries with which the samples in question may be exchanged, so far as this Department has been advised, are as follows, viz: Canada, Costa Rica, Germany, Argentine Republic, Austria, Hungary, Belgium, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cameroons (Territory of,) Chili, Congo (State of), Denmark and Danish Colonies, Dominican Republic, Egypt, Spain and the Spanish Colonies, France and the French Colonies, Greece, the Hawaiian Kingdom, Hayti, Republic of Honduras, Italy, Japan, Luxemburg, Montenegro, Nicaragua, Norway, The Netherlands and the Netherlands Colonies including Curacoa, Peru, Portugal and the Portuguese Colonies, Roumania, Salvador, Servia, Siam, The South African Republic, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis (Regency of), and Turkey.

j. No provision has been made for the exchange by mail of samples like those above referred to, with any foreign countries other than those herein named.

NOTE 15.—The sender of any article addressed to a country of the Postal Union, may cause it to be withdrawn from the postal service, or have its address changed, as long as the article has not been delivered to the addressee; provided the legislation of the country of destination of the article allows such withdrawal or alteration. To effect either of these ends, the conditions prescribed in Ruling 192, on page 875 of this GUIDE, relative to withdrawing letters from the domestic mails, must be complied with; and, in addition, the sender must furnish a fac-simile of the address of the article, and must pay (by means of postage stamps affixed to his application, and canceled by the postmaster) the amount chargeable on a single registered letter, viz.: 13 cents. When these formalities have been complied with, the postmaster at the mailing office of the letter in question is required to forward the application, accompanied by the fac-simile of the address, under registration, to "The Superintendent of Foreign Mails, Washington, D. C.," who will request the foreign postal administration interested, to comply with the sender's directions. Postmasters are not authorized to return or change the address of articles for or from foreign countries; but they may, upon request, forward an article to the same addressee at another post office. Requests to return to sender or to change address should be referred to this Department, and the articles should be held until instructions concerning them are received.

This Department has been officially advised that the legislation of Great Britain and the British Colonies (except British Guiana and the Australasian Colonies), but including Canada and British India; also, Venezuela, Hayti, Japan, Bolivia, the Dominican Republic, Colombia (U. S. of), The Hawaiian Kingdom, the Republic of Honduras, does not allow senders of articles to withdraw them from the mails, or to change their address; consequently, senders cannot prevent the delivery to the original addressees of articles sent by mail, from the United States to any of those countries, nor from those countries and colonies to the United States.

NOTE 16.—Any article of mail matter, except those addressed under initials, or with the address written with a pencil, may be registered, subject to prepayment of the postage upon the article according to its nature, in addition to the registration fee.

NOTE 17.—1. All mailable matter of Postal Union origin (including such matter from Canada and Mexico), received in the United States, otherwise than by "Parcels-Post," may be reforwarded from the United States post offices of original destination to any, other United States post office, or to any Postal Union country, without charge of additional postage therefor, or, if a registered article, without charge of an additional registry fee. 2. Such matter, however, as has been addressed, in the first instance, to a post office in the country of mailing, is chargeable, on redirection, with the same postage, less the sum prepaid, as would have been charged had it been addressed originally to the post office of ultimate delivery, but, if registered, without additional registry fee. 3. Any article returned to sender for rectification or completion of its address, is not considered, when mailed with a corrected or completed address, as reforwarded matter, but as newly mailed, and consequently becomes liable to a new charge of postage; and upon any unpaid or short-paid article returned as undeliverable, the sender will be required to pay the sum which would have been collectible of the addressee if the article had been delivered.

NOTE 18.—Unpaid letters and post cards received from the Postal Union are chargeable with 10 cents per 15 grams ($\frac{1}{2}$ oz.). Insufficiently prepaid correspondence of all kinds is chargeable with double the amount of the deficient postage. Packets of commercial papers for the Postal Union, up to 10 ounces in weight, are chargeable with 5 cents; above that weight, with 1 cent for each two ounces. Packets of samples of merchandise up to 4 ounces in weight are chargeable with two cents; above that weight, with 1 cent for each two ounces. The prepayment of postage on ordinary letters is optional with the senders; but on registered articles full prepayment is compulsory. Postage on all other articles must be at least partially prepaid. Correspondence incompletely or incorrectly addressed and returned to origin for correct address is liable to a new postage upon its return corrected.

NOTE 19.—The following are excluded from the reduced postage, viz.: Stamps or forms of repayment, whether current or obsolete, canceled or uncanceled, as well as printed articles constituting the representative sign of monetary value. Monetary value is held by the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union to attach to bonds, bank notes, commercial bills of exchange, etc., which have been fully executed by the makers, and such articles are therefore excluded from reduced postage.

NOTE 20.—It is forbidden to send by mail: 1. Letters or packets containing gold or silver substances, jewelry or precious articles (see exceptions below). 2. Any packet whatever containing articles liable to customs duty. 3. Articles other than letters which are not prepaid at least partly, which contain manuscript having the character of actual correspondence, which are not wrapped so as to permit of being easily examined, or which do not fulfill the conditions required in order to enjoy the reduced rate. 4. Articles of a nature likely to soil or injure the correspondence. 5. Packets of samples of merchandise not fully prepaid at letter rates, which have a salable value, or which exceed 250 grams ($8\frac{3}{4}$ ozs.) in weight, or measure more than 30 centimeters (12 inches) in length, 20 centimeters (8 inches) in breadth, and 10 centimeters (4 inches) in depth (see exceptions, at "h" Note 14). Packets of commercial papers and printed matter of all kinds, not fully prepaid at letter rates, the weight of which exceeds 2 kilograms (4 lbs. 6 ozs.), or the dimensions of which exceed 45 centimeters (18 inches) in any direction, except when in the form of rolls which do not exceed 75 centimeters (30 inches) in length by 10 centimetres (4 inches) in diameter, as stated at "d" and "f" in Note 14. There is, moreover, reserved to the government of every country of the Union the right to refuse to convey over its territory or to deliver, as well articles liable to the reduced rate in regard to which the laws, ordinances, or decrees which regulate the conditions of their publication or of their circulation in that country have not been complied with, as correspondence of every kind which evidently bears inscriptions forbidden by the legal enactments or regulations in force in the same country. The prohibition against the transmission in Postal Union mails of letters or packages containing gold or silver bullion, precious stones, jewelry, or other precious articles, has been modified so as to prohibit the transmission only in the mails to and from those countries in which such articles are liable to customs duties, or whose legislation prohibits their circulation in its domestic mails. So far as this Department has been advised, the conditions prescribed prevent the forwarding of the articles referred to in the mail for any country of the Postal Union, except Germany and the German Protectorates, and the British Colonies of Hong Kong, Sierra Leone, the Falkland Islands, Bermuda, Gibraltar, Malta, Labuan, Lagos, Montserrat, Gambia, and Straits Settlements.

NOTE 21.—Articles of correspondence marked on the outside with the declared value of the contents, if addressed to Germany, Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Denmark and the Danish Colonies, Egypt, France and the French Colonies, Italy, Luxemburg, Norway, the Netherlands, Portugal and the Portuguese Colonies, Roumania, Russia, Servia, Sweden, or Switzerland, cannot be forwarded from the United States, and will be returned to the senders, if posted.

NOTE 22.—Correspondence for British India, Straits Settlements, Siam, the Dutch East Indies, and the Colony of West Australia, is now forwarded exclusively via New York, and included in the mails there made up for Great Britain and Italy, except when specially addressed upon the cover, "Via San Francisco."

ADMISSIBLE AND PROHIBITED ARTICLES, ENCLOSURES, ETC.

1. Any article admissible to the domestic mails of the United States may be sent by Parcels-Post to the countries named in the foregoing Table, but to those countries only, except the following, which are prohibited from transmission: Publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; poisons, and explosive or inflammable substances; liquids and substances which easily liquefy; confections and pastes; live or dead animals, except dead insects and reptiles, when thoroughly dried; fruits and vegetables, and substances which exhale a bad odor; lottery tickets, lottery advertisements, or lottery circulars; all obscene or immoral articles; articles which might in any way damage or destroy the mails or injure the persons handling them; and opium in parcels for or from the Hawaiian Kingdom.

2. A letter or communication of the nature of personal correspondence must not accompany, be written on, or enclosed with any parcel. If such be found, the letter will be placed in the mails if separable, and if the communication be inseparably attached, the whole parcel will be rejected. If, however, any such should inadvertently be forwarded, the country of destination will collect double the Parcels-Post rate of postage.

3. No parcel may contain packages addressed to persons other than the person named in the outside address of the parcel itself. If such enclosed packages be detected, they must be sent forward singly, charged with new and distinct parcel postage rates.

4. A parcel must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be taken into the post office, and presented to the postmaster or person in charge, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

INSPECTION OF PARCELS.

5. Examine the parcel.

(a) See that it is securely and substantially packed, so that it can be safely transmitted in the ordinary mail sacks, and that it is so wrapped or enclosed that its contents can be easily examined by postmasters and customs officers. If boxes are used, they should be provided with a sliding or hinged lid, as lids screwed or nailed to it will exclude it from the mails.

(b) See that it is plainly directed, giving the name and full address of the person for whom the parcel is intended; that it bears the words "Parcels-Post" conspicuously in the upper left-hand corner, and the name and address of the sender in such a position that it will not be mistaken for the address of the parcel.

6. Measure the Parcel:

a. See that it does not exceed the dimensions given in the table. A parcel not over 3 feet 6 inches in length may measure as much as 2 feet 6 inches in girth, or round its thickest part. A shorter parcel may be thicker; thus, if it measures no more than 3 feet in length, it may measure as much as 3 feet in girth, or round its thickest part.

b. The most convenient mode of measuring is by means of a tape line 6 feet long. So much of the tape as is not used in measuring the length, is the measure of the maximum girth permissible.

c. The foregoing remarks do not apply to parcels for Colombia, Costa Rica or Mexico, the length of which can in no case exceed 2 feet, no matter how small they may be in girth; and whose girth cannot exceed 4 feet, no matter how short the parcel may be.

7. Weigh the Parcel:

a. See that it does not weigh more than eleven (11) pounds; and determine the amount of postage, in accordance with the rates given in the above table.

b. The postage must, in all cases, be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed to the parcel. The postage rate is 12 cents for each pound or fraction of a pound. Consequently, if a parcel weigh even ¼ ounce over a pound, another full rate (12 cents), must be prepaid, or the parcel will not be dispatched from the United States.

CUSTOMS DECLARATIONS AND CERTIFICATES OF MAILING.

8. See that a "Customs Declaration" (Form 1; see page 943) properly filled out, is pasted upon the parcel.

9. Fill out and date-stamp a "Certificate of Mailing" (Form 2; see page 943), and hand the same to the sender.

REGISTERED PARCELS.

10. The sender of a parcel addressed to any of the countries, named in the table at the head of this article, except Barbadoes, may have the same registered by paying a registration fee of 8 cents, and will receive the "RETURN-RECEIPT" without special charge therefor; but the Post Office Department will in no case be responsible for the loss or damage of any parcel.

11. The addressee of a registered parcel must be advised of the arrival of a parcel addressed to him, by a notice from the post office of destination. Postmasters will see that such notices are promptly given in all cases.

RETURN RECEIPTS FOR ORDINARY PARCELS.

12. The sender of an ordinary [unregistered] parcel addressed to Jamaica, Barbadoes, the Bahamas and British Honduras, may obtain a "Return-Receipt" for the same by prepaying by means of postage stamps, a fee of five cents in addition to the ordinary postage. In such cases the words "Return-Receipt demanded," should be plainly written on the cover of the parcel.

CUSTOMS DUTY AND POSTAGE CHARGES ON DELIVERY.

13. Dutiable articles received in the United States in Parcels-Post Mails will be rated and charged with the proper amount of customs duty by the customs officer at the United States Exchange Post Office at which said mails are received from abroad, and the duty so rated will be collected and remitted to said customs officer by the postmaster who delivers the articles, in accordance with the provisions of Section 581 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.

14. On the delivery of a parcel to the addressee a postage charge of five cents must be collected on each single parcel of whatever weight; and if the weight exceed one pound, a charge of one cent for each four ounces of weight or fraction thereof will be collected. Postage-due stamps to the amount of this charge on each parcel will be affixed and canceled before delivery. (See Sections 513 and 515 Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.)

RETURN AND RE-DIRECTION OF PARCELS.

15. Parcels which cannot be delivered or are refused must be marked on the cover to show the cause of non-delivery, such as "unclaimed," "refused," etc., and returned to the office of exchange which dispatched them, at the expiration of 90 days from the date of their receipt at the office of destination in the case of parcels for or from Colombia; and at the expiration of 30 days in the case of parcels for or from Mexico, Costa Rica, Salvador, the Danish West India Islands (St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John), British Guiana and the Windward Islands; and for such return the SENDER will be required to pay a sum equal to the postage collected on the parcel when it was mailed.

16. In the case of undeliverable or refused parcels from Jamaica, Barbadoes, The Leeward Islands, The Hawaiian Kingdom, Bahamas, and British Honduras, the postmaster at the post office of destination will notify "The Superintendent of Foreign Mails" that the parcels remain undelivered at his office—giving a full description of said parcels—and hold the parcels subject to the instructions of the Department. If the sender of such a parcel should fail to indicate within a period of three months how he desires the parcel to be disposed of, the postmaster will be instructed to return the parcel, under registration, to the Collector of Customs, from whom he received it, in accordance with the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 581 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, 1893.

17. Senders of parcels for or from Jamaica, Barbadoes, The Leeward Islands, the Hawaiian Kingdom, British Guiana, and the Windward Islands, who request their parcels to be returned, or forwarded to a different destination, must transmit with their request the amount necessary to prepay postage afresh at the rate of 12 cents per pound or fraction of a pound.

18. Postmasters will make requisition upon "The Superintendent of Foreign Mails, Post Office Department" for supplies of "Certificates of Mailing," as well as of the "Customs Declarations," and will make application to him for any needed information respecting the Parcels-Post Service.

They are also charged to take pains to assist the public to an understanding of this service and to its convenient use.

SUPPLEMENT.

CLASSIFICATION OF MAIL MATTER.

First-class Matter.

The Following Articles are Among those Subject to First-class Rate of Postage:—Autograph albums, containing writing; bank books, with written entries; bank checks filled out in writing, whether cancelled or not; written visiting cards; "old letters," whether sent singly or in bulk; stenographic or shorthand notes; diplomas, marriage, insurance, or other certificates, filled out in writing; manuscript copy, when not accompanied with printed proof-sheets; type-written matter, and manifold copies of the same; drawings and plans, containing written words, letters, or figures indicating size, price, dimensions, etc.; envelopes bearing written addresses; remailed postal cards wholly or partly in writing; printed assessment notices with amount due written or stamped in; printed price-lists, containing written figures; printed receipts with written signature; printed blank forms, filled out in writing; printed cards bearing a written date, where the date is not the date of the card, but gives information as to when the sender will call, or will deliver something mentioned in the printed part of the card, or is the date upon which something is acknowledged to have been received; indented or perforated sheets of paper, containing characters which can be read by the blind, when they contain actual, personal correspondence.

Third-class Matter.

The Following Articles, when Printed upon Paper, and Containing no Writing, are Third-class Matter:—Almanacs; printed legal and insurance blanks; blue prints; printed books; canvassing and prospectus books with printed sample chapters; blank check books and receipt books; printed cards; circulars, catalogues, and assessment notices wholly in print; Christmas and Easter cards; school copy books with printed lines and instructions for use; matter reproduced by the cyclostyle, hectograph, mimeograph, electric pen, or other similar process easy of recognition; engravings and wood cuts; printed labels; lithographs; printed maps (on paper); music books, and sheets of music; printed blank notes; photographs; printed plans and architectural designs; postage stamps, cancelled or uncancelled; postal cards, bearing printed advertisements, mailed singly or in bulk, price-lists wholly in print; printed proof-sheets, with or without manuscript; printed tags; printed calendars; U. S. Treasury notes; printed valentines; press clippings, with name and date of paper stamped in; indented or perforated sheets of paper, containing characters which can be read by the blind, when not in the nature of personal correspondence.

Seeds, bulbs, roots, scions and plants are, by the Act of July 24, 1888, also mailable at the third-class rate of postage. Under this head are included samples of wheat or other grain in its natural condition; seedling potatoes, beans, peas, chestnuts and acorns. Not, however, samples of flour, rolled oats, pearled barley, or other cereals which can only be used as articles of food; or cut flowers, dried plants, and botanical specimens; or foreign nuts and seeds (such as the coffee bean) used exclusively as articles of food, all of which are subject to postage at the fourth-class rate.

Fourth-class Matter.

Under the Head of Fourth-class Matter are Included the Following Articles:—Artificial flowers; photograph albums; blank autograph albums; blank books with printed headings; bill-heads and letter-heads; blank books; blotters, printed or unprinted; coin; blank cards; printed playing cards; Christmas and Easter cards, printed on other material than paper; samples of cloth; cut flowers; dried plants; botanical and geological specimens; blank diaries; envelopes, printed or unprinted; samples of flour, or other manufactured grain for food purposes; blank address tags or labels; dissected maps and pictures; proprietary medicines in original packages; metals; minerals; paper bags and wrapping paper, printed or unprinted; crayon pictures, oil or water-color paintings, pen or pencil pictures or drawings, if they contain no written words, letters, or figures giving size, dimension, distance, price, &c.; blank postal cards in bulk packages; printed dress charts, and printed patterns; stationery; samples of merchandise; wooden rulers, containing printed advertisements; wall paper; queen bees, when properly packed; dried fruit; framed engravings, drawings, or paintings; maps printed upon cloth; calendars, or other matter printed upon celluloid; paper napkins; photographs retouched with India ink or water colors; tin types; daguerreotypes; electrotype plates; and, in general, all articles not included in the other three classes of mail matter.

The Columbian envelopes ceased to be issued to postmasters on the 30th of December, 1893. They were of the sizes and denominations above given, only, and were furnished subject to the same rules, relative to quantity, plain, blank request, special request, and redemption as those of the regular 1890 series, and will remain good for postage indefinitely.

COLUMBIAN POSTAGE STAMPS.

The arrangement under which Columbian postage stamps have been heretofore furnished the Department terminated on the 31st of December, 1893, after which date their issue to postmasters was discontinued. Prior to this, however, large quantities were sent to all the Presidential post offices, where the public may procure them until the supply shall be exhausted. Postmasters must retain these stamps until they are all sold. No application for their return or exchange will be entertained.

Any of the high denominations of these stamps may be bought of postmasters at the following named offices: Montgomery, Ala.; Little Rock, Ark.; San Francisco and Los Angeles, Cal.; Denver and Trinidad, Colo.; Hartford, Conn.; Wilmington, Del.; Washington, D. C.; Jacksonville and Tampa, Fla.; Atlanta and Savannah, Ga.; Boise City, Idaho; Chicago and Springfield, Ill.; Indianapolis and Evansville, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Wichita and Topeka, Kans.; Lexington and Louisville, Ky.; New Orleans and Shreveport, La.; Augusta, Me.; Baltimore, Md.; Boston, Worcester, Springfield and New Bedford, Mass.; Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Saginaw East Side, Mich.; Saint Paul and Duluth, Minn.; Vicksburg, Miss.; Kansas City and Saint Louis, Mo.; Helena, Mont.; Lincoln and Omaha, Nebr.; Manchester, N. H.; Jersey City and Trenton, N. J.; Albuquerque, N. Mex.; Albany, Buffalo, Binghamton, and New York, N. Y.; Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, Dayton, Springfield, and Toledo, Ohio; Portland, Oregon; Erie, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Scranton, Pa.; Providence and Newport, R. I.; Charleston, S. C.; Knoxville, and Nashville, Tenn.; Austin and Galveston, Texas; Salt Lake City, Utah; Burlington, Vt.; Richmond, Va.; and Seattle, Wash.

POSTAL CARDS.

There will soon be issued a postal card of new design, dimensions 3½ x 5½ inches, weighing 6 pounds 10½ ounces per thousand. The stamp represents Thomas Jefferson, (the same that appeared on the 1885 card) three-quarters face to the left with the word "Jefferson" beneath, and from which spring branches of laurel extending two-thirds the way up the sides of the vignette. To the left in three lines are the words: "Postal card, one cent." "United States of America," in large letters, and beneath, "This side is for the address only," printed in black. The cards will be supplied in sheets of 32 each when 5,000 or more are desired in that form. The sheets are 22¾ inches wide by 28¾ inches perpendicular, i. e., four cards wide and eight high. The cards will be designated "G." and will supplant the A, B, and C cards heretofore issued.

KERR CRAIGE, Third Assistant Postmaster-General.
